WHAT ARE WE HERE FOR?

The Power and Pleasure of Doing Good to Others.

What are we here for? What is the prime purpose of life?

Some of us act as if we were here merely for the purpose of adding up columns of figures and piling up pyramids of dollars. Some of us will rob our nights of sleep, break the commandments and callous our souls for the sake of money that we can lose.

Silly?

No more so than those who think we are in this world for the purpose of acquiring power. To be accounted "somebody" inside some little circle, these will ride remorselessly over the rights of others. For the mere pleasure of exercising power they will rise on the stepping stones of prostrate souls.

Futile?

Not more so than those who think life should be dedicated to pleasure. These try to fill their days and nights with joy rides and fleeting sensations. They crowd enjoyment to the verge of satiety and destroy their capacity for normal satisfaction.

What then are we here for? By the process of elimination it can be shown that a human being is so built that every power, pleasure, acquirement, is in vain save one.

And that? The power and pleasure of doing good to others.

Oh, but you say— "That is Sunday school talk." No, it is not. Or if it is not true because it is taught in Sunday school; it is taught there because it is true.

It is God's truth. The law of it is laid in the constitution of things. It is attested by all history and experience—a law as true as any in mathematics.

And— We know it. But, like Jonah, we are forever running away from our mission. We prefer the perils of the sea and the habitat of the fish's stomach to going to Nineveh.

Get money? Yes, as much as you can—honestly.

And get as much power as you can use for good. Incidentally the pleasure will come of themselves.

But, above all— Do not forget what you are here for.

HE WAS A HERO, TOO.

SENATOR ROBT. M. LAFOLLETTE. Senator LaFollette, at a picnic in Madison, was praising a young Milwaukee couple that had just got married.

"They'll have a rather hard time of it, too," he said, thoughtfully, "with prices at the height they are and Bert's salary in the office so ridiculous."

The Senator laughed gaily. "A girl," he continued, "once lifted her head from her young man's bosom and murmured: 'If it were but possible in these prosaic days, for you to do something heroic, something brave and knightlike, in order to prove your love!'"

"Why, gracious goodness," cried the young fellow, "ain't I goin' to marry you next month on a salary of eight per cent?"—Washington Star.

SWEETEST ROSES.

BY ADELBERT CLARK.

When I've passed this world of sorrow,
Do not seek to sooth my brow,
Do not heap my grave with blossoms,—
Bring your sweetest roses, now!
Bring them now, while I am living,
Toiling on, in youth's gay prime;
While I'm climbing Life's steep ladder
'Neath the heavy hand of Time.

Life is full of endless beauty,
Death is keeper of the tomb,
Smiles and laughter are from heaven,
Tears are jewels for the gloom.
If you want to scatter sunshine
O'er my care-worn, aching brow,
If you want to make me happy,
Bring your sweetest roses, now!

Let all sorrow turn to gladness,
Knowing that beyond all strife
Heaven and God shall be my refuge.
When I've reached the Higher Life,
When I'm gone, it matters little
What goes on above my clay;
I shall then be past the knowing,—
Bring the roses then, to-day!

No Need to Stop Work.

When your doctor orders you to stop work, it staggers you. "I can't," you say. You know you are weak, run-down and failing in health, day by day, but you must work as you can stand. What you need is Electric Bitters to give tone, strength, and vigor to your system, to prevent breakdown and build you up. Don't be weak, sickly or ailing when Electric Bitters will benefit you from the first dose. Thousands bless them for their glorious health and strength. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c. at all druggists.

For his own lean joke a man has a fat laugh.
We should have but few regrets if people didn't find us out.

HAD OCEAN LONG ENOUGH

It is told of an Iowa visitor to Atlantic City. She was there for the first time, and was accompanied by her daughter. Daughter was delighted, and spent hours in the surf. Her mother went with her to the beach one forenoon and waited on the sand.

When her daughter approached the beach the mother called to her: "Daughter, better come out now. Some other lady may wish to use the ocean. Come, you've had your bath."

PHYSICAL STRAINS.

Men Over Forty-Five Should Take No Excessive Exercise.

The physical decay of men over forty must be more frequently mentioned lest we forget the fact that our physique was evolved for only thirty-five or forty years of strenuous use, says American Medicine. It was not so long ago that forty-five was extreme old age—counting time in the large way of evolution. Lengthening of life has been possible because civilization has let up the physical strains so if we continue them we must expect to break as of old.

Athletes stop their efforts merely because they are beaten by younger men, but the nonathletic seem to think that it is necessary to keep up excessive exercise, though the tissues cannot stand it. There is, then, no mystery in the large number of damaged hearts now being found, and they will continue to increase in number and severity until the medical profession succeeds in impressing the lesson.

Let us repeat it over and over again until every man over forty or forty-five realizes that he has lived his allotted time of physical vigor and must ease up the strains to retain his health. There is no reason except abuse why so many men break at fifty-five or sixty. They should be healthy until seventy or seventy-five and it is our duty to show how.

A Dreadful Sight

To H. J. Barnum, of Freeville, N. Y., was the fever-sore that had plagued his life for years in spite of many remedies he tried. At last he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and wrote: "It has entirely healed with scarcely a scar left." Heals Burns, Boils, Eczema, Cuts, Bruises, Corns and Piles like magic. Only 25c. at all druggists.

Rosy automobile dreams, with a girl on the front seat, can turn to dark ambulance realities.

A RAILROAD MAN'S PRAYER.

An old railroad engineer experienced religion and when asked to lead in prayer, this is the way he worded it:

"O Lord, now that I have flagged Thee lift my feet off the rough road of life and plant them safely on the deck of the train of salvation. Let me use the safety lamp known as prudence, make all of the couplings in the train with the strong link of Thy love and let my hand lamp be the Bible, and Heavenly Father keep all switches closed that lead off on sidings, especially those with a blind end.

"O Lord, if it be Thy pleasure, have every semaphore block along the line show the white light of hope that I may make the run of life without stopping and Lord give us the ten commandments as a schedule time; and when my train shall have pulled into the great dark station of death, may Thou, the superintendent of the universe, look with a smile and say, 'well done thou good and faithful servant, come up and sign the payroll and receive your check for eternal happiness.'"

EDUCATIONAL.

"Do they teach domestic science at your college?" inquired the visitor, of the freshman.

"Only sewing," replied the freshman.

"Good idea," said the visitor. "And what do you sew, chiefly?"

"Wild oats," replied the freshman.—Harper's Weekly.

FIRST AND LAST.

"As the last rose of summer goes out the first rows of winter come in?"

"The first rows of winter?"

"Sure, the bald-head rows at the vaudeville shows."

To Head-Off a Headache

Nothing is Better than Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills They Give Relief without Bad After-Effects.

"For four years I was subject to almost constant headache. At times so severe I was omitted for work. Through the advice of a friend I was persuaded to try Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills and the result has been that I have entirely eradicated my system of those continuous headaches that followed a hard and continuous mental strain."—D.
