The new woman may be a few years older than the old-fashioned one, but she is a more dignified and more intelligent creature.

Miss Nellie Langford, of Salisbury, Md., who has been in the city for the past few weeks, has returned home.

A person who rides over the extensive fields of Blue Ridge farm are impressed with the fact that the birds are suitable for the production of every known crop.

Miss Helen and Miss Nowell, of Angonia, Ga., and Miss Mamie Colclinton, of Mason, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Drake last week, while enroute to Washington, D. C.

Many people go to Ocean View. A large number of Weldon people took advantage of the cheap Sunday rates on the Seaboard Air Line and went down to Ocean View Sunday to spend the day at the seashore. The train was about three hours late and was well crowded, yet the day was pleasant and the excursionists report having spent a nice day.

SPECIAL TRAINS TO NORFOLK.—In order to accommodate the many patrons of the road, the Seaboard will run a special train to Portsmouth on Sunday, August 27th. The train will leave Raleigh at midnight, Roanoke Junction 2:55 a. m., Weldon 3:08 a. m., Garysburg 3:13 a. m., $1.50 for round trip. Returning, leave Portsmouth 9:30 p. m., giving a whole day at Virginia Beach, or Ocean View.

DELICIOUS ENTERTAINMENT.—Mrs. Lee Johnson gave a very delightful entertainment to her daughter, Miss Eleanor Johnson, Thursday evening, in honor of Misses Farmer, Odum, Burrall and Deans who have been spending some time with Misses Johnson and Willie Musgrove.

Friday these young people were given a picnic at the Pierce farm, near Smith's court, of which the season barbecue, Brunswick stew, and other good things were served. Mr. O. W. Pierce had charge and direction of preparing the nice dinner for the little flock.

ANOTHER FINE DINNER.—A unique idea was the porch wedding at the home of Mrs. Sallie Jackson, near Weldon, Wednesday of the past week, when her daughter, Mrs. Susie Beckel, Grenner, and Mr. Leon Anderson, of Aurelian Springs, pledged their troth, each to the other, the vows being taken by Rev. J. E. Hadden, of Empfield. The wedding was very quiet, only a few relatives and friends being present. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left for Norfolk to spend a few days at Ocean View and Virginia Beach. They have our best wishes for a happy and prosperous life's voyage.

Claude Hillard acted as best man and came in with the groom from the side porch. The porch was artistically decorated for the occasion with choice cut flowers, ferns and running cedar.

A delightful wedding luncheon was served consisting of Brunswick stew, barbecue and other good things to eat.

The bride is a young woman, of most attractive personality and is quite popular. The groom is a young man of sterling worth, is a most promising young business man, and is a brother of David R. Anderson, of this town.

Some of the young men belonging to the best families of this community not being able to get work, on account of the hardness of the times, have manfully pulled off their coats and gone to work on the iron bridge which is now in course of erection for the Seaboard road.

At the recent term of Halifax Superior court Judge McKay, who presided, saw among the crowd in attendance a person whom he thought a man with his hat on. He turned to the deputy sheriff, and in a dignified manner, said, "Mr. Sheriff, are there any Quakers in this community?" The Sheriff said there were none. "Then," said Judge McKay, "take that man's hat off." The Sheriff went off in a few minutes returned, saying, with a grin, "your honor, that man's a woman." The court smiled, the rest filtered.

HOOKWORM DISPENSARIES.

Dr. Covington's Report Showing The Work Accomplished.

Below will be found a tabulated report showing fully the work that has been accomplished by the Halifax county Hookworm Dispensaries. These dispensaries have been a great success from every point of view. They have proven the means by which a large number of our citizens have been restored to health and happiness. Their educational influence alone has been worth a dozen times more than they have cost our county.

The 15th inst., at Scotland Neck, marked the close of the last dispensary for this county.

The following table shows the number examined at each dispensary and the number effected:

FOUND DEAD IN THE ROAD.—W. C. Powell, a well known firm of Halifax county, was found dead in the road Saturday night near his home. Mr. Powell had been in Littleton during the day and had been drinking. At first it was feared that there had been foul play, but upon examination there was no evidence of any assault having been made upon him. The coroner's opinion is that he suffered a stroke of apoplexy and fell dead suddenly. Coroner Rowe was notified and went up Monday to hold an inquest. It was not believed by many people that an inquest was necessary, yet some of the friends of the dead man wanted an inquest and an investigation.

HALIFAX SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Justice Presiding Over the August Term—Large Attendance—the First Day—Several Important Cases on the State Docket.

The August term of Halifax Superior court began Monday morning with Judge M. H. Justice, of Lenoirville, presiding. The weather was hot and there was a large attendance the first day. The lawyers were also in evidence, trying the merits of their respective "suits" and going away with lots of things "for advertising purposes." Quite a number were separated from their hard-earned quarters and judges and the lawyers were happy.

Judge Justice is one of the most popular justices in the State, and nothing disturbs him while on the bench. He also has an eye for the beauties of nature as well as a kind heart in dealing out the judgments of the court. He greatly admired the beautiful flower garden of Clerk Gary, in full foliage, and said Mr. Gary was ahead of any of the clerks of the courts he had yet seen.

The first business in order was the drawing of a grand jury. The following were drawn: W. W. Keeter, T. H. Vandingham, A. C. Medford, E. A. Watson, J. J. Willey, J. E. Cox, J. R. Carroll, A. L. Robinson, L. G. Light, C. H. Roberson, M. L. Cullom, E. B. Parr, G. A. Allen, R. A. Rogers, A. V. Price, J. H. Saunders, N. B. Dickens, O. W. Stokes.

R. A. Rogers was appointed foreman and E. W. Dickens was sworn in as officer.

Judge Justice's charge was admirably timed, and was clear, forceful, and boiled down till it glittered like polished gold.

Many cases were disposed of during the afternoon session and the Solicitor is clearing the deck for the more important cases.

Judge Justice said, in passing sentence upon an offender for carrying a concealed weapon, that he was now fully convinced that imposing small fines in such cases were all wrong. He cited the many recent murders in the State where sheriffs, deputies and policemen had been shot down by men carrying concealed weapons, and said "I will make the change now. Let the defendant go to the county roads for four months."
