Don't We All Like to Splutter And Dazzle, Though.

We look at heap, big Injun, with a ring in his nose and think he is certainly a poor fool. But the Heap, Big Injun, doubtless looks at a woman supporting a twenty thousand dollar diamond stomach, and he knows she is a fool.

To prove what fools all mortals, with the price, can be, the figures concerning the importation of gems into this country in twelve months give us the line of dope. There were imported $25,000,000 worth of gems into the United States last year—mere trinkets with no intrinsic value. Twenty-five million dollars for gems. Think of the bologna sausage it would buy. Think of the bread line that could be supplied with such a vast sum, and yet we coughed up twenty-five millions and had people had the price and been able to grantify their wants it would have been twenty-five billions.

We are a wonderful people. We still have the primal instinct—the instinct to be gaudy. The Indian paints his face and wears feathers in his hair—milady paints her face and wears diamonds in her ears. Where is there, in fact, any difference? There is no difference—Everything.

CHEERING HIM UP

A professional boxer was badly beaten in a sparring match and was carried to his bed in an exhausted and melancholy condition.
"I wish you'd say something to cheer him up, doctor," pleaded the defeated warrior's wife. "He is getting low in his mind, and when he's like that you've no idea how hard it is to wait on him. He is worse than a bear with tooth-ache."
"What can I say that will please him most?" asked the doctor.
"You might just tell him, in an off-hand way that the man that licked him is mighty bad in the hospital, and that they may have to hold a post-mortem on him any minute now," was the solemn suggestion.

Resignation may be a good sauce for adversity.
It does seem queer that most of the "good fellows" have a lot of bad habits.

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder?

There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.

LOOKING FORWARD.

Look not for Sorrow; for perhaps too soon, Without your seeking, she on you will wait; And if it be at morning, eve, or noon, To you her mission she will plainly state.
Look not for Trouble; she is always near; And if from her you never had a call, That you are more than mortal much I fear, For she herself makes known to great and small.
Look not for Darkness; she too oft appears When for her visit we are least prepared; But if to you unheralded she nears, Let not your soul by her claims be ensnared.
Look not for Sickness; though we know, alas! She will come to us at some unknown stage; And if our youth and middle-age she pass, She surely will come to us in old age.
Look not for Weakness, ills, nor anything That has a tendency our joys to blight; For what we wish not, Time will surely bring; So let us forward look for Cheer and Light.

OLD LOVES.

BY ARTHUR WALLACE PEACH, IN SOUTHERN WOMAN'S MAGAZINE.

They bring from olden years a fragrance sweet, Leaving a lingering beauty on the air, As from some long dead roses' dim retreat, Dusk bears faint memories of perfume rare.
Among the dusky pages of the past That reeked with battle smoke, the carnage hot Of ancient ways, alone the old loves last, Each tale, though ages pass, forgotten not.
Though he who wooed and she who loved now sleep In the still, calm beauty of a perfect rest, Quite patiently the years their memories keep While empires sink to ash in tombs unguessed.
O fragrance drifting down the ancient ways, Where long has died steel's clang and battle-cry, You prove the worth of love in other days, And promise that ours, too, shall never die!

Has Used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for 20 Years.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my household for the past 20 years. I began giving it to my children when they were small. As a quick relief for croup, it has no equal. Being free from opium and other harmful drugs, I never felt afraid to give it to the children. I have recommended it to a large number of friends and neighbors, who have used it and speak highly of it. writes Mrs. Mary Mint, Shortsville, N. Y.

How Mr. Davis Got Rid of a Bad Cough
"Sometime ago I had a very bad cough," writes Lewis T. Davis, Blackwater, Del. "My brother Mc Cabe Davis gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After taking this I bought a half dozen bottles of it but only used one of them as the cough left me and I have not been troubled since."

ANOTHER REASON.

For Attending A Bible Class and Mixing.

There are a half hundred reasons, doubtless, why men should meet together—not in the post-office lobby just to say "howdy"—but to meet somewhere where there is a common cause.

Here in Greensboro the fact stands out big that men of our town have become acquainted with each other because they have regularly attended Smith's Bible Class. They come out of the church and walk up town together and they exchange views, and it is worth while. We have noticed this, and it works wherever you get men together. Billy Sunday remained in Omaha seven weeks and the excitement was great. And thousands who attended the meeting and didn't hit the trail got together and renewed acquaintance.

A correspondent showing both sides of the result of Sunday's visit to Omaha concludes his story in this way:

"But Billy Sunday did one good for Omaha men—even those who did not hit the trail. He got them acquainted with each other. Seven weeks of tabernacle attendance resulted in thousands of new friendships being formed, and today on the streets of Omaha ten men smile and speak to each other where three months ago but one man took occasion to greet another."

That alone was worth while. Take it from us, ladies and gentlemen—if you can get up a sincere smile in this world, where there was a frown before, you have done a man's duty. If you can get your neighbors to know each other; to respect each other; to meet each other with a gracious smile and a pleasant "Good morning"—you have done much.

And if Billy Sunday gets folk together; if he puts on the grim faces of men a smile—pardon us if we say a Gilliam Grissom smile—he has done not only something for the Lord, but for mankind.

In this old hot house world; this world of detail and stuffy offices; this world of greed and gaur and preparedness we do not smile enough. We take things altogether too seriously.

The smile—the smile—the natural, the spontaneous smile with a gracious word is worth all the medicine in Christendom—Everything.

Do You Find Fault With Everybody?

An irritable, fault-finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently benefited by Chamberlain's Tablets after years of suffering. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally.
