EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—The special preacher next Sunday, both morning and night, will be the Rev. Clarence G. Prosperi, Rector of Wilson, N. C. A short organ recital will be given by Mrs. Albert New, fifteen minutes before evening service, viz: 7:15. The public is cordially invited. Collections for general missions.

GOOD ROADS.—The Wright Construction Company last week broke ground for the improvement of Halifax Township roads. Some time ago Halifax township sold $40,000 of good roads bonds and this money will be spent in building good highways throughout the township, which will be a great help to every one who visits the county seat. The Wright Construction Company has a splendid equipment for road building and the work will be pushed rapidly.

DEATH OF MRS. ROSA SUMMERELL.—Mrs. Rosa Bell Summerell, widow of the late W. H. Summerell, died at her home in Garysburg last week. Mrs. Summerell was a daughter of the late Col. J. J. Bell, who was well known here where he spent a considerable portion of his time. Mrs. Summerell was a sister of Mrs. A. J. Ellis, of Garysburg, and Mrs. Pugh, who for a long time lived in Petersburg and who has spent a portion of her time in recent years in Weldon.

Mrs. Summerell was greatly beloved by a large circle of relatives and friends and her death came as a shock to her many friends in this county.

The funeral service was held Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Albert New, rector of the Weldon parish church. The interment was in the family square at Garysburg. A large number of friends attended the funeral of this noble Christian woman who has passed to her reward to meet with loved ones on the other shore.

We learn that the postoffices at both Roanoke Rapids and Rosemary were broken into Tuesday night and that the robbers got away with all the stamps and money they could lay hands on.

MARY ELIZABETH COCHRAN.

After a Well Spent Life of More Than Four Score Years She Falls Upon Sleep.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Cochran died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cochran, Saturday afternoon, aged 83 years, 10 months and 18 days, after being in feeble health, incident to her weight of years, for quite a long time.

The funeral service took place from the M. E. church Monday afternoon at half past two o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. A. Hornaday, the pastor, assisted by Rev. J. G. Blalock, of the Baptist church. A large congregation of sorrowing relatives and friends were present to pay the last sad tribute. Many beautiful floral designs attested in a measure the love and esteem in which she was held in the community.

Several of her favorite hymns were sung, "How Firm a Foundation," "Abide With Me," etc.

At the conclusion of the service the remains were taken to Cedarwood cemetery and there laid at rest until all who sleep shall hear His voice, and come forth with new and glorified bodies, conquering death and the grave.

The following acted as pall bearers: Active—A. S. Allen, J. A. Johnston, W. W. Wiggins, R. E. Draper, W. T. Shaw, R. T. Daniel, W. T. Parker, M. S. Mountcastle.

Honorary—Dr. I. E. Green, J. L. Harris, E. Clark, A. L. Stainback, E. T. Clark, J. H. Crocker.

Mary Elizabeth Wood was born in Halifax county, N. C., March 19, 1830, died Feb. 7, 1914.

In her early life she surrendered to the service of the Master and connected herself with the church of her choice, the Methodist Episcopal church at Smith's. In later years she moved her membership to Weldon and certainly for more than half a century she had been a faithful, consecrated Christian woman, with an abiding faith in the promises of God, with her feet upon a sure foundation.

In 1849 she was married to R. H. Cochran, of this county, and sixteen children blessed the union, only seven surviving, R. J. Cochran, of Emporia, Va., W. D. Cochran, of Rocky Mount, R. T. Cochran, of Georgia, A. L. Cochran, of Weldon, Mrs. D. R. Capell, of Rocky Mount, Mrs. A. M. Inge and Mrs. E. D. Purnell, of Weldon, while there are quite a number of grandchildren and several great grandchildren.

Her life has been an inspiration and a benediction to all who have known her. Realizing sometime ago that the end was near, she spoke joyously of her departure and she said her trust was firmly fixed in the Christ who died for the redemption of mankind. She had kept the faith and realizing that a crown awaited her she fell gently upon sleep, passing out into the great eternity without a shadow of fear, for by faith, she could reach up and clasp loving hands on the other shore.

To all in affliction, on account of account of this earthly sorrow, there is great comfort in the thought that death had no terrors for her and that she now rests from her labors and that all is well with her soul.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

RESOLVED, That as it has pleased the Lord, and Giver of Life, to call from his earthly home, Samuel T. Brown, another of the "Thin Gray Line" has answered the last roll call. Mr. Brown was a brave soldier and was always ready to go to the front during the four years that he followed the "Stars and Bars." He was wounded in the Seven Days fight around Richmond but was again at his post as soon as he was able, and served gallantly until taken prisoner, the day before General Lee surrendered.

"How sleep the brave, who sink to rest,

By all their country's wishes blest!"

That we extend our sincere sympathy to the family in the loss of their loved one and bid them remember, "It is not death to die."

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, the county papers, and also incorporated in the minutes of the Halifax Chapter of the U. D. C.

MRS. JOHN FENNER,
MRS. W. A. WILLCOX,
MRS. J. H. NORMAN,
Committee.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank most sincerely all those friends who were kind to us during the illness and death of our father in December, also to thank the U. D. C.'s for the beautiful floral offering. We wish also to express our very deep gratitude to all who were so nice and kind to us during the illness of our dear mother.

MR. AND MRS. W. F. COPPEDGE.

DON'T LET CONSTIPATION RUIN YOUR HEALTH.

It Deadens the Brain and Weakens the Body. Nature Needs Real and Harmless Aid to Overcome It.

Nature does her best to fight constipation and its evil effects. She fights to the last atom of her strength, but usually she has to have assistance.

To avoid the sluggish brain and weakened body, the sick headache, coated tongue and biliousness, it is unwise to use unpleasant calomel, a medicine so strong that it leaves most people "all knocked out." Don't take chances with your health.

A great number of people have learned that Dodson's Liver Tone (50c.) makes one brighter, healthier and happier in a perfectly easy and natural way, with no pain or gripe and no bad after effects.

W. M. Cohen guarantees it without condition and will refund purchase price if you are not entirely satisfied. Dodson's Liver Tone is an absolutely safe, pleasant-tasting vegetable liquid and a wonderful liver stimulant which takes the place of calomel, but be sure you get Dodson's.

WELDON 33 YEARS AGO.

From the Roanoke News, January 29, 1881.

Robert Ransom, son of our distinguished Senator, has been appointed clerk of the commerce committee of the Senate. He graduated at Chapel Hill last year with high honors.

There was a party given at the residence of M. J. Squire, in Northampton county on Friday night last. Several of our citizens attended and enjoyed themselves highly. Northampton is a favorite place for fun.

Last week Thomas J. Field, constable, got possession of a bale of cotton by a writ of claim and delivery, and left it in care of a party in Halifax. Having occasion to move it he sent Lem Cook down with an order for the cotton. Instead of bringing it here Cook obtained money for it and departed for other climes, not even leaving the bag for Tom to hold.

The Literary Society at a meeting held sometime ago authorized its executive committee to make sale of the property from the drug store to the corner of Second street fronting Washington avenue for $1,600.

We hear that Mr. Smith will soon begin the erection of a large two-story brick building on the property which will contain four handsome stores.

Feb. 5, 1881.
W. H. Smith, of Scotland Neck, was in our office last week. He says the railroad will be built without doubt.

We learn that Robert Clanton and family will move to town and occupy the house of Mrs. H. D. Ponton.

C. W. Faucette, of Halifax, had his gin house broken open one night last week, and some bagging and several hundred pounds of seed cotton stolen therefrom.

L. B. and T. R. Manning, of this county, have left for Kentucky, prospecting, with a view of settling there.

We are informed that the gin house of Fred Lewter, about five miles from Scotland Neck, was burned last week. At the time there were about twelve hundred pounds of lint cotton in the house, covered by insurance.

ONE GIRL TO ANOTHER.

"I'm going to sell kisses at the charity bazaar. Do you think one dollar a kiss is too high?"

"Oh, no! People expect to be robbed at these charity affairs."

Jim Edmonds, city scavenger, died suddenly Saturday night of hemorrhage.

COUGH TWO YEARS OLD

Yields to Vinol. Read Why.

Strong vigorous men and women hardly ever catch cold. It's only when the system is run down and vitality low that colds and coughs get a foothold.

Now isn't it reasonable that the right way to cure a cough is to build up your run-down condition again? Mrs. D. A. McGee of Waycross, Ga., says: "I had a chronic cold and cough which kept me awake nights for two years and I felt tired all the time. Vinol cured my cough and I feel stronger in every way."

The reason Vinol is so efficacious in such cases is because it contains in a delicious concentrated form all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil, with tonic, blood building and added.

Chronic coughs and colds yield to Vinol because it builds up the weakened, run-down system.

You can get your money back any time if Vinol does not do all we say.

"BOUGHT AND PAID FOR."

The big scene in Mr. George Broadhurst's social drama "Bought and Paid For," which will be the attraction at Batchelor's Opera House, Monday night, February 16th, has one of the most tremendous and staggering climaxes in modern drama. It is powerful because it is humanly and realistically true, and because it reaches into the intimate experience of thousands of men and women.

Robert Stafford, a powerful and dominant financier, has married Virginia Blaine, a telephone operator. After their marriage, Stafford begins coming home drunk at almost regular intervals, and forcing upon his wife his drunken attentions. Virginia has borne it as long as she could. On this particular night he is unusually offensive. After the other members of the family have departed, he begins to make love obnoxiously. She pleads with him; tries to appeal to his manhood; escapes several times from his embraces. But he is persistent. He follows her about the room. At length he goes to the door and orders champagne brought to the apartment—with two glasses. He tries to get his wife to drink with him, but she refuses. He becomes angry and lets forth an ugly stream of words. Again he tries to catch her and force his disgusting kisses upon her. She throws him off, and tells him he is robbing her of her self-respect. He becomes ugly and insulting. He tells her he has bought and paid for her, that she was nothing until he came and lifted her out of her poverty. He says he has given her everything and that now she spurns his affection; he declares he has a legal right to her, and by sheer brute force he holds her in his arms and kisses her. She breaks away from him and rushes into her room—locking the door. Inflamed by his drunken passion, he snatches the heavy brass fire tongs and crying in blind frenzy that he has a right to her, he crashes in the heavy wooden panel of her door and forces his way into her room.
