Bilious Attacks.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach, and you will be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter.
Obtainable everywhere.

CLEAN COMMUNITIES HEALTHY

Filth in itself cannot generate disease, but in the long run, barring unusual exceptions, low death rates and long life always come with records of clean communities.

The "Clean Up and Paint Up" campaign is, after all, a housekeeping job, and for that reason every housekeeper should co-operate with the town officials in making the town spotless. Nothing pleases one more than to have a visitor say what a beautiful town you live in. Why not make your town the cleanest in America? It's easily done. Have harmony reign and all work together and you will be surprised at the result. Now, let us all pull together for a spotless town!

Restored to Good Health

I was sick for 3 years with stomach trouble, writes Mrs. Otto Gans, Zanesville, Ohio. "I lost weight and felt so weak that I almost gave up hope of being cured. A friend told me about Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using two bottles of them I have been a well woman."
Obtainable everywhere.

WHAT PAINT WILL DO.

Ask any real estate man what percentage of value is added to a house by a fresh coat of paint and you will be surprised at the size of the figure he will give you. Too many householders have the habit of putting off painting until a house fairly screams for it.
Good paint applied at regular intervals, not too far apart, is the true economy in that it not only actually raises the value of the house by improved appearance, but through preservative ingredients prevents rot and decay. The man who lets his house become an eyesore in an otherwise well kept locality should be taxed for the heavy damage he is doing to that community, says the Real Estate Journal.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

This is a remedy that every family should be provided with, and especially during the summer months. Think of the pain and suffering that must be endured when medicine must be sent for or before relief can be obtained. This remedy is thoroughly reliable. Ask any one who has used it.
Obtainable everywhere.

NO HOPE.

"What's that thing, doc?"
"That's a medicine ball I bought you."
"Then I'm afraid there is no hope for me."
"Why not?"
"I never can swallow that."

QUESTIONS.

- Can you put the spider's web back in its place, that once has been swept away?
- Can you put the apple again on the bough, which fell at your feet today?
- Can you put the hly cup back on the stem, and cause it to live and grow?
- Can you mend the butterfly's broken wing, that you crushed with a hasty blow?
- Can you put the bloom again on the grape, or the grape again on the vine?
- Can you put the dewdrop back on the flowers, and make them sparkle and shine?
- Can you put the petals back on the rose; if you could, would they smell as sweet?
- Can you put the flour again in the husk, and show me the ripened wheat?
- Can you put the kernel back in the nut, or the broken egg in its shell?
- Can you put the honey back in the comb, and cover with wax each cell?
- Can you put the perfume in the vase when once it has sped away?
- Can you put the corn-silk back on the corn, or the down on the carkins—say?
- You think that my questions are trifling, dear? Let me ask you another one:
Can a hasty word ever be unsaid, or a deed unkind, undone?

"PROCRASTINATION."

BY JAMES B. TILGHMAN.

A retrospective view of life.
With those advanced in years,
Might oft awake the dormant soul
Now filled with doubts and fears.
As "foot prints on the sands of time"
Reveal the steps we make,
A backward glance might change our course
Avoid some sad mistake.
Life with its undying soul
In the hands of man to keep,
Too precious to be trifled with,
Its loss makes angels weep.
When God to every man bequeaths
His share of brain and mind,
He's free to choose his course in life,
Eternal freedom find.
From nature's lessons, we sometimes gleam
Most beautiful truths sublime,
We often see the sturdy oak
Support the frailest vine.
This striking truth by nature taught,
So deeply impresses the mind,
While we like "branches" cling
To Christ, the great strong vine.
How sweet to feel that our footsteps lead
In paths defined and clear,
Where the weary soul finds sweet repose
In a celestial atmosphere.
How blest to step in the tracks He made
While "passing under the rod,"
Those footsteps sained with precious blood,
Leading Heavenward, and to God.

PROFESSIONAL VS. AMATEUR.

Little Nelly told Anita what she termed a "little fib."
Anita—A fib is the same as a story, and a story is the same as a lie.
Nelly—No, it's not.
Anita—Yes, it is, because my father said so, and my father is a professor at the university.
Nelly—I don't care if he is. My father is a real estate man and he knows more about lying than your father.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA
A NORTH CAROLINA ARTIST.

A feature of great interest at the Southern Baptist Convention just closed at Asheville was the unveiling of a life size oil painting of Dr. R. J. Willingham, for 21 years secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of Richmond, Va. Dr. W. W. Landrum, of Louisville, Ky., made the address. The portrait, which was made by Mrs. T. N. Burwell, of Oxford, is pronounced an unusually fine work of art. As the vast audience rose and sang, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," in the presence of this marvellous piece of art, the spirit of the great mission secretary seemed to brood over the meeting and the effect was magical.

Mrs. Burwell, nee Miss Mary Travis, of Halifax, has met with acknowledged success with her art, her portraits and paintings adorning the walls of homes and galleries of art, both in North Carolina, Virginia and other States. She has just painted a portrait of Governor Stuart, of Virginia, which equals or even surpasses the portrait of Dr. Willingham.—State Journal.
Mrs. Burwell is a sister of R. S. Travis, of this town, and Chairman E. I. Travis, of the North Carolina Corporation Commission. Her many Weldon friends are pleased to learn of her great success as an artist.
