WOMANHOOD ON THE DECLINE.

Dr. Schlapp Blames Restless Energy for Alarming Decrease in Birth Rate.

The human family is breaking itself down. We are developing a womanhood that is becoming free of the instinctive desire for motherhood and frequently without the capacity for it. The racial strength of reproduction is declining.

In an article entitled, "The Enemy at the Gate," Max G. Schlapp, head of the department of neuro-pathology in the Post Graduate Medical School and Hospital, sounds a warning to the women who are being influenced by the high tension under which society now exists and adds: "Never has the world done its work under such high tension as today."

"The mistress of his home has as many engagements as the master," says Dr. Schlapp. "The woman who belongs to clubs and societies, serves on committees, attends meetings and negotiates business deals until she trembles from excitement, if it is spurred on by a restless energy that is due to disregard of mental and physical hygiene.

"The birthrate drops, and of the children born the portion of those infirm increases, so at last we are confronted with the proof that the high speed effort of our daily lives has brought suffering not only upon ourselves, but upon our children.

"Free women—as one might term women of well-to-do families—are impelled by unremitting example and perpetual commotion of activity. We have here the first explanation of the abnormally active woman. Gentle women, naturally retiring and unassertive, become suffragists and suffragettes, and stand boldly on a soap box in a public square before a motley throng, to proclaim their demands.

"The same women, driven by the exigencies of the hour, approve such conduct on the part of their sisters as that of breaking up meetings, storming and insulting public men in the streets, throwing stones and smashing windows. These conditions are only an evidence of a nervous distress that has become universal."

ALSO SYSTEMATIC.

The young man breezed into the old man's library.

"I met your daughter yesterday," he announced, "and I want to marry her next Friday afternoon at 3:30. She's willing."

The old man turned to his card index.

"Which daughter?" he inquired.

The young man consulted his note book.

"It's Miss Ethel."

"All right," said the old man. "Make it 4:30 and I'll attend the wedding. I have an engagement at the hour."

It was so ordered. This a snappy age.—Washington Herald

TESTIMONY OF FIVE WOMEN

Proves That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Is Reliable.

Readville, Ore.—"I can truly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women who are passing through the Change of Life. I was troubled through the Change of Life with hot flashes, weak and dizzy spells and backache. I was not fit for anything until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which proved worth its weight in gold to me."

—Mrs. MARY HOGART, Readville, Oregon.

Now Orleans, La.—"When passing through the Change of Life I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy spells and backache. I was not fit for anything until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which proved worth its weight in gold to me."

—Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1841 Poplar St., New Orleans, La.

Mishawaka, Ind.—"Women passing through the Change of Life can take nothing better than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am recommending it to all my friends because of what it has done for me."

—Mrs. EMMA BAILEY, Alton Station, Ky.

Alton Station, Ky.—"For months I suffered from troubles in consequence of my age and thought I could not live. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me well and I want other suffering women to know about it."

—Mrs. EMMA BAILEY, Alton Station, Ky.

Deism, No. Dak.—"I was passing through Change of Life and felt very bad. I could not sleep and was very nervous. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to perfect health and I would not be without it."

—Mrs. F. M. THOMAS, Deism, No. Dak.

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers. They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.

WHAT WOULD YOU TAKE?

What would you take for that soft little head Pressed close to your face at time for bed; For that white, dimpled hand in your own held tight, And the dear little eyelid kissed down for the night? What would you take?

What would you take for that smile in the morn, Those bright, dancing eyes and the face they adorn; For the sweet little voice that you hear all day Laughing and cooing—yet nothing to say? What would you take?

What would you take for those pink little feet, Those chubby round cheeks, and that mouth so sweet For the wee tiny fingers and little soft toes, The wrinkly little neck and that funny little nose? Now, what would you take?

WATER,

Oh, better than all the wine is this water from my old well; Crystal and cool as dawn and filled with the magic spell Of dreamy and lovely places, and charged with bubbling light Spun by the sun forever in the old well's loom of night, It will not fill me with anger, and it will not make me wild To curse and starve a woman or abuse a little child.

Oh, better than all the passion and the inward burning, men, Is the medicine of beauty the lips can taste again In a cup of this clear water, that neither bites nor kills, But cleans the dust from the spirit, and helps you dream of rills In the pleasant wayside places of ripening grain and fruit, Where man is less a moloch and a little less the brute.

Yea, have it, and peace be with you, as it is to every soul That knows the worth of the water whose crystal currents roll In a stream from a noble mountain, and over meadow and plain, Till it sinks in the ground to bubble in my old well again! It will not sting you and stifle and make you into a beast, But drink, and you'll think you've tasted the dew of a holy feast!

THE WORLD IS WAITING FOR YOU.

The world is waiting for you, young man, If your purpose is strong and true; If out of your treasures of mind and heart, You can bring things old and new, If you know the truth that makes men free And with skill can bring it to view, The world is waiting for you, young man, The world is waiting for you.

There are treasures of mountain and treasures of sea, And harvest of valley and plain, That industry, knowledge and skill can secure, While ignorance wishes in vain. To scatter the lightning and harness the storm, Is a power that is wielded by few, If you have the nerve and the skill, young man, The world is waiting for you.

Of the idle and brainless world has enough— Who eat what they never have earned; Who hate the pure stream from the fountain of truth, And wisdom and knowledge have spurned, But patience and purpose which know no defeat, And genius like gems bright and true, Will bless all mankind with their love, life and light,— The world is waiting for you.

HELPED A LITTLE.

At Dinard one summer there was a beautiful young countess, the wife of a millionaire, whose bathing dress was well—

A couple of men about town were talking in shocked tones about the countess' bathing dress on the casino terrace.

"It's shocking; it's most improper," said the first.

"But," said the second, "I can't believe its any worse than the dinner dress she wore at Mrs. Hughes Haller's ball last night."

"Oh, well," said the other, "she had her diamonds on then,"—Rochester Times.

It's so easy for a woman to convince herself how young she is, it's mighty strange she can't convince any other woman.

GAVE HERSELF AWAY.

The Summer Boy—If I should try to kiss you, do you think your dog would try to bite me?

The Summer Girl (absently)—He's never bitten any of my other friends.

HOPE ETERNAL.

Every new day and night of joy or sorrow is a new ground, a new consecration, for the love that is nourished by memories as well as hopes.—George Elliot.

"IN THE SWEAT OF THY BROW."

Ruskin's Idea of a Satisfactory Life.

It may be proved, with much certainty, that God intends no man to live in the world without working; but it seems to me not less evident that he intends every man to be happy in his work. It is written, "In the sweat of thy brow,"—but it was never written "in the breaking of thine heart!"—"thou shalt eat bread." And I find that, as, on the one hand, infinite misery is caused by idle people who both fail in doing what was appointed for them to do and set in motion various springs of mischief in matters in which they have no concern, so, on the other hand, no small misery is caused by over-worked and unhappy people, in the dark views which they necessarily take upon themselves and force upon others, of work itself. Were it not so, I believe the fact of their being unhappy is in itself a violation of the divine law and a sign of some kind of folly or sin in their way of life. Now, in order that people may be happy in their work, these three things are needed: They must be fit for it; they must not do too much of it; and they must have a sense of success in it—not a doubtful sense, as needs some testimony of other people for its confirmation, but a sure sense, or rather, knowledge, that so much work has been done well, and faithfully done, whatever the world may say or think about it.—John Ruskin.

TOO MUCH TO ASK.

Apropos of the latest foreign limousine—the limousine with a roof that slides back for aviation meetings—Frank Coffin, of hydroplane fame, said the other day, in New York:

"This conversation reminds me of a conversation I overheard between two girls. "It was an awfully smart crowd at the flying," said the first girl. "I saw some awful nice frocks." "And who flew?" the second inquired. "Don't ask me!" said the first girl. "Do you think I was going to take off my new Easter hat just to see a lot of aeroplanes?"—Chicago News.

HARDLY THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BRAND.

The young hopeful had secreted some bright buttons in his pocket, which came from the motor car show. When Sunday school was well under way, he took one out and pinned it on his coat, feeling it an ornament. Unfortunately, when the minister came round to speak to the dear children, his near sighted eyes were caught by the color.

"Well, Richard, I see you are wearing some motto, my lad. What does it say?"

"You read it, sir," replied Richard, hanging his head.

"But I cannot see. I have my glasses, son. Read it so we can all hear you."

Richard blushed. "It says, sir, Ain't it—so be poor?"—Metropolitan Magazine.

WHY IS WELDON FIRM?

Because Its Citizens Have Learned The Truth.

After reading this generous and encouraging report from Mr. Tye those who have the misfortune to suffer, as he did, will naturally long to get similar relief. But to get the same good as Mr. Tye had, you should get the same remedy. There are, of course, other kidney pills but there are no other kidney pills the same as Doan's. That is why Weldon people demand the genuine.

G. W. Tye, Cedar St., Weldon, N. C., says: "I am glad to say that I have been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Cohen's Drug Store. My kidneys gave me a great deal of trouble and I had pains through my loins. After taking Doan's Kidney Pills all these aches and pains disappeared and the trouble with my kidneys became a thing of the past." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. POSTER-MILBURN CO., New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TIP YOUR HAT.

The Most Beautiful Flowers Are Found Hidden in Some Shady Nook.

Let us learn to tip our hats as politely to the young lady who sews for a living or earns it by an honest toil as to the one who teaches French or chews gum in seven different languages. Let us give as warm a clasp of the hand to the honest tiller of the soil, the fireman or brakeman as we do to the lawyer or the doctor. Let us recognize honesty and industry wherever found, and the time will soon come when there will be an army of bright, intelligent, honest young men and women at the bottom of the ladder, ready to labor at any honorable calling. Let us remember that the most beautiful lives have blossomed in the darkest places, as pure, white lilies full of fragrance in the slimy, stagnant waters. Wealth, birth and official station may do secure to their possessors an extreme superficial courtesy; but they never did nor never can command the reverence of the heart. The most beautiful flowers are found hidden in some shady nook; so the most beautiful lives are often found hidden in an humble home at the foot of the ladder.

THE COOL STRANGER.

Business was brisk in the village store when the stranger entered. "Any of you drive up in a trap?" he asked casually. "Yes, I did," replied Farmer Turmus, disinterestedly. "Why?" "Gray horse and an old lady inside?" "Yes, that's right! But—" "Can she manage him all right?" said the stranger. "I should think so," replied Turmus. "Why, my wife's dray that horse ever since he was a 3-year-old!" "That's all right, then," said the stranger, "I merely asked because the gray has just gone down the street like a mad bull, and the old lady's hanging on to the back of the trap screaming 'Murder!' Still, if she can manage him, there's nothing to get excited about. How's the price of 'aters down your way?"—New York Commercial.
