KEEP IT TO YOURSELF.

Pluck and Persistence Will Pull Us Through.

Do not whine. Hold up your chin and keep your troubles to yourself.

Every one of us must carry his pack. And in the carrying of it come strength and self respect. When you were a child you went to mother for your sympathy and help, but the time comes when you must shoulder your burden alone.

It is worse than folly to complain of it to your fellows. Each of them is bending his back to his own load. Can you expect any of them to lay down his load and listen to your whining?

If you go about retailing your griefs with expectation of sympathy you will experience only chagrin.

Of course if you fall down and really hurt yourself, if you are a genuine object of pity, the world's heart will be stirred in your behalf, and it will help you to the limit.

But—So long as the world sees that you are able to bear your pack it expects you to get under it. Stand up like a man.

Some of us who are older can look back over the way and remember how we were to "put up a poor mouth" because of some hard job. We buttoned up our white lips and shut the hard luck story back.

Pluck and persistence and sweat pulled us through.

Do not whine. It is useless. The whiner gets nowhere. And he becomes a nuisance.

He saps his own strength by indulging his grouch, and he saps others of their strength because of his irritated grievance.

Hide your tale of woe. Endure in silence. Keep your own counsel. Lean on yourself. Gird up your loins and keep up a stiff upper lip. There's heroism in doing that.

Oh, I know—

Sometimes life looks like an unending and intricate tangle, and sometimes the pathway is dark and stony and steep. And there are thorns by the way.

But, after all—The world that we are living in is mighty hard to beat. With every rose you get a thorn. But ain't the roses sweet?

E. CLARK

C. A. Glossner, 21 Ontario street, Rochester, New York, has recovered from a long and severe attack of kidney trouble, his cure being due to Foley's Kidney Pills. After detailing his case, he says: "I am only sorry I did not learn sooner of Foley's Kidney Pills. In a few days' time my backache completely left me and I felt greatly improved. My kidneys became stronger, dizziness left me and I was no longer annoyed at night. I feel 100 per cent better since using Foley's Kidney Pills."

E. CLARK

ONLY WITH PERMISSION.
Pat—"Hold on! I surrender."
His Wife (hitting him again)—
"No! You won't! Not till I say 'ye kin'!"

THE ONLY WAY
Many Weldon Citizens Have Discovered It.

Just what to do when the kidneys are affected, is a question that concerns both young and old. Weak kidneys neglected in childhood lead to life-long suffering. People of advanced years, with less vitality, suffer doubly. In youth or age, languor, backache, urinary irregularity, dizziness and nervousness make life a burden.

There is one remedy that acts directly on the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills owe their world-wide fame to the fact that they have cured thousands of cases of sick kidneys and cured them permanently. Follow the example of this Weldon citizen:

Mrs. T. F. Anderson, First st., Weldon, N. C., says: "I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills and have been so greatly helped that I am glad to recommend them. My supply of this remedy was obtained from Cohen's Drug Store and has been very effective in relieving me of backache and other symptoms of kidney complaint. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills act as represented."

The Little Red Ribbon

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY

The little red ribbon, the ring and the rose!

The summertime comes and the summertime goes—
And never a blossom in all of the land
As white as the gleam of her beckoning hand!

THE long winter months, and the glare
of the snows;
The little red ribbon, the ring and the rose!
And never a glimmer of sun in the skies
As bright as the light of her glorious eyes!

DREAMS only are true; but they fade
and are gone,
For her face is not here when I wake at dawn;
The little red ribbon, the ring and the rose
Mine only; hers only the dream—
Ere repose.

I am weary of waiting, and weary of tears,
And my heart wearies, too, all these
desolate years,
Moaning over the one only song that it knows:
The little red ribbon, the ring and the rose!

LET'S GET ACQUAINTED.

If I knew you and you knew me,
'Tis seldom we would disagree;
But, never having yet clasped hands,
Both often fail to understand
That each intends to do what's right,
And treat each other 'honorable bright.'
How little to complain there'd be
If I knew you and you knew me!

Whenever we ship you by mistake,
Or in your bill some error make,
From irritation you'd be free,
If I knew you and you knew me,
Or when the checks don't come on time,
And customers send us "nary" a line,
We'd wait without anxiety
If I knew you and you knew me.

Or when some goods you "fire back,"
Or make a "kick" on this or that,
We'd take it in good part, you see,
If I knew you and you knew me.
With customers ten thousand strong,
Occasionally things go wrong—
Sometimes our fault, sometimes theirs—
Forbearance would decrease all cares.
Kind friend, how pleasant things would be,
If I knew you and you knew me.

Then let no doubting thoughts abide,
Of firm good faith on either side
Confidence to each other give,
Living ourselves, let others live;
But any time you can come this way,
That you will call, we hope and pray:
Then face to face we each shall see,
And I'll know you and you'll know me.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA VERY MONOTONOUS.

LAUGH EARLY AND OFTEN.

Mirth is God's Medicine—Everybody Ought to Bathe In It.

Mirth a medicine?

Certainly, and a good one—better than the most of the prescriptions of materia medica. It is one of nature's real tonics, a balm for life's trials, a salve for sorrows, liniment for grouches, a panacea for worry.

Dr. Sanderson says: "Mirth, cheerfulness, is a better stimulant for the tissues of the body than drugs, which react. Laughter is an actual life giving influence." Another physician says, "Fun is a food and as necessary to wholesomeness as bread."

Therefore—laugh. We take life too seriously. We do not laugh enough. Or we indulge in a stingy sort of mirth. Some of us laugh so seldom we lose the habit of it.

A laugh is a massage. Figures of speech aside, a good laugh is a real massage treatment. When you laugh heartily your diaphragm gets busy. In moving rapidly up and down it massages the liver, stirring that organ up to its duty. It affects other organs also.

"Laugh and grow fat" is the shrewd observation of many generations. The old kilters were wise. They hired jesters to make them laugh. And Lyncus, able lawmaker, set up the god of laughter in the public dining rooms of Sparta. Laughter is a good buffer.

It is like the shock absorbers put in the springs of their automobiles. It helps to carry one easily over the knobs and "thank-you-ma'ams" of life's rugged road. And it reduces friction everywhere.

Laughter is normal.

Good health and physical and mental harmony require that the funmaking propensities should be released. Laughter does that. If these natural propensities are kept back one has an attack of "the blues;" if totally repressed—insanity.

Laugh and succeed. If you bottle up your visible spirits you paralyze your personality. A cheerful spirit and a hearty laugh smooth out many wrinkles of business.

Men and women go every year to premature graves because they have forgotten how to laugh. Laugh—and stay above ground.

Backache Almost Unbearable Is an almost certain result of kidney trouble. D. Tomney, 508 E. Olive street, Birmingham, Ill., says: "I suffered with backache and pains in my kidneys which were almost unbearable. I gave Foley's Kidney Pills a good trial, and they done wonders for me. Today I can do a hard day's job and not feel the effects."

E. CLARK

And a weak head is easily influenced by a full stomach.

It is almost as easy to grow old as it is to grow fat.

ON Worrying.

Physical Exercise is of Invaluable Assistance in this Respect.

Worry is disease. In fact it is oft-times associated with a physical disorder of some kind. The inclination to worry over trifles is universal. Some people have acquired the worry habit. It sticks to them like an adhesive plaster.

Their first mental efforts on rising each day is to seek out some unpleasant subject to worry about. One can readily imagine the disappointment that would ensue should a person of this character find nothing to worry about. But this would be an unusual sensation, for one can always find something to worry about. If not a misfortune yesterday, then one of the day before—if not of this year, then of last year. If you are a victim of the worry habit, you are uselessly wasting valuable energies. Rest assured that life will be of little value to you or anyone else.

Physical exercise is of invaluable assistance in this respect. When you find, for instance, that you can not possibly avoid worrying, then immediately find some means of actively using the muscles of your body. Take a long walk or play some game in the open air that will keep you continuously and pleasantly occupied.

If this is difficult or impossible, take some exercise in your room. Work persistently and vigorously until the blood is bounding through your arteries, until you feel the pulsation of new life stirring your entire physical organism.

Realize the tremendous possibilities in life and stop wasting your time with trifling grievances, you must remember that worries are never important, notwithstanding the value they may seem to assume in our life. Their only importance is the power they have for harm, and if their power is evil, then by all means they should be made to stamp them out of your life, you can rest assured the exercises taken as a worry cure will accomplish the desired purpose if they are given your entire attention, and use all the muscles of your body and vigorously arouse the activity of your lungs and heart.

A man with a high aim in life seldom carries a gun.

Glorious News

comes from Dr. J. E. Curtis, Dwight, Kan. He writes: "I not only have cured but cases of eczema in my patients with Electric Bitters, but also cured myself by them of the same disease. I feel sure they will benefit any case of eczema." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is an excellent remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Price 25c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.
