SPECIAL TO WOMEN

The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ill it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold." At druggists, 50c. large box, or by mail, The Paxton Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.

LISTEN DAUGHTER.

Let the Other Girls Smile if They Want to, But Just Wait for the Finish.

Listen daughter, don't go moping around the house and singing like a freight train cutting loose air brakes; and don't be walking around with your eyes all puffed up and red from tears, simply because you can't have clothes that wouldn't look good anywhere except on one of those freak magazine-cover girls. I know it's a pretty tough world, from your range of vision, because your ma and I have forbidden you to wear skirts that are too high and waists that are too low. I know, child, that some of the other girls are chasing around the streets in costumes that would shame a burlesque troupe and attracting lots of attention; but did you ever notice just what kind of attention they attract? Of course you haven't. You don't happen to be within earshot when some of the boys say what they really think about the "other girls." Thank God you don't. You're too young to know those things yet awhile.

You say the girls laugh at your simple, pretty little frocks and at your freckles. Let 'em laugh! That shows they are the other kind of girls. Your mother and I met each other long ago. I loved her enough to ask her to marry me and she cared enough for me to answer "Yes." We've been happy ever since, haven't we, Ma? Our marriage took. It didn't take any split skirts or silhouette gown to make me fall in love with your mother. She never had much contraptions on in her life. And I didn't go prancing up and down Main street with a monkey hat on the back of my head and a cigarette poked out in front of my face.

Let the other girls smile if they want to, but just wait for the finish. You won't find the decent young chaps the kind I would want to give my little girl to, marrying any of the "other girls."

That's right, have a good cry if you must. It will do you good. But remember, Dad knows best. So put on that pretty little dress, the one we all like and we'll all go to the moving picture show.

"We are told so, my son."
"Then if a man marries twice there isn't anything left of him, is there?"

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

A SONG AT EIGHTY.

At fourscore years my soul breaks forth in singing
The vesper bell
Of life's long day in mellowed tones is ringing—
"All's well; all's well!"

This length of life with strength for tasks appointed
And still a place
In fellowship and work with God's anointed,
Are all of grace.

In early life goes forth a sower, weeping:
He waits; believes;
In later life he comes rejoicing; reaping;
With golden sheaves.

With powers preserved, I covet not inaction,
To rest and rust;
The spirit finds a higher satisfaction
In toil and trust.

As duty calls, through clear and strong conviction,
My race I run;
Enough, at last, the Master's benediction:
"Well done. Well done."

Though shadows deepen, with the sun declining,
And clouds arise;
A heavenly glory often marks the shining
Of evening skies.

My cup is filled with goodness, sweetness—
Full to the brim;
The past with all its sins and incompleteness,
I leave with him.

To fellow workers rapidly completing
Their long careers,
A veteran sends his Christian love and greeting
Our best we bring—
Supreme event! Creation's coronation
Of Christ as King!

THEY CRY "PLAGLI"

What's living and what's dying? In themselves but trifling things;
A turning on and turning off the light;
But the spirit that's within you bids you up and spread your wings
And to the goal that's prompted make your flight.
If you're a cat you'll worry rats; if you're a mouse you'll steal;
If you're a fox then goosebones line your den;
If you're a man fair kindness for brothermen you feel—
But you've got to do some scrapping now and then.

You are a man of peace, I hope; phlegmatic is your pose;
A saintly calm you try to cultivate;
But if a chap pugnacious comes and hits you on the nose
There is likelihood that you'll reciprocate.
At such a time the dove of peace itself develops spurs;
You cannot hope for less from peaceful men.
And spite of all the scornful gibes at "snapping, snarling curs"
You've got to do some scrapping now and then.

All progress in the world was born of fighting fast and fierce;
All things worth while come hand in hand with pain;
Beneficence itself has bars some tender heart to pierce;
And Peace is born of men in battle slain.
A worm must die the death to give some dame a dress of silk;
A man must die that Truth may live again.
And if your veins are filled with blood instead of buttermilk
Why, you've got to do some scrapping now and then.

When'er the world is peopled with a lot of smiling saints
For the saintliest you'll hanker to be picked;
But if a thug gives you the boot, ignoring your complaints,
You've either got to lick him or be licked.

When you've licked him you may love him with a love that is intense,
May glorify sweet peace with tongue and pen.
But when trouble's in your system, get it out! That's commonsense,
And you've got to do some scrapping now and then!

A SOLDIER'S FAREWELL,

A sad, yet a brave smile plays over his manly face
As he takes his own close to him in love's last embrace,
And whispers as only a soldier can, perchance the last adieu,
As he kisses away the tears from her weeping eyes of blue.

He trusts to fate and pictures far beyond the gloom
A cottage wherein one day, Love's roses soft shall bloom;
When to glad arms he will return the victor of the fray,
And only death shall take him from his love away.

And oft as the sun shall set upon this cottage low,
Eager eyes will look for him—eyes that love him so—
But, ah! "farewell," he whispers at the sound of cannons rife—
"I love thee not less than my country, but my country more than life!"

A FEW LITTLE SMILES

"Did the play have a happy ending?"
"You bet it did! Some one in the gallery hit the villain square in the face with a tomato."—Houston Post.

"She makes me feel so small when she begins to talk about her ancestors. And we have no ancestors."

"Never mind, my dear. Come back at her with the pedigree of your dog."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Close Analogy—Pa, what is a retainer?"
"What you pay a lawyer before he does any work for you, my son."

TOOK THE HINT.

"Philander," said a pretty girl to her bashful beau, "I wish you'd tie this ribbon at my throat. I can't see to do it without a glass."

"Of course, I'll be glad to," he said and at once grasped the fringes.

After an unsuccessful effort of five minutes, during which he got as red as a brick, he gave up and perspired like a pig. "I'll wait for you on a July window sill," he murmured.

"I—I don't think I can tie a respectable knot, Miss Mary."

"Suppose, Philander," she whispered, with a pretty blush, "suppose you call in a clergyman to assist."

Like the unveiling of a beautiful mystery, the situation unfolded itself to Philander, and he feels better now.

A DRY ATMOSPHERE.

"I like this quaint little mountain village of yours, waiter. I suppose I can get plenty of oxygen here."

"No, sir; we've got local oxygen."

OUTCLASSED.

"My dear," said the proud father, "I cannot understand your objections to young Prudely as a suitor for your hand. I am sure that he is a model young man."

"There is no objection about his being a model," replied the bewitching beauty; "but father, dear, the trouble is that he is a 1912 model."—Buffalo Commercial.

The New Year to the Old.

I know I'm young and recent, yet this one thing I know: You're feeling low, old fellow—you're feeling mighty low! That brow of yours is frosted with the falling of the snow. White mine is to the light that makes the morning. My face is to the future. With a thousand dreams unguessed, I am leaping to the light now, like a baby from the breast. Of a mother whose soft lullaby is singing you to rest. My face is to the light that makes the morning. Oh, I know I'm young and recent, but the old boys—they must go. And the dreams that made the May-time fade with daisies 'neath the snow. The past was sweet with patience, but the future's what I know. My face is to the light that makes the morning.
—Frank L. Stanton.

A Draft—You Catch Cold—Then Follows Coughs, Cold Stiff Neck Neuralgia

Especially in the piercing pain of neuralgia or the dull throb of headache is Sloan's Liniment wonderfully relieving. Laid lightly on the part where the pain is felt, it gives at once a feeling of comfort and ease that is most welcome to the overworked sufferer.

Here's What Others Say:
"There are no Liniments that equal Sloan's. My husband has neuralgia very often; he rubs Sloan's on his face and that is the last of it."—Mrs. V. J. Brown, Route 1, Box 111, Halls, Tenn.
"I have used Sloan's Liniment for family use for years and would not be without it. We have raised a family of ten children and have used it for croup and all kind of troubles, as an antiseptic for wounds, of which children have a great many, it can't be beat. My wife sprained her ankle last summer and it was in bad shape. Sloan's Liniment applied enabled her to be as good as new. I have used it several times for sprains and rheumatism."—John A. Couch, R. R. No. 2, Krotz, Iowa.

CALOMEL WHEN BILIOUS? NO! STOP! MAKES YOU SICK AND SALIVATES

"Dodson's Liver Tone" is Harmless To Clean Your Stagnant Liver and Bowels.

"Oh! Calomel makes you sick. It's horrible! Take a dose of the dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a job or more."
Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile, crumbles into dust, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the acid of calomel because it is a real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.
