WILL YOU BE MISSED.

As You Shape Your Career in Life So Do You Write the Record By Which You Will Be Known After Death.

SOME of these days you, who are reading this editorial, are going to die and pass on to your reward—whatever that reward may be.

But will you leave a void behind?

Will you be missed?

The creator has ordained that man must carve out his own career in this world, and when he journeys to the great unknown he leaves behind him a record founded upon his own acts.

You may leave behind you a wife, or children, or other dependents. As you deal with them in life, so will their grief be gauged and tempered at your death.

Will they miss you?

In this town we have friends, and business associates, and perhaps many acquaintances. They know you as you are, as you have been for these many years. They have judged your living and they will judge you dead.

Will they miss you?

In the banks and the stores, and the offices, and out upon the farms are people who have known you in the past and who know you today. As you have been, so are you known to them now.

Will they miss you?

In our homes are many little children who know you, who have passed you on the street, who perchance, may have been greeted with a kindly smile or with a frown. They will remember you.

But will they miss you?

Even your faithful animals or pets know you as you are and as you have been to them.

Will they miss you?

There is no place you may go, no point of the compass to which you may turn, but what people have known you are will know you, and by all of these you will be judged when you have passed away.

As you shape your career in life, so do you write the record by which you will be known after death.

Your family, your associates, your acquaintances, even your dumb brutes will remember you after you have passed on.—Franklin Times.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A woman may have a poor memory, but she never forgets a compliment.

Has Used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for 20 Years.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in my household for the past 20 years. I began giving it to my children when they were small. As a quick relief for cough, it has no equal. Being free from opium and other harmful drugs, I never felt afraid to give it to the children. I have recommended it to a large number of friends and neighbors, who have used it and speak highly of it," writes Mrs. Mary Mink, Shortsville, N. Y.

Some magazine poetry should be used as ammunition in a magazine gun.

Sciatica's Piercing Pain.

To kill the nerve pains of Sciatica you can always depend on Sloan's Liniment. It penetrates to the seat of pain and brings ease as soon as it is applied. A great comfort too with Sloan's Liniment is its value for stopping muscular or nerve pain of any kind. Try it at once if you suffer with Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sore Throat, Pains in Chest, Sprains, Bruises, etc. It is excellent for Neuralgia and Headache. 25c. at all Druggists.

Woman's silence signifies more than man's because it is much less frequent.

How Mr. Davis Got Rid of a Bad Cough.

"Sometime ago I had a very bad cough," writes Lewis E. Davis, Blackwater, Del. "My brother McCabe Davis gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. After taking this I bought a half dozen bottles of it but only used one of them as the cough left me and I have not been troubled since." Obtainable everywhere.

NEVER CROSSED.

There's many a sorrow and pain, I know, As we tread the path of life; There's many a grief and lasting woe, And the way is toil and strife. But the hardest load we have to bear Is the labor and strength that's lost In building the bridge with toilsome care O'er the stream that is never crossed.

We have fretting and worry from morn till night, And anguish weighs on the heart; The thorny way seems hard to right, And life is a bitter part.

But there is a burden greater yet, Much peace of soul it has cost, It is building a bridge with toil and sweat O'er the stream that is never crossed.

There's looking for crossing all the day, And searching along the shore, For a bridge or ford along the way We shall never travel o'er.

There's sighing for useless toys in vain, And dreaming of chances lost; But 'tis hardest to bridge with might and main The stream that is never crossed.

Then gather the roses along the way, And treasure the fragrance rare; Rejoice in the bright and joyous day, Refusing to borrow care.

For sorrow and pain will surely come, And your soul be tried and tossed, But don't be bridging to reach your home O'er the stream that is never crossed.

OBJECT OF SUSPICION.

Senator Jeff Davis, of Arkansas, told this one on himself.

"I had an appointment to speak at a town in Eastern Arkansas on a Saturday, and I arrived on a late train the night before, carrying nothing but a small hand grip. I went to a hotel near the depot. There was no one on duty at the hour except the night porter, and he was acting as porter, clerk and general overseer. I registered and he showed me to a room, but in a few minutes he came back and said:

"Boss, my 'struction is, when a gemman haven't any baggage, to collect in advance." "Why, I've got baggage," I replied, pointing to the little grip. "I know, sir, boss," he said, "but you've stayed too long on that already."

MAKING A GET AWAY.

A colored man came running down the lane as if a wild animal were after him.

"What are you running for, Moses?" called the colonel from the barn.

"I ain't a-runnin' fo'," shouted back Moses. "I'se a-runnin' from!"

Constipation. When constive or troubled with constipation take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

Many a spinster is sorry she learned to say "no."

Do You Find Fault With Everybody?

An irritable, fault-finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently benefited by Chamberlain's Tablets after years of suffering. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Obtainable everywhere.

The man who goes through life on a bluff eventually walks.

TWO GREAT GIFTS.

There are two great gifts that everyone, rich or poor, has the power to give—sympathy and kindness.

Blest be the tongue that speaks no ill,

Whose words are always true, That keeps the law of kindness still

Whatever others do.

Blest be the hands that toil to aid

The great world's ceaseless need The hands that never are afraid To do a kindly deed.

SPEAKER JOINED IN LAUGH.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon Quick to See Humor of Situation in Which He was Central Figure.

WHILE campaigning in Iowa Speaker Cannon was once inveigled into visiting the public schools of a town where he was billed to speak. In one of the lower grades an ambitious teacher called upon a youthful Demosthenes to entertain the distinguished visitor with an exhibition of amateur oratory. The selection was Byron's "Battle of Waterloo," and just as the boy reached the end of the first stanza Speaker Cannon gave vent to a violent sneeze. "But, hush! hark!" declared the youngster, "a deep sound strikes like a rising knell! Did ye not hear it?"

The visitors smiled and a moment later the second sneeze—which the Speaker was vainly trying to hold back—came with increased violence.

"But hark!" bawled the boy, "that heavy sound breaks in once more, and nearer, clearer, deadlier than before. Arm! Arm! It is—it is—the cannon's opening roar!"

This was too much and the laugh that broke from the party swelled to a roar when Uncle Joe chuckled: "Put up your weapons, children; I won't shoot any more."

FOLLY TO NURSE A GROUCH.

Writer Makes Some Remarks that Are Worth a Few Moments of Reflections

WHAT a dissatisfied bunch of mortals we are! Three hundred and sixty-five days of each year we grumble about the weather. It's either too hot or too cold, too wet or too dry. You meet a friend who says, "It's a fine day today!" You answer, "Delightful!" The next one you meet says, "Ain't this beastly weather?" You answer, "The foulest ever!"

You're always ready to agree with and join the kicker. Even the poor innocent weather cannot escape your hammer. Everything in this world was made wrong—except yourself, I mean; you are the quintessence of perfection in your own mind!

When you're invited to a party, you are mad because you are invited, and if you are ignored you are mad again because that condition fits your disposition. Why don't you, for a change, look at the bright side of things and maybe your "disgustion" will improve.—Zim, in Cartoon's Magazine.

TO LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

Washington Park, Ill.—"I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me.
