THE ROANOKE NEWS

WELDON, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 1916,

900 DROPS The Kind You Have Always Bought LCOHOL 3 PER CENT. Bears the Signature INFANTS CHILDREN Promotes Digestion Cheefal-ness and Rest Contains neither Opium Morphine nor Maeral NOT NARCOTIC. ripe of the Deconstant Property For Over ness and LOSS OF SLEEP. Thirty Years NEW YORK. At6 months old 35 Doses -35 CENTS Exact Copy of Wrapper.

THE BANK OF WELDON

WELDON, N. C.

Organized Under the Laws of the State of North Carolina,

State of North Carolina Depository. Halifax County Depository. Town of Weldon Depository.

Capital and Surplus, $55,000.

For over 21 years this institution has provided banking facilities for its section. Its stockholders and officers are identified with the busi-ss interests of Halifax and Northampton counties.

A Savings Department is maintained for the benefit of all who desire deposit in a Navings Bank. In this Department interest is allowed as lows:

to deposit in a Savings Bans.

follows:

For Deposits allowed to remain three months or longer, 2 per cent. Six months or longer, 4 per cent. months or longer, 4 per cent. Any information will be furnished on application to the President or Cashier any information will be furnished on application to the President or Cashier.

E DANIEL

W. R. SMITH. L. C. DRAPER, Teller.

J. O. DRAKE.

DIRECTORS-W. R. Smith, W. E. Daniel, J. O. Drake, W. M. Cohen, R. T. Daniel, J. L. Shepherd, W. A. Pierce, D. B. Zollicoffer, J. W. Sledge

Strong and Durable

For Fishing, Use under All Conditions.

Give steady, bright light. Easy to light. Easy to clean and rewick. Don't smoke. Don't blow out in the wind. Don't leak,

At dealers everywhere

STANDARD OIL COMPANY

WELDON, N &

A GREAT HOPE.

By Rev. Worth M. Tippy, D. D., Pastor Madison Avenue Methodist Church, New York, in New York Herald.

"All things are possible to him that believeth," said Jesus; by which He meant to say that men can become what they desire to become and accomplish what they really want to accomplish. If a man has common sense his vision, plus his courage and determination, is the measure of his power.

A well known traveler had just completed an address on Africa. Admirers from the audience were crowding about him, when a whitefaced, poorly clad boy with eager face pressed forward and said, "I am going there some day."

"Isn't that pathetic," a bystander whispered. "No," answered the traveler,

'it is divine." "But you surely don't believe he can do it!" exclaimed the bystander in astonishment "I am not sure," replied the great man. "It depends upon the strength of his hope." Twenty-five years afterward the boy was in Africa, himself an ex-

Hide away a great hope in your heart. Let it be as great as the best is in you. Let its roots strike deep into your being. Let it blossom into cheer and faith and indomnitable purpose. Lift it up to God, for the highest work is never done without Him.

You are a young man and your supreme desire is for an educa-

You are a young woman with ambitions and strength for a man's task but with a woman's handicap.

You are a politician, in the best sense of the word, with the public the ranks of the men who do battle for the people.

You would be a skilled mechanic, a capable business man, a minister, a lawyer, a doctor, a teacher, a technical man, a newspaper man. The Veteran Clown Remembered Hide away the hope in your heart.

It will become an increasingly which you do not dream.

You will become not the ordinasciousness of a victory unconsumenrich the life.

And then some day you will see wished you will have grown to the size of your hope, and from a higher plane, with a truer perspective, you will look out upon life, doing your work manfully and understanding the struggles, the defeats and the victories of other

A girl who hesitates may not be lost, but she is apt to become a

PAINS IN SIDE AND BACK

How Mrs. Kelly Suffered and How She was Cured.

good and I hope every suffering woman will give them a trial "-Mrs. ANNA KELLY, 710 Chestnut Street, Burling

The many convincing testimonials con-stantly published in the newspapers ought to be proof enough to women who suffer from those distressing ills pecu-liar to their sex that Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine

This good old root and herb remedy has proved unequalled for these dread-ful ills; it contains what is needed to woman's health and strength. If there is any peculiarity in your case requiring special advice, write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass, for free advice.

COD'S CHOSEN SINCER.

BY LOUISA J. HITCH, PORT NORFOLK, VA

When He who fashioned sun, and moon, and stars, And set the planets in their separate spheres, And ruled the earth majestic, countless years E're ever man was blessed with length of days, Bethought to make some creature sing His praise.

He took the glory of the coming dawn, The beauty of the first glad day in spring. The strength and steadfastness of everything That goes to make the hills and rocks endure.

And these He wrought into a song so pure That He was pleased, and gave it unto one, And to this chosen singer of His song said "Go," Sing thou my praise that all mankind may know That I am God, and knowing shall rejoice.

That tired eyes grown dim with bitter tears, And hearts a-weary with their doubts and fears, May know, and look up, and be glad, And shout aloud triumphantly to tell—
"The night is past, God is, and all is well."

THE LOVE WE OWE TO WOMEN.

The love we owe to women-for all we have and are: Our strength when we are tempted, our trust and guiding star, Our wives our mothers, sisters, -all wonder and all awe To these whose worth sustain us, our doctrine and our law!

The love we owe to women-for all we dream to be, For all we've striven to master, for all we've tried to see. Our sweethearts, and our cousins, our guides to manhood's best. Our source of zeal and purpose, our will, our strength, our zest !

The love we owe to women-for all we've known or know, Our courage in the conflict, our shielders from the blow. Our silencers of hatred, our light, our trust, our truth, In whom we find our solace, from whom we draw our youth!

The love we owe to women-and how shall we repay? Men in a world of mischief, poor creatures of this clay. How shall we rise to measure to all that they have meant Above us in their splendor of love and courage bent!

The love we owe to women-no petty debt and poor; For all we are or may be, to worship and adore; For all our dreams advancing, our hopes that burn and rise, To them life's pure devotion—these stars that light our skies!

good at heart, and you would enter | These sisters of sorrow, and hearers of our cross, The same today, tomorrow, in triumph or in loss. These strong tides in our weakness, to hold us true through life To all that makes us noble, these sweeteners of our strife

JOHN LOWLOW.

in a Story in The Post.

In a very interesting story, did many Greensboro people. sometimes unappreciated genius. rapture and the glee, when through mated, to whom every buffet of Judge James E. Boyd was one of fortune serves but to discipline and John's special friends. We knew vannah, and as I understood it he Trouble in his tree, and dragged reads

> "While I was with the Robinson Lowlow, probably the most famous of all American clowns. He was a peculiar character in many ways, but a profound student. About once a week he would bring us girls a book, which he enjoined us the star of the circus. to read carefully. It might be Shakespeare, Dickens, Mark Twain or Kipling, but it was always one that had been hallmarked with the lowing week he would cross-exthoroughly digested it. At first we read to please him and because of his kindness and consideration, but later we grew to like it and became omnivorous readers of everything worthy that came cause in the main our university was the Lord's big schoolhouse of the mighty outdoors. Still, when one comes to think of it, it was absolutely liberal, and perhaps in the terms. long run as efficacious as what we might have acquired in a regular and prescribed course of intellectual training. " 'You don't have to pay transportation on brain-food seed, girls, he would say quaintly, 'and it yields thousands of bushels to the acre.' Lowlow knew his Shakespeare by heart and enjoyed the friendship of many men prominent in national affairs. In after years I met people in all walks of life, but never any one who excelled this gentle, kindly old clown when guarantee of satisfaction. it came to possessing all the instincts and attributes of a gentle-"He was remarkably versatile, and like chain lightning when call- everywhere, from Tampa to Tosurroundings or to take advantage pawed the air, "Oh, where has powerful suggestion, working day | Winter Quarters," in the Saturday | spotlight. On sunshiny afternoons, | hunt him out, wherever he is hidand night, strengthening your pur- Evening Post of a recent date, Mr. when making his addresses to the den." They got search warrants poses, cheering your dark hours, L. B. Yates, makes this mention audience or singing his songs, he at the court, and lanterns trimmed holding you to persistent effort. It of the old clown, John Lowlow. would place himself on the ring- with bunting, and every dame and will awaken powers lying back in II might have gone further and bank in such a position that the every sport forth to the woods the subconscious mind, powers of said that John attended the Uni- sun's rays, coming through went hunting. They let all other versity and that he had as many the opening in the canvass where business slide-naught else was so personal friends in North Carolina the sections had been laced togeth- important, and through the forest ry man who is born, lives and dies, as most any public man. We knew er, would play full upon him, dark and wide, they scrambled, but an inspired man with a con- Lowlow for many years and so Lowlow was a many sided and John would like this kindly men- had been one of the noted vetertion by Yates-telling a story of him ans of the Civil War. I know that antly they homeward went, their the fulfillment of the hope you had by a woman rider who was long whenever we played through the fears and cares were over, for hidden away. But should it never with Robinson's circus, and for South and got down in the partic- they had found the long-lost gent; come to pass in just the way you that reason we re-print it. It ular section mentioned hosts of thenceforth they'd live in clover. personal friends used to visit him, and old ladies brought him pres-Circus I met the veteran, John ents of elderberry wine, jam and fruit cake. When we were in Virginia he was always the guest of Colonel Fairfax, head of that famous aristocratic old house. In those days the clown was really

"He was usually called a Shakesperean jester and frequently had to entertain the audience singlehanded. Lowlow never descendbadge of approval. Then the fol- ed to slapstick methods; all his effects resulted from brilliantly conamine us closely to see if we had ceived and admirably executed comedy."-Everything.

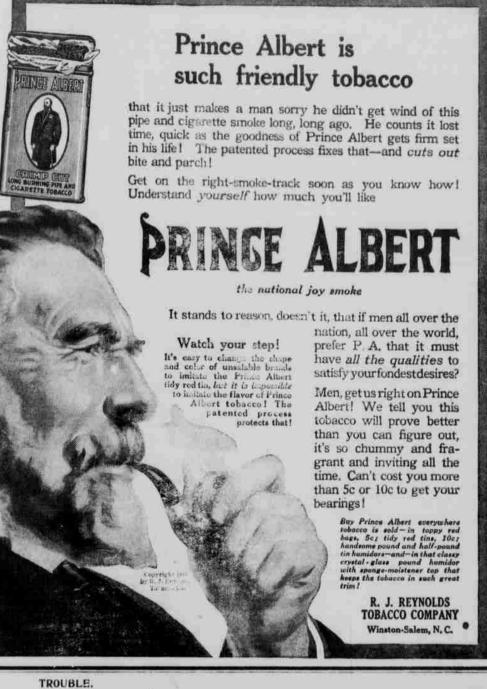

Bad Cold Quickly Broken Up.

Mrs. Martha Wilcox. Gowonds, N. Y. used it. writes: "I first used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy about eight years ago. At that time I had a hard cold and our way. This perhaps was a coughed most of the time. It proved unique system of education, be- to be just what I needed. It broke up the cold in a few days, and the cough entirely disappeared. I have told many friends of the good I received through using this medicine, and all who have used it speak of it is the highest Obtainable everywhere.

> Always let your wife have her own way; it will save her having it anyway.

How To Cure Colds Avoid exposure and drafts. Bat right Take Dr. King's New Discovery. It is prepared from Pine Tar, healing balcold germs, soothes the irritated throat | Honey. 25c. at druggists. and allays inflammation. It heals the mucous membrane. Search as you will, you cannot find a better cough and cold remedy. Its use over 45 years is a

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Old Trouble hid, inside a tree, and muttered, "Now, dad bind me. I think that men won't bother me-they won't know where to find me!" But men and women ed upon to adapt himself to his ronto, exclaimed, the while they of peculiar conditions. He was Trouble gone to? When Trouble the only man I ever saw, except is no more about, we shed the "In Bayfield, who used Dame Nature's tears unbidden; let us go forth and where they'd ortn't. And oh, the "His home was originally in Sa- a glade repairing, they found poor him from it, swearing. Triumphthe Heart is overtaxed.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the Signature of Chart H. Thicker

The brick manufacturer has some excuse for wanting the earth. The Gist of It.

'Last December I had a severe cold and was nearly down sick in bed. I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a very few days until I was completely restored to health," writes O. J. Metcalf, Weather-of this remedy, ask any one who has Obtainable everywhere. Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S by, Mo. If you would know the value

CASTORIA It is a waste of money to advertise for lost friendship.

An unprofitable apartment house may be considered a flat failure.

To Cure Children's Colds

Keep child dry, clothe comfortable, avoid exposure and give Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. It is pleasant, soothing antiseptic, raises phlegm and reduces inflammation. The first dose gives relief, continued treatment with proper care will avoid serious illness or a long cold. Don't delay treatment. Don't ame and mild laxatives. Dr. King's let your child suffer. Get a bottle to New Discovery kills and expells the day. Insist on Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-

RUB-MY-TISM

Will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headaches, Cramps, Colic Sprains, Bruises, Cuts, Burns, Old Sores, Tetter, Ring-Worm, Eczema, etc. Antiseptic Anodyne, used internally or externally. 25c The Large

Work-shop pains and their quick relief The constant strain of factory work very often results in Headaches, Backaches and other Aches, and also weakens the Nerves. DR. MILES' ANTI-PAIN PILLS will quickly relieve the Nerves, or Pain, while SEVERE PAIN. Dr. Miles' Heart Treatment is very helpful when

CONDENSE STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE

FIRST BOX, OR BOTTLE,

FAILS TO BENEFIT YOU, YOUR

Enfield, N. C., at the close of business Dec. 31, 1915.

Resources		Liabilities
oans and discounts, burniture and Fixtures, anking House evenne Stamps, ash items, ash in Vault, ash in other banks	1,500.60 5,000.00 57,50 199.11	Capital Stock, Surplus Undivided profits, Uncarned discounts Quarter Division, Jan. 1st Cashiers check Deposits,	$10,000,00 50,000,00 5,436.76 4,000.00 500.00 1,327.93 331,550.03
Total,	$402,814.72	Total,	$409,814.79

Dec. 31, 1915 Dec. 31, 1914	A PROPERTY AND ADDRESS OF THE PARTY OF THE P	 TOTAL ASSETS $402,814.72 $320,833.98
Gain,	$75,756.02	$81,980.74
We beg to submit	a statement of you	ur bank at the close of its 18th

From the comparative statement you will see that we have made a big gain over last year. If you are not a depositor, either in our Commercial or Savings Department, we invite you to become one IVEY WATSON, J. W. WHITAKER, Vice-Pres.

C. H. MATTHEWS, Asst. Cashier. DIRECTORS GEORGE B. CURTIS, J. BURWELL

IVEY WATSON.

The Largest Bank in Hallfax County.