HOME, SWEET HOME.

A soldier, who has been twice wounded, on the last occasion of injury was in the trenches when suddenly a man by his side was hit in the wrist. Clapping his hand upon the wound, he exclaimed:

"Got it! I've been waiting for this since last August. Then putting his left hand into his pocket, he pulled out a mouth organ and played 'Home, Sweet Home.'"

Who but an English Tommy could or would do that?—London Tid-Bits.

Diarrhea Quickly Cured.

"About two years ago I had a severe attack of diarrhoea which lasted for over a week," writes W. C. Jones, Buford, N. D. "I became so weak that I could not stand upright. A druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose relieved me and within two days I was as well as ever."

Obtainable everywhere.

A woman's idea of an entertaining man is one who says nothing and listens.

A Hacking Cough Weakens The System

Don't suffer with a hacking cough that has weakened your system—get a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, in use over 40 years, and benefitting all who use it, the soothing pine balsam with tar heal the irritated air passages—soothes the raw spots, loosens the mucus and prevents racking the body with coughing. Dr. King's New Discovery induces natural sleep and aids nature to cure you.

Dead men tell no tales, but some of their widows may draw pensions.

Should Sloan's Liniment Go Along?

Of course it should! For after a strenuous day when your muscles have been exercised to the limit an application of Sloan's Liniment will take the soreness and stiffness away and get you in fine shape for a sudden attack of toothache, stiff neck, headache, stings, bites and the many accidents that are incidental to a vacation. "We would as soon leave our baggage as go on a vacation or camp out without Sloan's Liniment." Writes one vacationist: "We use it for everything from cramps to toothache." Put a bottle in your bag, be prepared and have no regrets.

THE ISLE OF THE LONG AGO.

There's a beautiful isle in the Long Ago,
All flooded with golden light;
And a river that glides by the magic shore,
Whose waters are wondrous bright;
And a bark that moves with snowy sails,
And music of silver oar,
That carries us back to the shining gates
Of the beautiful Past once more!
And every heart holds some sweet dream
Of a beautiful Long Ago!

There were bright hopes nursed in that Long Ago;
Fair flowers have perished there;
And the walls of the beautiful Past is hung
With pictures bright and fair;
And oh! there is room for our feet to tread
The path of these by-gone years!
There are joys that bloom in Memory's field,
And a fount for our bitter tears,
And that fount is filled with hallowed tears
We weep in that Long Ago!

There are happy dreams the heart holds dear—
Sweet dreams of Long Ago!
And sacred tears for the perished joys
That will return no more;
And thus in the tangled web of life
We weave our smiles and tears,
And cling to the holy memories
That hang round departed years!
Ah! drop the silken curtain now
Of the beautiful Long Ago!

Shut out the light of those vanished years,
Close the door of the Past again,
And hush the yearning thoughts that rise
To give the bosom pain;
Ah! roll the heavy stone against
That sepulchre—the Heart!
Why should these buried forms again
To life and beauty start?
The Future may hold some dream as bright
As those of Long Ago!

THE TRUDGE-AWAY LAD.

So weary, so weary of running,
So weary of romping and play,
The Trudge-Away Lad to his mother
Comes home through the brink of the day,
The Trudge-Away Lad from his roaming
Through Trudge-Away meadow's alarms.
By portals of love to discover
A haven in mother's dear arms.

And wonder'ly sweet is his story
Of Trudge-Away meadows so grand,
Where tower the castles of Fancy,
And wonderful batlements stand,
And patient the mother who listens
While little boy Trudge-Away tells
Of perilous dangers attending
The voyager through Trudge-Away dells.

Then lullabies sound in the evening,
Forgotten are perils I know,
And launched are the Slumberland vessels
That glide where the dream rivers flow;
Where islands are fruited with kisses,
Oh, wonderful heart of a mother,
Oh, wonderful Trudge-Away Boy!

GREAT MEDICINE.

There recently entered the office of a Denver physician a young man, making this announcement: "I want to thank you for your valuable medicine, doctor."

"It helped you, did it?" asked the physician, much pleased.

"It helped me wonderfully."

"How many bottles did you find it necessary to take?"

"To tell the truth, doctor, I didn't take any. My uncle took one bottle and I am his sole heir."

MORE TROUBLE.

The distracted young man paced wildly across the floor.

"Miss Merrill, that beautiful lady that I was engaged to has asked me to have her letters returned," he said.

"Oh, well, cheer up, don't take it so hard," his friend said. "I suppose you have sent them?"

"Ah, no, that is the trouble," said the wild-eyed man. "I made a mistake and sent the letters from another girl."

THERE is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure.
