BROOKLYN TABERNACLE
BIBLE STUDY ON TABLES OF THE LAW REPLACED.

Review—Sept. 28.

"You set a good example to the people, and you were successful, and you were abundant in the Spirit."—Acts 1:1.

HOEVER fails to see that Moses, Israel and the Law were types, fails to get the real lesson out of them. Moses was a type, not only of Jesus, but of the entire Church, of which Jesus is the Head. This St. Peter explains, saying: "Moses truly said unto the fathers, A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me."—Acts 3:22.

Jesus was raised up first, and since Pentecost the raising up from amongst the brethren has continued. The work will be consummated when the full number of the Church shall have been accepted to glory. Then the anti-typical Moses will begin his great work of delivering all desiring to return to harmony with God—all of whom are represented in the twelve tribes of Israel.

The Church of this Gospel Age is otherwise called the Church of the First-born, typically represented in the tribe of Levi, all of whom represented the first-born of Israel, saved in the Passover. These were divided into two classes—the priests and the Levites. The priests represented the High Priest and under priests. The Levites represented the remainder of the overcomers.

Typical of Moses' New Testament work will be a Royal Priesthood. Jesus, the great High Priest, invested with kingly honors, will have associated with Himself the faithful Little Flock. His joint heirs. The remainder of the overcomers will be collaborators on a less glorious plane, yet spiritual. Their work will be primarily the blessing of mankind.

The First Tables of the Law. The first tables of the Law were prepared by the Lord Himself. This represents the fact that man was created a perfect image of his Creator, in full accord with the Divine will and fully expressive of the Divine Law. Adam needed no other law than that which was in and of himself as a perfect man—God's law was written in his heart. But by reason of sin this Law was broken. Poor humanity has no longer a proper judgment respecting sin and righteousness. Man needs the great Mediator, to make restitution for his iniquity and to rewrite the Law of God in his flesh.

Then Moses was instructed to hew out the two tables of the Law. This represents that the Christ is fully commissioned to prepare the hearts of mankind for the rewriting of the Divine Law. To prepare men to obey God's Law will require their restitution—their lifting up out of sin and degradation. This work, committed to Moses in the type, is in the antitype committed to Christ.

Moses' second coming with the two tables of the Law was peculiarly different from the first. His face shone; and it was necessary for him to put on a veil, which thereafter he wore in the presence of the Israelites, but removed when entering the presence of God. Christ's work as Mediator, at His Second Coming, will be accompanied by a veiling of His glory, so that the world will not see Jesus. This He declared: "Yet a little while, and the world will see Me no more; but ye shall see Me." The Apostle explains that the church will be prepared to see Christ in His glory by being changed from worldly to heavenly nature.

At His Second Advent, our Lord will veil His glory from mankind, and speak to them through the veil, and directly from the spirit plane. Mankind will see Jesus no more. Instead, they shall see His representatives—the Ancient Worthies—as He declared, saying: "Ye shall see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and all the Prophets." The world will see them in human person, but the samples of what mankind may attain during the restitution times.

Other Features of the Type. The smearing of the Aaronic priesthood typified the smearing of the Royal Priesthood. As in the type sacrifices were necessary before entering the presence of the Lord, so in the antitype Jesus must offer Himself self, thereby showing His loyalty to God, by sacrifice even unto death. Similarly, the unpriesthood of the Aaronic priesthood consecrated to offer only by sacrifice. In the case of the typical high priest, the sacrifice was our Lord's own body. In the case of the typical under priest, the sacrifice was a goat. The antitype is the human nature of the Church—Hebrews 10:11-13.

The typical mediator offered typical sacrifices. The real Mediator offers "better sacrifices." The typical mediator led the typical people into the typical Promised Land. The antitype Mediator, during the thousand years of His reign, will lead God's people back to the blessings and privileges lost through Adam's disobedience, and redeemed by the sacrifice of Calvary.

THE DEACON'S MISTAKE.

"Sister Henderson," said Deacon Hyphers severely, "you should avoid even the appearance of evil."
"Why, Deacon, what do you mean?" asked Sister Henderson.
"I observed that on your sideboard you have several cut-glass decanters, and that each of them is half filled with what appears to be ardent spirits."
"Well, now, Deacon, it isn't anything of the kind. The bottles look so pretty on the sideboard that I just filled them half way with some floor stain and furniture polish, just for appearances."
"That's why I am cautioning you, Sister," replied the Deacon. "Feeling a trifle faint I helped myself to a dose from the big bottle in the middle."

SOME GAIN.

In that part of Kansas where they need rain certain church congregations have united to petition for it.
"Didn't I see your husband going to church today?" one Kansas woman inquired of another.
"Yes, he went to ask for rain."
"His faith must be pretty strong."
"Yes; he wore his raincoat and took his overshoes and his oldest umbrella."
"It didn't rain."
"No; but he brought back a much better umbrella than the one he took away."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY CO., 3037 CHAS. ST., N. C.

Dear Mrs. Person: I was troubled with a breaking out on my leg. It came first in the form of a very large itching sore. After about a month it continued to spread, and the sore would not heal. I tried various medicines and operations but it increased in size and got worse. One day I was talking to a friend about having it amputated, but was persuaded by Mr. Joe Person's Remedy. I bought some of the remedy and used it and my sore began to improve and I am now perfectly well again.

JOHN W. JOHNSON
