

AFTER SICKNESS, OR OPERATION

It is a pathetic mistake to accept drugs or alcoholic mixtures when nature craves nourishment to repair the wasted body and restore the vigor of health.

For forty years the best physicians have relied on the wholesome, predigested, nourishment in Scott's Emulsion which is totally free from alcohol or opiates.

Scott's Emulsion sharpens the appetite—renews blood—nourishes nerves—strengthens bones and restores the courage of health to make life bright.

● Scott's Emulsion sets in action the very forces that promote health; it is pure, rich strength.

NORTH CAROLINA CONVENTION

Of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Held at Weldon November 8th to 12th, 1913.

If it were in our territory and we had permission we would like to define the name, Weldon; we would call the city "Welcome" and not Weldon, though we would when it came to tell of what its citizens did for us, call it "Weldone"—so freely, splendidly and graciously did they entertain our delegates.

The following resolution is offered to every one in Weldon, who was in any way instrumental in making the convention such a grand success:

Our warmest thanks are extended to all who so generously gave of their best to make our stay in their delightful city an event not soon to be forgotten.

We thank the city, the church, the schools, the missionary societies, the King's Daughters, the Book Club, the Daughters of the Confederacy, for their official greetings—we do not recall in our convention's history of thirty-one years to have ever received welcomes from so many sources; we thank the Rev. Mr. Hornaday, the kind pastor of the M. E. church in which we held the sessions of our convention, for his interest and helpfulness; we thank the musicians who gave us of their cheer; the pages and ushers for their patience; those who gave flowers and plants to beautify the already handsome church; the Epworth League for the uplift they gave us in recitation and song; and our very warmest thanks we extend to our hosts and hostesses who opened wide the doors of their hospitable homes and gave of their abundance abundantly—sparing nothing of that which made us feel at home and supremely welcome and happy, and to add to the already super-abundance were auto-rides and a beautiful reception at the Armory Monday evening.

This was indeed a convention of conventions and the kind people of Weldon made it so.—Resolution passed by W. C. T. U. State Convention here Nov. 11th, 1913.

ROWAN-RODWELL.

Pretty Church Marriage of Popular People at Macon.

Macon, Nov. 15.—A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening, November 12th at eight o'clock in Macon M. E. church, when Miss Mary Louise Rodwell, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rodwell, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Holt Rowan, of Hamlet, N. C. The church was attractively decorated in palms, ferns and cut flowers. The ceremony was performed under an arch entwined with smilax and lighted with candles. From the center of the arch was suspended a large wedding bell. "The Hour That Gave Me You" was most beautifully rendered by Miss Alice Briou Rodwell, sister of the bride. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Penelope White, cousin of the bride, of Portsmouth, Va., the bridal party entered the church. The ushers were W. E. and J. B. Rodwell, brothers of the bride, and J. P. O'Brien and M. W. Nicholson. Misses Garnette Crocker, Lettie Rowan, sister of the groom, Sarah Myrick and Ellie Nicholson, were the bridesmaids, attired in pink crepe de chine and carrying white roses. Miss Joyce Coleman, cousin of the bride, acted as maid of honor and wore pink charmeuse with an overdress of lace, and carried pink roses. The matron of honor was Mrs. F. M. Drake, of Weldon, sister of the bride. She wore a regular gown of pink crepe meteor in train and carried pink roses. Little Miss Elizabeth Rodwell, sister of the bride, dressed in a hand embroidered mull, with broad pink, sash, carrying a basket of pink roses, preceded the bride as flower girl. Master Caswell Drake, nephew of the bride, carried the ring in a white rose.

The bride's gown was fashioned of white charmeuse, with real lace and pearl trimmings. Her long veil of illusion, falling from a Juliet cap, was caught with orange blossoms. She entered on the arm of her father, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, H. M. Rowan, of Florence, S. C. The ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. J. C. Rowan, of Camden, S. C., assisted by Rev. D. N. Caviness, of Warrenton, N. C.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride to the bridal party and intimate friends of the family. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rodwell, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Nicholson, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Coleman. The bride and groom then left for an extended trip north.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Drake, of Weldon, also attended the wedding and reception.

WELDON 33 YEARS AGO.

From the Roanoke News, November 20, 1880.

The shed of the Raleigh and Gaston railroad is being taken down and will be removed to Raleigh. Since trains have been running through from Raleigh to Norfolk this shed has not been used.

Judge James F. Simmons, of Sardis, Miss., has recently published a book of poems called "The Welded Link" and other poems. Judge Simmons is a native of Halifax and we are always interested in his success.

Saturday night the mail train switched off at Halifax for the freight train to pass, and the engineer misunderstanding a signal pulled out leaving the conductor, Captain Lynch, behind. The train was near Enfield before the mistake was discovered and had to go back to Halifax and pick up the conductor.

Married, at the residence of Dr. J. H. Jones, Brunswick county, Va., November 3 by Rev. J. T. Lumpkin, assisted by Rev. James Jones, A. L. Stanback, of Weldon, N. C., and Miss Mary F. Burnett, of Perry county, Alabama.

Also at the residence of the bride's father, in this town, by Rev. R. O. Burton, the 10th instant, Albert Mabry to Miss Bettie, daughter of H. Evans, Esq.

W. T. Purnell returned from Norfolk Friday. He went down to catch Louis Taylor, one of the negroes who burned his house down last spring. Taylor had gone to Norfolk and was working at the oyster business, and he had the surprise of his life when Mr. Purnell confronted him with an officer who had a warrant for his arrest. Taylor is the main offender and he and Sandy Ashe will probably be tried for their lives at the spring term of court.

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated.—Testimony of Weldon Citizens.

When a Weldon citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away place, do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Below is a statement of a Weldon resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

J. T. D. Rawlings, Second St., Weldon, N. C., says:
"You are welcome to use my name as a reference for the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, as I have tested this remedy and found that it is reliable. I had backache and pains through my kidneys and was bothered by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I finally got Doan's Kidney Pills at Cohen's Drug Store and it was not long before they gave me relief."
