

Women Suffer Agonies from Diseased Kidneys

And Most Women Do This Not Knowing the Real Cause of their Condition

These poor, suffering women have been led to believe that their misery of mind and body is entirely due to "ills of their sex." Usually the kidneys and bladder are responsible—or largely so. And in such cases, the kidneys and bladder are the organs, that need and must have attention.

Those torturing, enervating sick headaches, dragging pains in back, groins and limbs, bloating and swelling of the extremities, extreme nervousness or hysteria, listlessness and constant tired, heart-sore feeling—are almost certain symptoms of disordered and diseased kidneys, bladder and liver.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills have, in thousands of cases, been demonstrated as remarkably beneficial in all such conditions of female organs—affording the most prompt relief and permanent benefit.

As an illustration of what these Pills will do, Mrs. P. M. Dray of Columbus, Ga., writes that she was very ill with kidney trouble, and that she is now well—and that these Pills are what cured her.

They are very pleasant to take, and can in no case produce any deleterious effects upon the system—no astringent, alcoholic, liquid preparations are apt to do.

E. C. DeWitt Co., Chicago, Ill., want every man and woman who have the least suspicion that they are afflicted with kidney and bladder diseases to at once write them, and a trial box of these Pills will be sent free by return mail post-paid. Do it today.

THE WIFE.

A Man Should Do Everything In His Power To Make His Wife Happy.

We go out to God's acre, and we read upon the tombstones of the poor wives who sleep quietly beneath the daisies, with their hands folded upon their breasts, of their virtues, and we think that some of the inscriptions should read, "Died of overwork." If life is a battle to man, it is more to a woman. Woman does not draw her inspiration from the same source as man. Three things she needs and must have: First, your society and companionship; second, your confidence; and third, your love. She doesn't want to wait until she is dead to read her virtues on her tombstone. She wants her husband to tell her how much he loves her. There are couples, happy in the eyes of society, who in the home are nothing to each other. There are couples who in society blossom over with courtesies to each other, but who in their own homes are as stolid as oysters. In society the husband will almost break his neck to pick up her handkerchief if it falls, and at home will allow her to carry the coal-bod. We sometimes marvel at the coolness with which a man asks a tenderly raised maiden to leave her luxurious home to cast her lot with him upon the uncertain sea of matrimony, and I marvel at the faith of the maiden who accepts the offer, saying: "Whither thou goest I will go, and where thou lodgest I will lodge; thy people shall be my people and thy God shall be my God." Grave obligations grow out of this love and sacrifice and man's duty next to glorifying his Creator is certainly to live for woman's happiness.

THE TIME TO MARRY.

Miss Sutton's Rule Must be Varied by Conditions.

Although discussions as to marriage are generally in order only in the month of June, it seems that Miss May Sutton, of California, the famous tennis player, has brought the whole subject into the limelight. In explaining the breaking of her engagement she declared that she was not yet old enough to marry, and by so doing she has aroused both sides of the Atlantic. England has furnished converts to her theory and has likewise produced some rapid opponents of it.

We surmise that everything depends on the conditions. We are informed that an unmarried lady of seventeen is a rarity among the Hottentots, and in Ghat, the country where the women control the government it is deemed proper to court young men as soon as they have demonstrated their ability to properly cook the big game which the women kill. On the other hand, in cold climates, it is said women do not marry until in the forties, and it is asserted that in the bleak Massachusetts many of them—in fact, the majority—do not marry at all.

It is an old saying that "when poverty comes in at the door love flies out at the window." In other words, youthful marriages, if unsuccessful, are so in general because of the husband's inability to support a family. Of course, we are not speaking of the west, where a lady is apt to celebrate her first marriage at an early age in order that she may be properly equipped for real life later. We are speaking rather of those communities in which marriage is a life contract.

Miss Sutton is apt to know what she is talking about. Tennis is invented for lovers, and Miss Sutton is a skilled player. We do not doubt that she is serious in her belief, yet it is just possible that there is one man in the world somewhere who may be able to persuade Miss Sutton to change her view. Age does not count in matrimony, as Mrs. Besant well knows. It is all a question of affinities. —Charleston News and Courier.

RELIGIOUS CHICKENS.

Mrs. Nelson Swezey, of this place, has a flock of what are known as "religious fowls," which answer to but one call or sound.

When Mrs. Swezey wants to feed her fowls she gathers them together by whistling a familiar hymn—"Come, Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy"—when the fowls will hasten to her side, knowing that temporal food awaits them.

From mere chicks the Swezey fowls have been thus fed, and they refuse to answer to the ordinary call of "chick, chick," which brings other flocks to the feeding place.—New York World.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

has many obstructions, but none so desperate as poor health. Success today demands health, but Electric Bitters is the greatest health builder the world has ever known. It compels perfect action of stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels, purifies and enriches the blood and tones and invigorates the whole system. Vigorous body and keen brain follow these. You can't afford to slight Electric Bitters if weak, run down or sickly. Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

CONDUCT ON THE TRAIN.

"What's the porter passing around?"
 "Schedules for our trip across the continent."
 "Schedules of what?"
 "Showing in which States it is illegal to smoke cigarettes, take a drink, play cribbage and so on."

A HURRY UP CALL.

Quick! Mr. Druggist! Quick! A box of Buckley's Anemia Salve—Here's a quarter—For the love of Moses, hurry! My baby's burned himself, terribly—Johnnie cut his foot with the axe—Mamie's scalded—Pa can't walk from Piles—Billie has boils—and my corns ache. She got it and soon cured all the family. It's the greatest healer on earth. Sold by all druggists.

Go With A Rush.

The demand for that wonderful Stomach, Liver and Kidney cure, Dr. King's New Life Pills—is astounding. Druggists say they never fail to cure Sour Stomach, Constipation, Indigestion, Biliousness, Jaundice, Sick Headache, Chills and Malaria. Only 25c.

LOGICAL REASONING.

A certain young man's friends thought he was dead, but he was only in a state of coma. When, in ample time to avoid being buried, he showed signs of life, he was asked how it seemed to be dead.

"Dead?" he exclaimed. "I wasn't dead. I knew all that was going on. And I knew I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry."

"But how did that fact make you think you were still alive?" asked one of the curious.

"Well, this way: I knew that if I were in heaven I wouldn't be hungry. And if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold."
