THERE'S ROOM AT THE BOTTOM.

There Are Scores of Young Men Who Are Failures in the Different Professions.

Many and weighty are the editorials that have been written on "There is always room at the top." Our greatest writers have pointed young men to the top round of the ladder. This is well, but it is time to call a halt. There are too many at the top and none at the bottom. "There's room at the top has been preached by our preachers; Been sung by our poets and taught by our teachers, Until by such teaching, growing wiser and sadder, We have almost forgotten the foot of life's ladder."

Young men have a desire to enter some profession. They imagine that holy lawyers, editors, or politicians ever reach the top of the ladder. Young ladies who have from youth been pointed to the top of the ladder, shun the dish pan and broom as they would the cholera. The piano and music books, to speak French correctly and waltz gracefully they consider the only stepping stones leading to the top of the ladder. The time has come when it is almost impossible to find a young man or young woman at the foot of the ladder, willing to labor at any calling that is honorable and earn a living by the sweat of their brow.

"There's room at the bottom, O men of stations! Be not drawn aside by their trite iterations

From the commonplace duties which lie at the bottom, High places are quite hard to hold when you've got 'em."

Multipled scores of young men who are complete failures in the various professions would have successfully followed the plow handles, or as engineers might now be "holding down" a fast mail train. But too many imagine they cannot climb the ladder if their fingers are soiled.

They forget that "The road at the top leads o'er rockiest ledges, Who climbs must hold on by the raggedest edges, And many a man who has missed his vocation Is brought to himself by a bad dislocation."

Insect Bite Costs Leg.

A Boston man lost his leg from the bite of an insect two years before. To avert such calamities from stings and bites of insects use Buckle's Arnica Salve promptly to kill the poison and prevent inflammation, swelling and pain. Heals burns, boils, ulcers, piles, eczema, cuts, bruises. Only 25c at all druggists.

The popularity of a homely girl may depend on the sum her father can write a check for.

EVERY STREET IN WELDON

Has Its Share of the Proof That Kidney Sufferers Seek.

Backache? Kidneys weak? Distressed with urinary ills? Want a reliable kidney remedy? Don't have to look far. Use what Weldon people recommend. Every street in Weldon has its cases.

Here's one Weldon woman's experience. Let Mrs. E. T. Clark, of 7th street, tell it.

Mrs. E. T. Clark, Seventh St., Weldon, N. C., says: "I have the utmost confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills, for they have been used in my family with the best of results. The person who took them was relieved of kidney complaint and backache and was also benefited in other ways. I feel justified in giving Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Clark had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c, all stores. Foster-Millburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. "When your back is lame—remember the name."

FOLEY'S URINO LAXATIVE

Girls

Read About These Three Girls. How Sick They Were and How Their Health Was Restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sick for two years and overworked myself, and had such bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells, and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has restored my health. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss CECILIA M. BAUER, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S GRATITUDE: Geneva, Iowa.—"I have been teaching school for some years and I have neglected my health because I was too busy with my work to attend to myself properly. I suffered greatly every month and was on the verge of a nervous breakdown. I wrote to you about my condition and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and the Blood Purifier as you recommended. These remedies have done wonders for me and I can highly and widely recommend them to every suffering woman."—Miss MRS. SHAW, R. F. D. No. 1, Geneva, Iowa, c/o Sam Erickson.

A COLORADO GIRL'S CASE: Montrose, Col.—"I was troubled very much with irregular periods. Sometimes two months would elapse. I suffered severe headache, was weak and nervous, could eat scarcely anything. I took both Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and the result was wonderful. I feel like another person. I think your remedies are the best on earth and cannot express my thankfulness to you for what they have done to me. I help my neighbors when they are sick, and I shall always recommend your medicines."—Miss ELLA McCANDLESS, Montrose, Col.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles? Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there are lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine, made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

FORGET IT.

Has a friend or neighbor been strangely unkind, And you're aching to make him regret it? Don't give him an angry piece of your mind—Just hold your tongue, and "forget it."

Are your motives impugned when you stand for the right? It will anger you sore if you let it. Don't roar like a lion that's spoiling to fight—Consider the source, and "forget it."

Is work never ceasing? The way bleak with toil? Does discouragement seem to beset it? They ne'er can o'ercome who from labor recoil—Keep your eye on the goal, and "forget it."

Has luck been against you in ventures you've made? Has fortune frowned grim when you've met it? Don't give way to senseless, unseemly irate—Keep pegging away, and "forget it."

Does the honor you sought your rival adorn? Just wind up your hope and reset it. There are honors untaken and glories unborn—So turn loose your grouch, and "forget it."

NOTHING-MUTCHNESS.

How we worry, fret and fuss Over what goes wrong with us! Ever'body—me an' you Thinks that what we have to do Is important, when, gee whizz! A thing isn't, or it is. What we'd fight for yesterday Now is only in the way. When you put it in the way, Nothin' much amounts to much.

At the time, though, how it seems Things o' which a feller dreams Is the only things wuth while! How we tudge on, mile an' mile, After somethin', like as not, After while we have forgot, Things we've kept, an' things we've lost—Wuz they worth all that they cost? When you put it to the touch Nothin' much amounts to much.

Men go chasin' after fame, Think the whole world knows their name, Whoop around an' have their way—Then stay back in yesterday. Caesar worried for his crown, Nero ruled, then burnt his town. Old Napoleon, praised an' cursed—Here's a little bit o' dust. When you put it to the touch Nothin' much amounts to much.

Here you go an' here I go, Workin' rusin' to and fro, Thinkin' if we end our fuss That the world must end for us. But to-morrow, when we're gone, This old world will keep right on. That's the rule and that's the way—We'll be lost with yesterday. When you put it to the touch Nothin' much amounts to much.

A PEN PICTURE OF HEAVEN.

In that Happy Land the Neighbor is No Stranger, and the King is the Personal Friend of All.

Heaven! What a name! It is a land without a storm, a country without a tempest, where there are no wars or fights or quarrels; no sick beds there, no aching heads or hearts, no bills to be paid or rents to become due; a people without poverty; a city without a cemetery; a domain without a darkness; a sea of delight with never a billow or shipwreck; a garden without a weed; a place where no hospitals or asylums are ever built; no beggars there; no crying children; no breadless mouths no shoeless feet; no policemen or sheriffs or constables; no saloons or brothels; no muddy minds or twitching nerves; no aching teeth, no feverish blood; no undertakers nor physicians; no surgeon's knife or dentist's forceps; no drug stores; no crutches, or eye glasses, or ear trumpets; no smoking lamps or burnt-out wicks; no brooms or dust. For trials we get triumphs, pain gives away to praise; heartbeats give away to heartstrings; sighs away to songs. Instead of the plow and the furrow, it is the sickle and the sheaf. The sower's sack is replaced by the barn of fullness. The pruning knife is not to be found, neither the harrow nor the hoe. In that happy land the neighbor is no stranger, and the king is the personal friend of all. There it is not work to live, but live to work. There is no toil in the heavenly service, nor fainting under heavy strains. There are no loads to carry. It is a land where everyone helps himself to what he wants, and giving does not impoverish the giver. There they never solicit funds for church erection, nor take up collections to meet deficiencies. It is a land of rest. The traveler has reached his terminus, the hunter his happy hunting ground, the weary head has found its pillow, the pursued of Satan has found a refuge, the friendless have found a thousand friends, the homeless live in mansions, and a beggar could make a man rich with his over supply.

The Choice of a Husband is too important a matter for a woman to be handicapped by weakness, had blood or foul breath. Avoid these pitfalls by taking Dr. King's Life Pills. New strength, fine complexion, pure health, cheerful spirits—things that win men follow their use. Easy, safe, sure. See at all druggists.

BETTER DONE IN PRIVATE.

A well known doctor, we read, advises people to roll the eyes in order to strengthen the eye-muscles. A little risky, perhaps; for if this exercise were carelessly practiced in crowded restaurants and other public places, the eye would stand a good chance of being suddenly blackened.

In these days of high cost of living a medicine that gets a man up out of bed and able to work in a few days is a valuable and welcome remedy. John Heath, Michigan Bar, Cal., had kidney and bladder trouble, was confined to his bed, unable to turn without help. "I commenced using Foley Kidney Pills and can truly say I was relieved at once." His example is worth following.

RELICS OF THE MIDDLE AGES.

Do some women actually iron in these modern times? I can remember when as a boy I sat and watched the ironing. There were no such ironers then. The colored mammy would limp around with the old-fashioned sad iron. How she used to iron and sing! The song and the memory still linger, but old mammy has gone to her reward.—Exchange.

A M. Nassau, farming near Canaan, Me., was badly equipped with a severe rheumatism that he says is rare in his blood. "Foley Kidney Pills entirely cured me and also removed numerous black specks that were continually before my eyes. Foley Kidney Pills are a true and solvent and are effective for the various forms of rheumatism."

SCIENTIFIC FARMING.

As an example of scientific farming, a farmer out in Colorado harvested 200 bushels of grasshoppers in the summer, dried them and kept a big lot of chickens on them through the winter.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

THE WOMAN WHO PLEASURES.

Everybody Goes from Her Presence Feeling Comfortable in Spirit.

"She knows just how to talk to all kinds and conditions of men," was the recommendation given for a bright woman who makes her living as much by her ability to please as by actual labors. Seeing that woman afterwards and observing her closely, one could not but be impressed with the truth of what had been said. She was gay with the gay, silent when any one else wanted to talk, talkative with the shy, always good-tempered, never too animated, and never, never visibly in pain nor in tears. She was always charming, bright, sympathetic, and sweet. She was witty, too, but not terribly so. She kept her wit to illumine conversation and to lighten dull spirits, not to burn hearts nor scorch sensitive feelings. Everybody went from her presence feeling comfortable in spirit and with reasonably satisfied hearts. She was a peace-maker and a courage-strengthenener. There are two or three dozen such women in the world; and when you find one, she will tell you that it is almost impossible for her to get an evening to herself, because so many dear, kind friends are apt to drop in on an evening. And she will add: "I am glad it is so, for I should not be able to get through the day without the prospect of these pleasant things. I wish the day would be all all evening with a time table that never crept beyond the limits of eight to eleven."—Ram's Horn.

George L. Bighie, Manton, Mich., used Foley Kidney Pills for kidney and bladder trouble. He says: "I find for my case no other medicine equals Foley Kidney Pills for beneficial effect. They are a safe and reliable medicine for kidney trouble and rheumatism. Contains no harmful drugs."
