IF I HAD KNOWN.

Things I Wish I Had Known Before I Was Twenty-One.

Recently three leading men spoke at the men's meeting in Cleveland on the subject, "Things I Wish I Had Known Before I Was Twenty-one." G. Leonard Fels, the first speaker, gave answers sent in by twenty-four men. Here they are. Every word is worth reading:

1. What I was going to do for a living; what my life-work would be.
2. That my health after thirty depended, in a large degree, on what I put into my stomach before I was twenty-one.
3. How to take care of my money.
4. The commercial asset of being neatly and sensibly dressed.
5. That a man's habits are mighty hard to change after he is twenty-one.
6. That a harvest depends upon the seeds sown; wheat produce wheat, thistles bring forth thistles, ragweeds spoil good pasture, and wild oats sown will surely produce all kinds of misery and unhappiness.
7. That things worth while require time, patience and work.
8. That you can't get something for nothing.
9. That the world would give me just about what I deserved.
10. That by the sweat of my brow would I earn my bread.
11. That a thorough education not only pays better wages than hard labor, but it brings the best of everything else; namely, more enjoyable work, better food, more of the luxuries and pleasures of life, better folks to live and deal with, and, best of all, the genuine satisfaction that you are somebody worthy of respect, confidence, and the priceless gift of friendship.
12. That honesty is the best policy, not only in dealing with my neighbors, but also in dealing with myself and God.
13. The value of absolute truthfulness in everything.
14. The folly of not taking older people's advice.
15. That everything my mother wanted me to do was right.
16. That "Dad" wasn't an old fogey after all. If I had done as he wished me to do, I would be much better off physically, mentally and morally.
17. What it really meant to father and mother to raise their son.
18. What hardships and disappointments would be entailed by my leaving home against my parents' wishes.
19. More of the helpful and inspiring parts of the Bible, particularly the four books dealing with the life of Christ.
20. The greatness of the opportunity and joy of serving a fellow man.
21. That Jesus Christ was with me as an elder brother and friend in every activity and relationship of life.
22. That God's relationship to me was just as helpful and delightful as that of a good shepherd toward his sheep, or of a father toward his son.
23. A faithful friend is a strong defense. He that hath found a friend hath found a treasure. A poor man may be said to be rich in the midst of his poverty so long as he enjoys the interior sunshine of a devoted friend.
24. Friendship cheers like a sunbeam, charms like a good story, inspires like a brave leader, binds like a golden chain, guides like a heavenly star.—The Industrial Enterprise.

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:
CAMDEN, N. J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 530 Mechanic Street, Camden, N. J.

From Hanover, Penn.
HANOVER, PA.—"I was a very weak woman and suffered from bearing down pains and backache. I had been married over four years and had no children. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound proved an excellent remedy for it made me a well woman. After taking a few bottles my pains disappeared, and we now have one of the finest boy babies you ever saw."—Mrs. C. A. RICKARDS, R.F.D., No. 5, Hanover, Pa.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

ARE YOU?

Are you just the same at home as you are upon the streets
Just as smiling and as pleasant and as sweet?
Are you just the same at home to your family as you are
To the comrades and the strangers that you meet in shop and car?
Are you just as kind and thoughtful to your children and your wife
As you are to total strangers in this every day life?

Are you just the same at home as you were down town today
Just as happy and as hopeful, just as full of joy and play
Are you just the same at home to the loved ones that need it so,
Just as comforting and cheering, just as full of fun and glow
Are you just as true and loving to the ones that need your care
As you were to some acquaintance in the hurly-burly there.

Are you just the same at home as you were with us tonight
In the sparkle of the revel in the glamour and the light
Are you just the same at home as you are to friend and foe
Whom you meet along the highway in the paths you have to go
Are you just as fond and tender to the hearts you owe it to
As you are to all the others as they smile and bow to you.

THE ECHO OF A SONG.

To my fancy, idly roaming, comes a picture of the gloaming,
Comes a fragrance from the blossoms of the lilac and the rose;
With the yellow lamplight streaming I am sitting here dreaming
Of a half-forgotten twilight when a mellow memory flows,
To my listening ears come winging vagrant notes of woman's singing;
I've a sense of sweet contentment as the sounds are borne along,
'Tis a mother who is tuning her fond heart to love and crooning
To her laddie such a
Sleepy little
Creepy little
Song

Ah, well do I remember when by crackling spark and ember,
The old-fashioned oaken rocker moved with rhythmic sweep and slow;
With her feet upon the fender, in a cadence low and tender,
Floated forth that slumber anthem of a childhood long ago;
There were goblins in the gloaming, and the half-closed eyes went roaming
Through the twilight for the ghostly shapes of bugaboos along;
Now the sandman's slyly creeping and a tired lad's half sleeping,
When she sings to him that
Sleepy little
Creepy little
Song.

So I'm sitting here and dreaming with the mellow lamplight streaming
Through the vine-embroidered window in a yellow fligree,
On the fragrant air comes winging vagrant notes of woman's singing,
'Tis the slumber song of childhood that is murmuring to me,
And some subtle fancy creeping lulls my senses half to sleeping
As the misty shapes of bugaboos go dreamily along,
All my sorrows disappearing as a tired lad I'm hearing
Once again my mother's
Sleepy little
Creepy little
Song.

THE GIRLS IN DIXIE.

The Prettiest Girls On Earth.

Some one has said that when God made the Southern girl. He sent His angel throughout all the star-strewn realms of space to gather all there was of beauty, and they threw down their glittering burdens at His feet. He began in their wondering presence the work of fashioning the Southern girl. He wrought with the gold and gleam of the stars; shifting glories and rainbow hues and the palled silver of a Southern moon. He wrought with the crimson which swayed in the rose's rubied heart, with the pure sweet snow which gleamed from the lily's petals and the fire and flames which flash and leap from the jewel's depth. Then plunging deep into his own bosom, He took of the love beneath the wind-kissed waves of a summer sea, threw this into the form He was making which gleams there like some rare pearl fashioning and all Heaven veiled its face, for lo, He had wrought the Southern girl.

HIS GOOD REASON.

"You admit," said the magistrate, "that you entered the house of the prosecuting witness by the rear door at 2 o'clock in the morning?"
"Yes, your honor," replied the prisoner.
"What business did you have here that time of the night?"
"I thought it was my own house."
"Then why did you, when this lady approached, leap through the window, jump into the cistern and hide yourself?"
"Your honor, I thought it was my wife."

THE HAPPY HEART.

No poem of John Vance Cheney's has been as widely copied as the one entitled "The Happy Heart," which is here given:
"Who drives the horses of the sun
Shall lord it but a day;
Better the lowly deed were done,
And kept the humble way."
"The rust will find a sword of fame,
The dust will hide the crown;
And none shall nail so high his name
Time will not tear it down."
"The happiest heart that ever beat
Was in some quiet breast,
That found the common daylight sweet,

GROUCH PROOF.

TAX COLLECTOR

74 YEARS OLD

Expected to Resign on Account of Feebleness—Gained Strength and Twenty-four Pounds by Taking Vinol.

Corinth, Miss.—"I am a city tax collector and seventy-four years of age. I was in a weak, run-down condition so that I became exhausted by every little exertion. My druggist told me about Vinol, and I decided to take it. In a week I noticed considerable improvement; I continued its use and now I have gained twenty pounds in weight, and feel much stronger. I consider Vinol a fine tonic to create strength for old people."—J. A. PRICE, Corinth, Miss.

As one grows old their organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth, circulation is poor, the blood gets thin, the appetite poor and digestion weak. Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, is the ideal strengthener and body builder for old folks because it creates a good healthy appetite, strengthens digestion, enriches the blood, improves circulation and in this natural manner builds up, strengthens and invigorates feeble, run-down, nervous and aged people, and if it does not do all we say, we will pay back your money.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK. DON'T STAY BILIOUS, CONSTIPATED

"Dodson's Liver Tonic" Will Clean Your Sluggish Liver Better Than Calomel and Can Not Salivate.

Calomel makes you sick; you lose a day's work. Calomel is quick-acting and it salivates; calomel injures your liver. If you are bilious; feel lazy, sluggish and all knocked out, if your bowels are constipated and your head aches or stomach is sour, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tonic instead of using sickening salivating calomel. Dodson's Liver Tonic is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. You will feel like working. You'll be cheerier, full of energy, vigor and ambition.

Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic under my personal guarantee that it will clean your sluggish liver better than nasty calomel; it won't make you sick and you can eat anything you want without being salivated. Your druggist guarantees that each spoonful will start your liver, clean your bowels and straighten you up by morning or you get your money back. Children gladly take Dodson's Liver Tonic because it's pleasant tasting and doesn't gripe or tramp or make them sick.

I am selling millions of bottles of Dodson's Liver Tonic to people who have found that this pleasant, vegetable, liver medicine takes the place of dangerous calomel. Buy one bottle on my sound reliable guarantee. Ask your druggist about it.
