Who is the Man?

The man who will want to hang himself after the war will belong to one of three classes, traitor slacker, profiteer—three words of the most ignoralized as love of right in this commissions meaning in the English language today.

If his crime be that of a traitor it does not necessarily mean that he movement of troops, or gave out other information that aided the enamy Out the other hand, it may mean, and most likely does mean, that he was man where fortime it was to remain at home, but whe refused to support his Government by complying with its program, prolonged the war and copy the lives of thousands of American socializes or he efficienced the Government which may rice to enamy propagands and furthered its spread so as the lives of thousands of American socializes or he efficienced the Government which may rice to enamy propagands and furthered its spread so as the lives of thousands of American means which may rice to enamy propagands and furthered its spread so as the formal arms.

WHO WILL WISH TO HANG

"OVER THERE."

BY ABBIE FAREWELL BROWN, OF THE VIGILANTES.

What are you about, while they are over there fighting for Enjoying yourself? Earning your living studgily—"business is usual?" Making capital as fast as possible out of the safety and was troubled for two buying with their blood? Taking advantage of the crisis which they meet with their young lives, to demand higher vages, shorter hours, luxuries, privileges which they have recounced in order to fight for you.

That's not patriotism! That's not even fair! That's hoggishness!

In these big days, when one has got to live big, I know which s the smallest, no account trash-you selfish woman, thinking only of amusement; you selfish capitalist, thinking only of a ousiness chance; you selfish laborer, thinking only of the opportunity to squeeze your employer. You are all squeezing our country. You are all traitors to our boys over there! You are all side-stepping your duty. You are punk citizens! If the workers who pioneered this country had been like you there never would have been any foundation solid as Plymuth Rock to build on. If the men and women of '76 had been like you, it's a weak onstitution we'd have inherited; far gone in consumption!

If the Unionists of '60 had been slack-kneed like you, where could liberty be now? Knocked higher than a kite! We'd be Il ready to kow-tow to the Prussian helmets. It won't do! You've got to stand stockily behind the boys ver there, with every muscle, every enthusiasm, every thought on've got. You've got to make sacrifices, and concessions and give up comforts and prejudices and present hopes. If you ton't, this great national idea of ours may weaken; the army may be handicapped; the allies may be beaten; and we ourselve may be enslayed That is about the size of it. It is not exaggeration, believe

Who cares? Then show it by your actions. Be big and generous and patriotic, whether you are employed
