THE HOME.

I Love a Houseful of Young Folks, Courting Age—By Dr. Frank Crane, in Atlanta Journal.

Of course a bachelor or a bachelor maid can have a home, and a childless couple can have a home.

But it is a home only in an accommodated and borrowed sense of the word. It is not a home in the full meaning of the term.

To make a complete home you need a complete set of human relations, as per the following list prepared by Nature and indorsed by the best traditions:

- Husband and father.
- Wife and mother.
- Children, including babies and adolescents.
- Sisters and brothers.
- Grandfather.
- Grandmother.
- Guests.
- And a dash of Neighbors and Friends.

If you lack any one of these items you miss something, the home is not perfect.

If there is one of these relationships you have never known your life is by so much improved.

It is the fashion to speak disparagingly of relatives, but they are a part of the environment of Nature, and if you get nothing but annoyance from them, something ails you. You might as well curse the sun and stars as hate relatives.

There be hot loves and wayward loves, and they have their place; but blessed is the man, and thrice blessed the woman, that love the people that ought to be loved.

There are grandmother and grandfather, for instance. The child that has them not has missed one of the sweetest elements that makes memory happy. They understand children better than parents, for they have learned that so many things that worry are not much matter.

And plenty of brothers and sisters. A solitary child in a house is a lame soul. He can never get that sound view of the world that comes to the member of a full family.

As for babies, it's only a sort of imitation family where there are none. The very best ingredients of our character come from dealing with babies.

And I love a houseful of young folks, courting age. The only wholesome, delightful, and cheering disease in or out of the medicine books is lovesickness. When we grow past its agonizing stages we still ought to see it in others around us.

Most cranks and dried up folks and pessimists and disagreeable people are victims of small families. They have been deprived of that wholesome flow of the humanities that comes from a full set of relations.

I want to go back to Arthur Dixon's and eat at table where there are thirteen children and a small army of grandchildren, and all about and everywhere—love.

Women Avoid Operations

When a woman suffering from some form of feminine disorder is told that an operation is necessary, it of course frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital operating table and the surgeon's knife strikes terror to her heart, and no wonder. It is quite true that some of these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but thousands of women have avoided the necessity of an operation by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This fact is attested by the grateful letters they write to us after their health has been restored.

These Two Women Prove Our Claim.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."
—Mrs. HAYWARD BOWERS, Cary, Me.

Charlotte, N. C.—"I was in bad health for two years, with pains in both sides and was very nervous. I even lifted a chair it would cause a hemorrhage, I had a growth which the doctor said was a tumor and I never would get well unless I had an operation. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I gladly say that I am now enjoying fine health and am the mother of a nice baby girl. You can use this letter to help other suffering women."
—Mrs. ROSA SIMS, 16 Wyona St., Charlotte, N. C.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman submit to a surgical operation without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health.
Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

FELLOW WHO'LL TAKE MY PLACE.

Here's a toast that I want to drink to a fellow I'll never know—
To the fellow who's going to take my place when it's time for me to go. I've wondered what kind of a chap he'll be and wished I could take his hand,

Just to whisper "I wish you well, old man," in a way he'd understand. I'll like to give him the warm handclasp when never a friend seemed near.

I've learned my knowledge by sheer hard work, and I wish I could pass it on
To the fellow who'll take my place some day when I am gone.

Will he see all the sad mistakes I've made and note the battles lost? Will he ever guess the tears they caused or the heartaches they'd cost? Will he gaze through the failures and fruitless toil to the underlying plan,

And catch a glimpse of the real intent and the heart of the vanquished man?
I dare to hope he may pause some day, when he toils as I have wrought, And gain some strength for his weary task from the battles I have fought, But I've only the task itself to leave with cares for him to face, And never a cheering word may speak to the fellow who'll take my place.

Then here's to your health, old chap; drink as a bridegroom to his bride;
I leave and unfinished task to you, but God knows how I tried. I've dreamed my dreams as all men do, but never a one came true, And my prayer today is that all the dreams may be realized by you. And we'll meet some day in the great Unknown—out in the realm of space;

You'll know my clasp as I take your hand and gaze in your tired face. Then all our failure will be success in the light of the new-found dawn—
So here's "how" and health to the chap who'll take my place when I am gone.

—Sug Worrorn.

THE RECORD KEPT.

It was only a cup of water, with a gentle grace bestowed,
But it cheered a lonely traveler upon the dusty road;
For the way was long and dreary, and the resting-places few,
And the sun had dried the streamlets and drunk up the sparkling dew;
None noticed the cup of water as a beautiful act of love,
Save the angels keeping the record, away in the land above;
But the record shall never perish, the trifling deed shall live,
For Heaven demands but little from those who have least to give!

It was only a kind word spoken to a weeping little child;
But the thread of its grief was broken, and the little one sweetly smiled;
And nobody stayed to notice so tiny an act of love,
Save the angels keeping the record in the wonderful book of above.
And she who had spoken kindly went on in her quiet way,
Nor dreamed such a simple action should count in the last great day.
But the plying words of comfort were heard a song of joy,
And the listening angels blessed her from their beautiful home on high.

It isn't the world-praised wonders that are best in our Father's sight,
Nor the wreaths of fading laurels that garnish fame's dizzy height,
But the plying love and kindness, the work of the warm caress,
The beautiful hope and patience and self-forgetfulness;
The trifle in secret given, the prayer in the quiet night,
And the little unnoticed nothings are good in our Father's sight.

COMPLETE NIGHT'S WORK.

"Have you got everything?" asked the householder anxiously as he peered at the burglar from beneath the bedclothes.

"I think so."

"Did you get my daughter's fiddle?"

"Yes."

"Did you get son's phonograph?"

"Yes."

"My wife's bridge outfit?"

"Yes."

"Her tight skirt?"

"Yes."

"My mother-in-law's parrot?"

"Yes."

"My daughter's camera?"

"Yes."

"Well, then call at my office tomorrow morning and I'll give you $50. You have done a good night's work."

"Right-o," replied the burglar, as he turned with his sack to go out of the window.

"Just a moment," said the householder. "Bring three or four pals tomorrow night, and take my daughter's pianola and I'll double the reward."—Chicago Journal.

ASKING A FAVOR.

"Can I believe my eyes?" exclaimed Mr. Timkins as he confronted the burglar. Mr. Timkins had been down in the middle of the night to investigate a strange noise, which proved to be the family silver in process of packing up.

The burglar reached for his gun but Mr. Timkins grabbed the hand instead.

"Don't," he said, giving the hand a cordial shake. "You don't know how much I'm interested in you. Stay awhile. I want you to meet Mrs. Timkins."

"While you're calling a cop! Not on your life!" retorted the burglar.

"No," said Mr. Timkins. "I just want you to stay while I call my wife. She's heard you at work every night for 20 years, and this is the first chance she's ever had to see you."—New York Evening Examiner.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Society is judged by some of the misfits that manage to break in.

Do You Fear Consumption?

No matter how chronic your cough or how severe your throat or lung ailment is, Dr. King's New Discovery will surely help you. It may save your life. Sullman Green, of Malheite, Col., writes: "Two doctors said I had consumption and could not live two years. I used Dr. King's New Discovery and am alive and well." Your money refunded if it fails to benefit you. The best home remedy for coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Guard Your Children Against Bowel Trouble

Many children at an early age become constipated, and frequently serious consequences result. Not being able to realize his own condition, a child's bowels should be constantly watched, and a gentle laxative given when necessary. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are especially well adapted to women and children. The Sisters of Christian Charity, 531 Charles St., Luzerne, Pa., who attend many cases of sickness say of them:

"Some time ago we began using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and find that we like them very much. Their action is excellent and we are grateful for having been made acquainted with them. We have had good results in every case and the sisters are very much pleased."

The form and flavor of any medicine is very important, no matter who is to take it. The taste and appearance are especially important when children are concerned. All parents know how hard it is to give the average child "medicine," even though the taste is perfectly disguised. In using Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets, however, this difficulty is overcome. The shape of the tablets, their appearance and candy-like taste at once appeal to any child, with the result that they are taken without objection.

The rich chocolate flavor and absence of other taste, make Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets the ideal remedy for children.

If the first box fails to benefit, the price is returned. Ask your druggist. A box of 25 doses costs only 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.
