

For Coughs and Colds

Troubled with a cough? A hard cold, bronchitis, or some chronic lung trouble? There is a medicine made for just about it. Ask him what he thinks of it. No medicine can ever take the place of your doctor. Keep in close touch with him, consult him frequently, trust him fully. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

WORKING ON BRIDGE.

A large force of bridge workers are here from the Roanoke Bridge Company, at work on the Seaboard Air Line bridge over Roanoke river.

This bridge was newly built a few years ago, but it is found that the Northampton end is in need of attention and one or more new spans will be put in. It will require several weeks to complete the work.

SPRING ARRIVED ON TIME.

It is well to remind our readers that Sunday was the first spring day, or else they may be strongly suspecting that it was winter.

It was not a typical spring day, however, with birds and butterflies, but with a dash of rain, hail and snow and a cold north wind.

Could you imagine anything more unspringlike? Yet the poets and the almanacs all informed us that spring would arrive on the 21st.

As to the damage to the fruit crop that remains for another chapter on "gentle spring."

NOTES FROM DAWSON'S.

A correspondent at Dawson's, in this county, gives some encouraging words about the good work that is being done by the Rev. D. E. Viperman, who is pastor in charge of the Dawson's Baptist Church.

The Sunday School has increased one hundred per cent and the ladies of the church have recently organized a Woman's Home Mission Society. They began with five members and the society now numbers fifteen.

Rev. R. E. Peeler, of Page's Mill, S. C., quite well known in this community, will preach at the Dawson's Baptist Church, next Sunday, the 28th.

REVIVAL SERVICES.

Rev. S. E. Mercer is conducting a series of revival meetings at the M. E. Church this week, and much interest is being manifested. Service at 10:00 a. m., and 7:45 p. m. each day. The co-operation and prayers of Christians of all denominations are most earnestly desired.

The first services were held Sunday. The day was most inclement and cold, yet fairly good congregations attended morning and evening service. Large congregations are now in attendance at each evening service and the pastor earnestly desires to see all the uncovered saved during this meeting.

MONEY FOR NEW CHURCH.

In order to aid the ladies of Weldon in their efforts to raise funds for the new Methodist Episcopal church we have decided to allow as many as will to canvas Weldon, or any of the near by towns, for subscriptions and will give one third of all the money they can get. Should they succeed in getting one hundred new subscribers this would mean $50 for the church. Besides, you are not asking any one to give you a cent, either. You are giving them value received for their money, and at the same time they are aiding in a good cause. Any and all ladies desiring to work with this scheme will be furnished with sample copies, blanks and full particulars by calling at ROANOKE NEWS OFFICE.

aged eight years, who was kidnapped at Sharon, Pa., last Thursday, was restored to his father at Cleveland, Ohio, Monday night, after the latter had negotiated the return with a woman at a candy store and paid over the $10,000 ransom demanded by the kidnapers. The father on recovering the boy was overjoyed and in using the long distance telephone to break the glad news to Willie's mother said: "Oh, mother, I have Willie here in my arms. He is safe. HALIFAX LETTER.

Items of Interest Gathered by Our Regular Correspondent.

(COR. TO THE ROANOKE NEWS.)

Miss Pannie Williams, of Ringwood, spent a day or two with Miss Mary Norman last week.

Norwood L. Simmons, of Washington, N. C., was a visitor here Sunday.

Misses Julia Rhem and Jennie Sewell, of Tillery, are the guests of Mrs. N. L. Stedman this week.

Misses Florence Froelich and Emma Tillery, of Manchester, Va., came down Saturday night to visit the Misses Sater.

Mrs. Brown has returned from Millbrook, where she has been visiting her brother, Rev. Geo. T. Simmons, for several weeks.

Miss Wilhelmina Froelich came from Manchester Monday to visit relatives and friends.

E. L. Vinson has closed out his drug business to Dr. H. B. Furgerson, and will establish a drug store elsewhere.

We are able to report Mr. T. O. Vaughan's condition as slightly better this week.

Mr. Wallace Carroll on Monday lost by death a very fine horse. The horse was stricken with pneumonia, and no relief could be given.

Rev. W. S. Rone, presiding elder of the Warrenton District, visited our town Sunday, preaching two very eloquent sermons, which were quite a spiritual uplift for those fortunate enough to hear him. Rev. Mr. Rone is a very fluent preacher, speaking in easy well modulated tones, couching his words in sentences sparkling with rare beauty and richness. He has the faculty of deeply impressing from the very beginning, his hearers, and as a result there is that corresponding harmony between preacher and people that culminates in the giving and receiving of helpful and valuable lessons, so much needed by those who would aspire to the higher, grander, more satisfactory life. Brother Rone's visits are always anticipated with much pleasure and is a real delight to come in contact with such a life as his. The first quarterly conference was held on Monday morning at the residence of Mrs. Brown, and the reports from the preacher, the stewards, and S. S. superintendents of the charge, prove that the work was in fairly good condition, and much is expected this year. By pastor and people blending their united energies to this end much good can result. W. F. C.

Miss Morrison, of Baltimore head trimmer and designer for Mrs. P. A. Lewis this season, has arrived. Miss Morrison comes highly recommended as being an artist in the line of trimming and designing, and Mrs. Lewis is to be congratulated on having Miss Morrison with her this season.

DWELLING DESTROYED.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Barely Escape with Their Lives—Negro Boy Burned Up.

Saturday night the Whitehead place, owned by Mr. W. B. Drewry, four miles south of Weldon was destroyed by fire.

The dwelling was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Will Carroll, and they came near losing their lives in the fire. When aroused by the smoke and deadly crackling of the fire the bed they occupied was burning. It was a moment of terror and no time to even think. Mrs. Carroll hastily caught up her little baby, four weeks old, and followed by her husband they escaped in their night robes from the burning building. A negro boy who worked about the house and stables for Mr. Carroll was burned up, only the charred remains of his heart being found in the ashes Sunday morning.

Mr. Carroll is a nephew of Mr. Drewry, and as soon as possible Mr. Drewry was on the scene with clothing and aid for the suffering, who were speedily taken to his home.

The dwelling was one of the handsomest country places in the county and was valued at $3,000. Mr. Drewry had $1,500 insurance on building placed in the Virginia Fire and Marine Insurance Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll lost everything they possessed including furniture, clothing and family stores. Mrs. Carroll even had her hair scorched so near was the fire to her head when she was aroused. It was an awful experience they say, and Mrs. Carroll has been prostrated since the fire.

Mr. Drewry, with that kind and sympathetic nature, and big heart, always ready to respond to the cry of distress, has done all in his power to contribute to their comfort and reconcile them to their loss. They saved their precious baby, and their own lives have been spared, as if by a miracle, while a human being had the life crushed out in the flames, and this is something to be thankful for.
