"I WOULD BE duffed to express Rapids than Jesus paid him in the car at If John was so great why did not Lord declare that the least in the Kingdom of Heaven would be greater than John?

When we turn on the light contained in the word "Kingdom," the entire subject becomes clear. God had promised a Messianic Kingdom, and Jesus came that He might be the Head of that Kingshau. The steps leading to its licenses were steps of obschience to God, unto death, and these steps desist began to take. "Some Better Thing For Us." We are not to infer that those gloricharacters who lived before Christ's time were less faithful than the Gospel Church, but merely that God promised them the earthly perfection, while He has promised the Bride of Christ the heavenly perfec-tion. They will not, like the remainder of mankind, come forth to attata per fection gradually during the thousand years of Messiah's reign; the record is that they will come forth perfect buman beings. That will be the reward of their faithfulness.

St. Paul explains the cutirs matter in Hebrews, the 11th chapter. He declares. LIFE'S SELF-DEFENSE.

They do me wrong who say that life's fuller Of sunless sorrow than it is of song, Through every day, the measures beaunful, The joy of utter living rolls along. The frequent sorrow and the petty care Serve but to blind the masses to the truth, That for each sorrow and each dark despair Life holds in equal measure hope and youth

They do me wrong who claim that I am hard, That I am cruel and bitter, when I hold So much of tenderness and loving cheer, With wardering wings my children to enfold, They are unjust who claim that I am false To all fair promise, when my whole desire Is that my children may indeed fulfill The dreams toward which their burning souls aspire.

They do me wrong who cry that want and woe Are far more plentiful in life than joy, When down the years wherever men may go The very sunbeams of my will destroy The cark and care and shadows which men bring Upon themselves-I'm always helping those Who cannot climb, to rise on my own wing Unto the promised beauty of the rose.

I am not dark and dreary and forlorn, My days are deep in numerous happy dreams; My way is one that leads to hopeful morn Where man's success upon the summit gleams, All, all I ask is purpose, will and right, An apt obedience to the common rule That only truth can take or give the light

HOME.

There is a land, of every land the pride, Beloved by Heaven, o'er all the world beside; Where brighter suns dispense serener light And milder moons imparadise the night; A land of beauty, virtue, valor, truth, Time-innored age, the love-exalted youth; The wandering mariner, whose eye explores The wealthiest isles, the most enchanting shores, Views not a realm so bountiful and fair, Nor breathes the spirit of a purer air; In every clime the magnet of his soul, Loughed by remembrance, trembles to that pole; For in this land of Heaven's peculiar grace, The heritage of Nature's noblest race, There is a spot on earth supremely blest, A dearer, sweeter spot than all the rest. Where man, creation's tyrant, cast aside His sword, and sceptre, pageantry and pride While in his softened looks benignly blend The sire, the son, the husband, brother, friend; Here woman reigns; the mother, daughter, wife, Strews with fresh flowers the narrow way of life; In the clear heaven of her delightful eye, An angel-guard of loves and graces lie; Around her knees domestic duties meet, And fireside pleasures gambol at her feet. Where shall that land, that spot of earth be found? Art thou a man?-a parrot?-look around! O, thou shalt find, howe'er thy footsteps roam, That land thy country, and that spot thy home! Man, through all ages of revolving time, Unchanging man in every varying clime, Deems his own land of every land the pride, Beloved by Heaven o'er all the world beside: His home the spot of earth supremely blest, A dearer, sweeter spot than all the rest.

Are You Nervous?

What makes you nervous? It is the weakness of your womanly constitution, which cannot stand the strain of the hard work you do. As a result, you book down, and ruin your entire nervous system. Don't keep this up! Take Cardui, the woman's tonic. Cardui is made from purely vegetable ingredients. It acts gently on the womanly organs, and helps them to do their proper work. It relieves pain and restores health, in a natural manner, by going to the source of the trouble and building up the bodily strength.

Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Grace Fortner, of Man, W. Va., took Cardui. This is what she says about it: "I was so weak and nervous, I could not bear to have anyone near me. I had fainting spells, and I lost flesh every day. The first dose of Cardal helped me. Now, I am entirely cured of the fainting spells, and I cannot say enough for Cardui, for I know it saved my life." It is the best tonic for women.

Do you suffer from any of the pains peculiar to women? Take Cardui. It will help you. Ask your druggist.
