

SUFFERING FROM COLD
If you shiver in frosty weather, if you have cold hands and feet, if colds are stubborn and frequent, then your blood may be thin and impoverished.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

has been correcting this condition for nearly fifty years. It possesses rare powers for creating natural body warmth for chilling summer blood with winter richness and strengthening both throat and lungs.

WELDON 33 YEARS AGO.

Senator Mullen was at home this week on leave of absence from the Legislature.

Misses Temple Hamilton, of Baltimore, and Pamie Gee, of Raleigh, are visiting friends in town.

Representative John E. Woodard, of Wilson, was in town Saturday. Mr. Woodard is a young man of talent and will make a good member.

Mr. H. M. Robinson has been appointed road master of the Richmond and Petersburg, Petersburg and Weldon and Wilmington and Weldon Road as far as Tar River bridge.

DIED.—At his residence, Heathville, on Monday last, after a protracted illness, G. V. Hardee, an advanced year. Mr. Hardee was a good citizen and a charitable neighbor. He will be sadly missed in the community in which he lived.

NO FENCE LAW.—We learn that a petition is being circulated and largely signed in Halifax township praying the Legislature to pass a no fence law for that township.

BURNED BY KILNSTONE.—Jennie Branchcombe, colored, who cooks to Mr. J. I. Evans, in making coffee Saturday morning poured a few drops of oil on the fire and the fire near the kiln. After a few minutes the kiln exploded and set fire to her clothing, burning her severely before it could be extinguished. Nearly all the surface of her body was burned and she is not expected to live.

RESOLUTIONS.
Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to remove from our midst our dear sister and co-laborer, Mrs. J. L. Williams, therefore be it resolved:

1. That in her death the W. C. T. U. of Weldon has lost a loyal faithful member, one who was always clear in her conceptions of right and wrong, and ever fearless in the support of her convictions.
2. That we will ever cherish the memory of our true friend, who for several years was weak in body, but strong in faith, yet her interest in the cause of temperance never waned, which was a constant inspiration to us to help carry forward the work she so much loved.
3. That we extend to the sorrowing ones our heartfelt sympathy in this time of sore affliction, realizing that "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth, for they shall not suffer pain, but they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

4. That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, a copy to the ROANOKE NEWS, and to the White Ribbon for publication.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness during our recent bereavement.

THE EFFECT WAS MAGICAL.
Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy The Best Blood Medicine.

Person Remedy Co., Charlotte, N. C.
I feel it the duty I owe to you all to express to you my appreciation of the good your Remedy has done for me and my family. My child was fearfully afflicted with what we concluded was Blood Poison. As a last resort one of my neighbors suggested that we try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. We sent in the drug store for a bottle of it and the effect was magical. One bottle of the Remedy and three of the Wash cured the child, and I have no hesitancy in saying that we consider Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy the best blood medicine on the market.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. EVA DAVIS.
Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has called into the peaceful rest of Paradise to await the morning of the Resurrection the soul of our sister, Eva Davis, and Whereas, Her example while living was worthy of emulation, and an inspiration to those who knew her, and Whereas, She rendered valuable services to the Parish during a period of many years, therefore, be it resolved, by the Woman's Auxiliary of Grace Church:

1st. That we bow in humble submission to the Will of Him who knoweth best and doeth all things well.
2nd. That we give thanks to Him for the noble example of His servant, who, in her daily life, was a consistent Christian. Her devotion to the Master, through His Church, was beautiful and furnished an example which was inspiring. Both Rector and congregation received inspiration to see her always in her accustomed place at church, and the practical service which she rendered to the Parish is incalculable. Faithful unto death she can claim her reward.

3rd. That as we moved amongst us in daily life and in our meetings, she had a kind word, a willing service, and an appreciation of her friend which endeared her to us. We miss her, and her place shall be hard to fill. Though departed this life she still lives, and in the Communion of Saints we are not far apart.

4th. That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our branch of the Woman's Auxiliary; a copy sent to the Carolina Churchman; a copy to the ROANOKE NEWS, and a copy sent to her relatives.

BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.
Pearson Remedy Company, Burlington, N. C.
Dear Sirs:—For years I have been suffering with a stomach trouble and have had doctors tending on me and have tried every kind of medicine that has been recommended to me and some one told me about the Genuine Indian Blood Purifier and I began using it and now I can say that it has put me in the best health and I can truthfully say that it is the best medicine in the world for me.

JUDGE BROWN'S 80TH BIRTHDAY.

Friends of Judge R. W. Brown, both in this community and the county at large will be interested to know that he will on next Monday, January 14, celebrate his eightieth birthday.

Mr. Brown was born on January 14, 1838, in Greenville county, Virginia, being eight years old at the outbreak of the Mexican war, a few of the details of which he can remember.

He was twenty-two years old when the Civil War began and he fought through the war in the Third Virginia Cavalry, being twice wounded. He moved to Halifax county in 1868 and has been prominent in county affairs ever since.

Mr. Brown moved to Roanoke Rapids in 1894 and so far as is known he is the oldest resident of the community. He has held office connected with the town ever since he came here until he resigned as Registrar a few months ago.

In 1859 he married Miss Posey, of Dinwiddie county, Virginia. She died in 1866. In 1873 Mr. Brown married a sister of Captain Mosely, Mrs. Simmons, who died in 1876. His last marriage was to Mrs. Brickell, in 1878. She died in 1915. Mr. Brown has two children, eleven grand children, and nine great grandchildren.

In spite of his advanced years he enjoys good health, both mind and body have weathered remarkably the storms and vicissitudes of a long and active life, and his friends expect him to celebrate his ninetieth birthday with constitution and vigor unimpaired.—Roanoke Rapids Herald.

SOLDIER AND SAILOR INSURANCE.

To the man who has gone to the colors the United States Government offers the safest, the most liberal, and the cheapest insurance on the face of the earth. Approximately 300,000 men have accepted the Government's offer, applying for insurance of about two and three-quarter billions of dollars. The average amount applied for per man is more than $8,600, which is very close to the $10,000 maximum provided for by the law.

This insurance, great as it is, should be only a beginning. Every person in the military and naval forces of the Nation owes to himself and to those he loves to avail himself of the full insurance protection. But the time in which he can do so is limited. Prompt action is imperative.

Those who joined the service before October 15, 1917, must apply for the insurance on or before February 12, 1918. After that, it will be too late. The automatic insurance which is provided until February 12, 1918, is only partial protection.

Parents, brothers and sisters, who have a representative of their family in the Army and Navy should, for their own sake, for his, write to him at once urging him, if he has not already done so, to buy the Government insurance. They should urge him to buy the full $10,000, and, above all, to buy it now.
