BE A MODEL FOR YOUR SON.

I'm Going to Be Just What My Daddy Is.

A father of a young son is in a very responsible position and many such persons find that with the addition of a son to his family he needs must change his habits. Such an one I recently met, once he was an inveterate smoker and occasionally an oath came out even when things were going fairly well. I found him at this time entirely changed, smoking and swearing entirely gone and a demeanor of most refined elegance in place of the old manner. I remarked on the change and was told the following story:

"Well, you remember how much a cigar meant to me, and how I could not express myself forcibly without a good 'damn,' it just seemed necessary to me and I could not break myself of the smoking habit. One day I came upon my young son. I stood where he could not see me and watched him. He had a make-believe cigar in his mouth and removed it frequently to expectorate. His hat tilted on his head, he was carrying on an animated soliloquy in which was frequently such words 'hell' and 'damn' and it did not take me more than half a minute to decide he was imitating me and I'll tell you I surely got a jolt. I sneaked away and that night I talked to him. 'Son, when you get grown what are you going to do? What are you going to be?' 'I'm going to be just what my daddy is. I'm going to be as like him as I can,' and so I decided I had to make myself as worthy of imitation as possible. Breaking myself of smoking was harder than I'd like to confess to that five-year-old chap and that was easier than remembering not to curse, but I've done those and many other things too, and yet I find it a pretty strenuous thing to be a model for your own son."

NOT UNUSUAL.

Miss Sweetgirl was engaged to the curate, and took it upon herself to look after him, as all nice women will.

He was going off to officiate at a funeral, and she stood at the garden gate, seeing him off. "Take care of yourself, dear," said she.

"Yes, yes—I will," said the curate.

"Do," said the girl, still anxious. "And remember: Don't stand with your bare head on the damp ground."

If you have a horseshoe over the door and it doesn't fall on your head, you are lucky.

THAT CHANCE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Mrs. Godden Tells How It
May be Passed in Safety and Comfort.

Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, and it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared."—Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Such annoying symptoms as heat flashes, nervousness, headache, irritability and "the blues," may be speedily overcome and the system restored to normal conditions by this famous root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complications present themselves write the Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions how to overcome them. The result of forty years experience is at your service and your letter held in strict confidence.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard

THEFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

"THY WILL BE DONE."

If all fair lands would utterance give
To thoughts engendered by a theme so grave,
No need that human mind devise
Plans that all future strife would save.
The "conference" now on foreign shores
To promulgate a lasting peace,
Is all in vain, unless our Lord
Says "Peace be still!" Wars shall cease!

Troubles heap themselves upon a world
When it ignores the All-wise God,
"History but repeats itself."
When we walk in ways our fathers trod,
We need to revolutionize a world
Not by sword, or gun, or human blood,
But by a "tidal wave" of righteousness
With which we would the whole world flood.

If nations which have felt God's hand
In recent horrors to the bitter core,
Would place their all at Jesus' feet
Such troubles would be felt no more.
God cannot, will not, never bow
To waywardness in any form,
And "would be" conceited conquerors,
Have always, down, before Him gone.

No usurper, with an evil heart
Might e'er expect a world to fall,
No one man power can e'er prevail
"Tis God alone, who can rule us all.
Thus in the bitter strife that swayed
A world in grief when millions fell,
The German king "reckoned without his host"
And for a scanty morsel (perhaps his soul did sell.)

No need to say, what duty is,
'Tis plainly seen from shore to shore,
Our own fair land is in the fight
We'll win for Christ forevermore.
Oh, make us humble, make us wise!
And grant oh God when victory's won
We may with loud acclaim, praise Him
Who answered to "Thy Will Be Done."

PUT "BAD LUCK" IN DISCARD.

When the Game of Life is Analyzed,
There is No Such Thing
To Be Found.

There is no such thing as "bad luck." The belief in it is a gross superstition. It is claimed there is a lot of luck in poker. My observation has been that the man who wins at poker consistently is merely the best player of poker. There are some who have a "run of luck." But if the "run" lasts three minutes the opposite "run" generally lasts equally as long. If the good luck holds up for a year, the bad luck appears during the next year. Any habitual card player, unless he is a very poor player or an unusually good one, will tell you that his winnings and losses just about counterbalance.

In poker, as in life, the final determining factor is skill, knowledge of the game, patience, taking advantage of opportunities. If you have a pronouncement that you are promising yourself disaster in advance, you are merely saying to yourself: "I'll fall down on it sure." Dismiss the pronouncement. Throw away the "charms" and talismans. Get on the job.—James Hay, Jr., in McClure's Magazine.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure.

ON A CHILLY MORNING.

It was on a chilly morning at Camp Grant that one soldier arose to find his outer garments missing. "Have anyone seen my blanket?" he asked in a shivery tone. He was informed they had not. "Anyone seen my t-t-trowsers?" No one had. "Well, anyway, I g-g-got a n-nice warm pair of s-s-suspenders," he said.

About Rheumatism.

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that there is a remedy that will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. It is called Chamberlain's Liniment.

FALSE ECONOMY.

"A long walk will give you a fine appetite."
"That's the reason I'm sitting still," replied Mr. Growcher. "I can't afford a fine appetite."

Cause of Headache.

By knowing the cause, a disease may often be avoided. This is particularly true of headache. The most common cause of headache is a disordered stomach, or constipation, which may be corrected by taking a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets. Try it. Many others have obtained permanent relief by taking these tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.

A faultless complexion is a thing of beauty, but it may not remain a joy forever.

Do You Enjoy Life?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.

During the courtship it is a case of suspense with the girl, and a case of expense with the youth.

THE TREE—I think that I shall never see a poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest against the earth's sweet flowing breast.

A tree that looks at God all day and lifts her leafy arms to pray,

A tree that may in summer wear a nest of robins in her hair.

Upon whose bosom snow has lain, who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me, but only God can make a tree.

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver and you lose a day's work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.
