WOMAN 81 YEARS OLD

Made Strong By Vinol

Greenville, S. C.—"I want others to know of the great benefit I have derived from Vinol. I am 81 years old and Vinol has given me strength, a healthy appetite and overcome nervousness. It is the best tonic restorative I ever used."—Mrs. M. A. HUTCHISON.
 Vinol is a delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, guaranteed to overcome run down, weak, debilitated conditions and for chronic coughs and colds.

W. M. Cohen, Druggist, Weldon, N. C.

COTTON continues to roll in.

THE carnival is here this week. THE best expander is a big heart. MIRTH is nature's best remedy. THE circus will be here Saturday.

DYSPEPSIA may be disappointed love.

CHRISTMAS just six weeks ahead.

THE hunting season begins next Monday.

L. KITTNER spent Sunday in Petersburg.

ARE you coming to Weldon on the 13th?

INDIGESTION is often only indignant love.

PRAYER affirms, what it hopes to realize.

BE careful with fire during this dry weather.

THE peanut crop must have been immense.

IN thoughts, as in life, you reap what you sow.

AMBITION never has time to take a day off.

HOPE is the froth that hides the dregs in life's cup.

THE woods are beautiful at this season of the year.

CONCEALMENT in love may be prudence and not deceit.

A busy man seldom has time to realize how happy he is.

PRAYER is communion with your own consciousness.

ONE who never forgives an enemy, often forgets a friend.

H. FARBBER spent Sunday in Richmond with his family.

FARMERS busy getting up crops before bad weather sets in.

THE more a woman knows about men the less she has to say.

THE woman whose face is her fortune goes broke eventually.

THE sweetest songs are those heard when you were a child.

THERE'S nothing like being ready when opportunity knocks.

To jump at conclusions may be to vault over the right of others.

THE farmers have had delightful weather for gathering the crops.

NATURE creates a genius; hard work puts on the finishing touches.

A bright man never wastes his time gazing on the dark side of life.

MRS. W. H. CAPELL has returned home from a visit to Portsmouth.

THE bride elect doesn't mind being caught in a linen or china shower.

MISS KATHERINE SIMPSON, of Richmond, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rodwell, went to Enfield Friday to spend some time with relatives in that place.

SHOT IN THE ARM.—F. J. Braswell, night policeman, while walking on the yard of the Atlantic Coast Line R. R. Company, Saturday night, was shot in the left arm by an unknown party. Mr. Braswell has no clue to the person who did the shooting. While his wound is painful it is not considered serious, and we are glad to report.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.—The following is a list of letters remaining "uncalled for" in the Weldon post-office:

George Harlow, Willie Keddall, Walter Little, Mrs. L. E. Mills. Persons calling for above letters will please say "advertised," giving date of advertising.

D. T. CLARK, P. M., Weldon, N. C. Nov. 8, 1915.

THE SWEETEST WORDS.—These are the sweetest of all words invented—
 Sweeter than love notes, however rose scented.
 Words that are beautiful, starlit and sunny;
 Words that are dripping with nectar and honey,
 Words that ring sweet with the jingle of money—
 "Inclosed find check."

EARLY MORNING FIRE.—Fire Thursday morning, about six o'clock, destroyed the dwelling occupied by Crocker Jones, near the section where the six houses were recently destroyed. The fire had made good headway when discovered and the building was destroyed. The building was owned by H. B. Harrell, on which there was no insurance. Origin of the fire unknown.

SOUTH WELDON CLUB.—The South Weldon Home Improvement Club met Friday afternoon, November 5, at the home of its president, Mrs. J. A. Johnson. Most of the members were present and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The ways and means of providing a walk for the South Weldon school children was discussed freely. They decided to accept Supt. W. C. Allen's invitation to participate in Arbor Day exercises at the graded school by planting a maple tree on the grounds. Many beautiful cut chrysanthemums decorated the home. The hostess served hot chocolate, wafers and fruit.

DIED NEAR ROSEMARY.—Sunday night, October 25th, the death angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. D. Ivey and took away their darling, Virginia. She was only three years old, and was one of the sweetest and brightest children I ever saw. When she was about a year old she was carried to the hospital, and operated on for appendicitis. She stood her operation better than many a grown person. She was laid to rest in the family burying grounds, and the grave was covered with many beautiful flowers.

THE BEAVERED PARENTS have much sympathy in their affliction, but they have the blessed assurance that all is well with the little one cut down in her infancy.

WILLIAMS-DIXON.—A wedding that took the town of Wilson by surprise was consummated Saturday night at ten o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Williams, 220 Broad street—the contracting parties being Mr. William B. Williams, of Wilson, and Miss Elizabeth Dixon, the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Fulford Dixon, of Belhaven. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. Bradshaw, pastor of the Methodist church. The happy couple left on the midnight train and will spend their honeymoon in northern cities.

MISS DIXON is well known in Weldon, having lived here for some time with her aunt, Mrs. S. C. Dennis. Mrs. Dennis went down to Wilson to attend the wedding. We extend our best wishes.

FREE CIRCULATING LIBRARY.—Since the first organization of the "Book Club" it has been the purpose to establish, if even on a small scale, a free circulating library for the use of the people of Weldon. The time has come when having accumulated quite a number of good books they have located them at the home of Mrs. Ida Wilkins who will act as librarian for the present and the public is cordially invited to call and examine them. On Friday of each week the library will be open and Mrs. Wilkins will take pleasure in loaning the books to any one who may wish to read them free of cost. A record will be kept and when a book is kept out of the library more than two weeks a fine of five cents each day will be charged. In the library there are more than a hundred books of recent and standard fiction, history, poetry, and quite a number of interesting magazines. It is the earnest wish of the Club that these books may be read and used by the people of Weldon and it is an opportunity that none should fail to take advantage of.

$1,000 FOR BOTH.—In stating last week that the county commissioners appropriated $1,000 for the hog cholera demonstrator, we should have said that they appropriate $500 for the hog cholera man, and $500 for the farm demonstrator, the same as last year, five hundred for each, making a total of $1,000.

TUBERCULOSIS WEEK.—"Be examined" is a new and popular health suggestion adopted especially for Tuberculosis Week this year. December 8th has been set apart as the particular day which physicians and people should give to this important health principle.

The plan adopted for observing this national medical examination day is a practical one. It does not suppose that a large number of people, not all who would, could be thoroughly examined in one day, but it does suppose that public interest can be so aroused as to set people to thinking seriously about the matter and finally to arrange for a medical examination at the convenience of their physician and themselves.

THE BOOK CLUB.—Messdames Wm. M. Cohen and Nicholas Collins Hughes were hostesses to the Book Club Tuesday afternoon, November the second. The hall and library were decorated in red roses, autumn leaves, and branches of hawthorne, while the dining room was most attractive in handsome yellow chrysanthemums and yellow foliage, thus carrying out most effectively, the Spanish colors. Responses to roll call were interesting items from Moorish history.

The program for the afternoon consisted of a reading, "The Moorish Occupation of Spain," by Mrs. Hughes.

A paper by Mrs. Knight: "A Tour of Spain's Moorish Cities." Reading: "The Torquemada," (London) by Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Cohen was assisted by Mrs. Harrison in serving delicious refreshments.

Made Over Again.

Mrs. Jennie Miner, Davidson, Ind., writes: "I can truthfully say Foley's Cathartic Tablets are the best I ever used. They are so mild in action, I feel like I have been made over again." Good health has no greater enemy than constipation. Foley's Cathartic Tablets keep the stomach sweet, liver active, bowels regular, and banish biliousness, sick headaches, sour stomach, stout persons welcome the light, free feeling they give.
