BIBLE STUDIES

ARRANGED AS A BIASPHEMER

Matthew 23:57--November 27, 1910

It cannot be better at the opening of this study than upon the words of Mr. Chandler. He said: "Many remarkable trials have characterized the judicial history of the United States, but the trial of Secretary of State Blaine, charged with obscuring the Albatross south, will surpass them all in magnitude and interest." The trial of Secretary of State Blaine, charged with obscuring the Albatross south, will surpass them all in magnitude and interest.

He Was Charged With Blasphemy

They had difficulty in finding a charge. For what had Jesus ever done except acts of kindness and the uttering of words of wisdom and correction and hope? Blasphemy was a serious charge under the Jewish code. They would charge him with that as being the easiest to prove. He had said, when near the Temple, "Destroy this Temple, and I will rear it up in three days." But he spoke of the temple of his Body. Some of those who heard him understood him to speak of the literal temple. This charge was blasphemy, because it took years to build the temple, and for Jesus to rebuild it in three days would mean a claim on his part of Divine power. But the charge did not seem sufficiently strong, even for those who had premeditated his murder. They wanted something to give a color of justice, at least, to their feelings. So the chief priest thought to get Jesus to commit himself in their presence and said, I adjure thee by the Living God to tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus replied that this was true and that they would yet see him in heavenly glory and power at the right hand of Divine favor. This, the High Priest declared, was sufficient proof of blasphemy. "Behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy. What reply ye?" And the council answered that he was worthy of death. The rabble in the Court, bearing the commotion, felt at liberty to abuse this prisoner, as they had done others. They showed their contempt of him by spitting upon him. They derided him by smiting him and saying, Prophecy, tell us a more than was revealed, yet averted our eyes."

Politics and Selfishness as Religion

The Jews are not so different from other people now, nor were they then. History indicates that some of their highest virtues were held by idolaters for their political influence. This was the case with the Jews in the time of Jesus. They were a selfish people, and their religion was a mere cloak for their ambition. They were a selfish people, and their religion was a mere cloak for their ambition. They were a selfish people, and their religion was a mere cloak for their ambition.

Failed in Health

"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong, and this, with the shock of her death, was too much for me. I failed in health. I was tired all the time and did not want to go anywhere, nor care for company. I had the headache all the time and such bearing-down pains. A very dear friend advised me to take Cardui, as it had done her so much good, so I commenced to use it and now I am in good health."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Women's pains are relieved or prevented and women's strength is quickly restored by Cardui, the woman's tonic. You yourself know best if you need it, or not. If you do need it, do not delay, but commence to use it at once. Every day of delay, only lets you slide further down the hill. Don't wait, then, but begin to take Cardui today, for its use, no matter how prolonged, cannot harm you and will surely do you good.
