JUSTIFIABLE ASSAULT.

My colored boy, Sam, was arrested for striking another darky and the court asked him if he was guilty or not guilty. Sam replied: "Well, your honor, I hit him, but I would like to tell the court how it happened."

"Go ahead," said the court.

"Judge, did you ever play seven-up?"

"Never mind, sir," said the judge. "Just tell how it was."

"Well, it were this way: Me and him was playing a game of seven-up for a quarter a game. He won all my money but one quarter. It were my deal. He begged. I were six and he were two. I had the tray and ten and jack of spades, which were trumps. I gave him one and that made him three. Then he flung his ace and I put my tray on it. Then he flung his king and I put my ten on it. Then he flung his queen and I had to put my jack on it and then he flung his deuce and I hit him. "You are discharged," said the judge.—Private John Allen.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation.

Those who are afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation should read the following: "I have never found anything so good for stomach trouble as Chamberlain's Tablets. I have used them off and on now for the past two years. They not only regulate the action of the bowels but stimulate the liver and keep one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.

CASTORIA

NOTHING IN LIFE.

Nothing in life? Ah, say not so!

On a thousand hills there are dreams aglow
In a thousand valleys the gold-mist lies
'Neath the ambient gleam of the autumn skies.
In a million cities the thunder beats
Of life in the thronged and throbbing streets.
There are homes to build and hearts to cheer,
And a joy where the sweetheart lips lean near!

Nothing in life? It's running over
With hills of blossom and dales of clover,
With simple duties and noble toil
Where the plowshares loosen the fallow soil,
And over us always the sweet blue sky,
With little gray songsters of God's April wing
Where the world turns back to an April thing!

Nothing in life? It is full and fine
For the hearts that trust and the eyes that shine
With hope and courage and forthright zeal
In the comrade spirit that all should feel,
It is bright and bounding and brimmed with chance
For honest effort—with song and dance,
And rosy faces and lips of gleam,
And the frugal board, and the sweetheart dream!

Nothing in life? Oh, trust its care!
The sun is shining for all somewhere,
The clouds will lift and the shadows flee
And the green world ring with the song-bird's glee!
Go on with courage; the clouds will clear,
The green hills glow and the blooms bend near,
A thousand valleys are fair and sweet
For one dull loom in a city street.

IN THE SWEAT OF THE BROW.

If fo'ks what's alers lopin' 'roun'
A s'archin' fer enjoyment
Would gi' ter tillin' o' de groun',
Er uther good employment,
De worl' would loose his misery
An' flourish like de green bay tree.

De orphan chil' would have a home
Wid lots o' bread and meat,
De vicious thug would cease ter roam
De night on padded feet,
De jail would house de bat an' owl
De dawg he'd soon fergit ter growl.

De chick'en sleepin' on de fence
Would have no cause fer fear,
He'd find de chick'en joys immense
No Nigger 'rowlin' near,
Ter course 'em by dat midnight call
No odds how shrill he'd squak er bawl.

De constable he'd fade f'om sight,
Likewise de magistrate
Would cease ter be a shinin' light,
Wid none ter emulate
His wisdom ner his dignity
Ner honor his enormity.

De agent stoppin' 'fo' yer do'
Ter sell de magic pill,
Would ax you fer de grubbin' hoe
An' use hit wid a will,
Doc' Vin he'd give you hones' truck
Soon as yer sytem failed ter wuck.

AN EDITOR TELLS THE TRUTH.

A Texas Editor Got Tired of Being Called a Liar.

A West Texas editor got tired of being called a "liar" because of an occasional typographical error or slight disarrangement of the facts in publishing a commonplace news item. In his wrath, he announced in bold-face black type as follows:

"A lot of people in this town fall out with the editor and brand him as a liar when the ordinary human mistakes of life show up in a newspaper. You have a little charity and fellow feeling for every man in town but your editor. You claim that you want the facts, and d—d if I don't give 'em to you. Read the next issue of this sheet and you'll see some facts with the bark off. I'll admit that I have been a liar, an editorial liar, ever since I have been editing this sheet, but I have never printed a lie in these columns except to save somebody's feelings from being hurt. I'm not afraid of any of you and I'll be d—d if I don't print the plain truth from now on, or until you get out of the habit of calling me a liar every time I make some little unavoidable typographical error. Watch my smoke!"

Here are some paragraphs, culled from the next issue:

Jon Bennin, the laziest merchant in town, made a trip to Belleville yesterday.

John Coyle, our groceryman, who voted with the Republicans in 1896, and consumes more mail-order whiskey than any other member of the Baptist church in this country, is doing a poor business. His store is dirty and dusty. It is a wonder he has any business at all.

Rev. Stry preached last Sunday night at the Christian church. His sermon was punk and uninteresting, except some stuff he quoted from Bob Ingersoll, for which he failed to give Bob any credit. He also recited a few passages from one of William Eberly Munsey's sermons and had the gall to palm it off as his own.

Dave Charter died at his home two miles north of this place, last Thursday night. Dock Holderness, who is an old friend of the family, attended him a few minutes before he expired. He gave it out that Dave died of heart failure. That is a lie. Dave died from drinking too much of a very poor grade of mail order licker. This paper prints the truth.

Tom Spradlin married Miss Cordie Meador last trades' at the county seat. It ain't generally known, but the marriage was brought about mainly by a Remington shotgun manipulated by the bride's father, Tom Concludin' that marryin' was the healthiest thing he could do until other arrangements could be made.

Roger Lloyd, the cashier of the State bank at Willow Grove, died Wednesday evening and was buried Friday by the Odd Fellows in Pleasant Mound cemetery. He has been taking this paper seven years and so far hasn't paid us a cent; we thinking that he being a banker, would pay some time. We will sell the account for two bits' worth of fresh greens.

Married: Miss Susie Scruggs and Horace Guffin, last Saturday, at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. James C. Williams officiating. The bride is a very ordinary town girl who flirts with all the traveling men she meets and never helped her mother three days all put together in her whole life. She is anything but a beauty, resembling a gravel pit in the face, and walks like a duck. The groom is a natural-born loafer and bum.

He never did a lick of work until his stepdaddy run him off from home last fall. He went to the county seat, and just before starting to get a job as a chamber maid in a livery stable. As soon as his ma found out where he was, she went and got him and brought him home. He now resides at the home of his wife's father and says that he has no definite plans for the future. Susie will have a hard row to hoe.

Chamberlain's Tablets.

Chamberlain's Tablets are intended especially for stomach troubles, biliousness and constipation, and have met with most successful results in the treatment of these diseases. People who have suffered for years with stomach trouble and have been unable to obtain any permanent relief, have been completely cured by the use of these tablets. Chamberlain's Tablets are also of great value for biliousness. Chronic constipation may be permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and observing the plain printed directions with each bottle.

KITCHEN-DIPLOMACY.

Mr. Exe—"Did you tell the cook that the beefsteak was burned?"
Mrs. Exe—"Mercy, no! She would leave instantly. I told her it was just right, but that we preferred it a trifle underdone."—Boston Transcript.

How To Prevent Croup.

In a child that is subject to attacks of croup, the first indication of the disease is hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off and all danger and anxiety avoided.

THE RESTAURANT HABIT.

Wife—"But why have you put your friend's things in the dining room?"
Hub—"Oh, he's used to restaurants. He won't enjoy his dinner unless he can watch his hat and coat."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This is not only one of the best and most efficient medicines for coughs, colds and croup, but is also pleasant and safe to take, which is important when medicine must be given to children. Many mothers have given it their unqualified endorsement.

One of the things that don't come to the ballheaded who wags is hair.

Many a girl marries the wrong man because the right one failed to ask her.

TAKE

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

You can rely on Cardui. Surely it will do for you what it has done for so many thousands of other women! It should help. "I was taken sick, seemed to be . . ." writes Mrs. Mary E. Vest, of Madison Heights, Va. "I got down so weak, could hardly walk. . . just staggered around. . . I read of Cardui, and after taking one bottle, I felt much better. I took 3 or 4 bottles at that time, and was able to do my work. I take it the spring when run-down. I had no appetite, and I commenced eating. It is the best tonic I ever saw." Try Cardui.

Pale Faced Women Take Phosphates to Make Rosy Cheeks and Beautiful Form.

Men Need Phosphates to Make Strong, Healthy, Vigorous Bodies.

Athletes increase their strength, energy and endurance 200% or more by simply taking a few week's treatment of Argo-Phosphate

Atlanta, Ga. Dr. F. J. Johnson says that Phosphates are just as essential to any man or woman who tries easily, is nervous, or irritable, runs out of looks, lags and pale to make a strong, robust, vigorous healthy body, as they are to a child to make it grow. The lack of Phosphate is the cause of all nervous conditions and the administration of a grain Argo-Phosphate tablets will in a few days straighten out and restore to weak, nervous men and women 200 per cent. in two or three weeks time in many instances, and their continued use will build up the whole nervous system, and give new life, vim, vigor, and vitality to the whole body. I always prescribe Argo-Phosphate to patients who are pale and out of it, and it is surprising to see how quickly a few weeks treatment will transform a pale face to a rosy-cheeked beauty. There can be no rosy-cheeked, healthy, beautiful women without their system is sufficiently supplied with Phosphates. In recent interviews with physicians on the grave and serious consequences of a deficiency of Phosphates in the blood of American men and women, I have strongly emphasized the fact that doctors should prescribe more phosphates in the form of Argo-Phosphate for weak, worn-out, haggard-looking men and women. When the skin is pale, and the flesh flabby, it is a sign of anemia. When the phosphates go from the blood, the pink cheeks go, too. The muscles lack tone. They become nervous, irritable, independent, incoherently, the brain fails, and the memory fails. Therefore if you wish to preserve your health and pale to make a strong, robust, vigorous healthy body, you must supply the deficiency of Phosphates in your food by using Argo-Phosphate, the form of Phosphates most easily assimilated.

NOTICE

Argo-Phosphate which is recommended and prescribed by physicians in all minor cases, is not a secret or patent medicine, but one that is sold and recommended by well known druggists everywhere, and physicians are daily prescribing the constituents contained in it. Being entirely unlike many other Phosphates, it is easily assimilated and will be found effective in the treatment of indigestion and stomach troubles, as well as for nervous conditions. The manufacturers of Argo-Phosphate will forfeit to any charitable institution $200.00 if they cannot treat any man or woman under 65 who lacks Phosphates and increase the strength and endurance from the per cent. to 200 per cent. in one month's time, if they are free from organic trouble. It is dispensed by the W. M. Cohen Drug Company.
