PALMER'S FITNESS FOR PRESIDENCY

No Candidate for America's Highest Office Ever Had a Finer Set of Moral and Political Ideals.

(William T. Ellis in Eastern Weekly)

Various men have more or less fittingly shied their hats into the Presidential ring. A Mitchell Palmer, but less and less, is in the ring himself. A hoary American story narrates the visit of a horseman to a stock farm, where he was shown records of the paddock with famous victories and records of infinite promise. At length the visitor exclaimed, "I've seen plenty of 'has-beens' and a lot of 'may-bes,' but I would like most of all to see an 'is-er.'"

Palmer is a personality in the present tense. He is first in the public eye because he is at the moment first in the service of the government. That is what I mean by saying that he is in the ring himself. As America's champion knight errant against the four dragons—the "Reds," the food profiteers, the industrial malefactors and the prohibition violators—the Attorney General is at the moment the busiest man in the public hall to be found in America. He is our prize "is-er."

No candidate for America's highest office ever had a finer set of political and moral ideals, consistently held and practiced, than the young friend with the story book rise by self-help from the lot of a country lad to a position of national eminence; nevertheless, it is as a doer rather than as a dreamer and a talker that Palmer is known. He has the characteristic American quality of ability to "make good" at his present post, whatever that may be.

As a congressman his efficiency made him the key man on the Ways and Means Committee. The same trait had put him at the head of the cleaned political organization of the Democratic Party in Pennsylvania—after one Bellevue Wood of a fight. President Wilson, who distributes offices after an inscrutable fashion of his own, having in 1912 offered this Quaker the incongruous post of Secretary of War in his Cabinet, thus showing his estimate of Palmer's first class qualifications.

What thereafter happened the whole world knows. Palmer's name became a word of execration in Germany and a word of admiration in America and the allied nations. He took eight hundred million dollars of German money away from our enemies—revealing incidentally the relation of German business to espionage and propaganda—and turned it into Uncle Sam's war chest. The country learned that this placid member of the Society of Friends was about the fightingest Yankee of us all. What a crop of bitter enemies he raised up for himself during the war, ranging in location from the smallest German beer garden to the stately halls of the United States senate, is in part known to the public.

This fine disregard for foes is a quality which the presidency ever needs. Palmer would not truckle to the Irish vote or the German vote or the British vote or the negro vote or the labor vote or the business vote; as President he would contend so vigorously for the American Constitution and the rights of the whole American people that the nation would rediscover its historic self.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

The great benefit derived from the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been gratefully acknowledged by many. Mr. Benjamin F. Blakeney, Decatur, Ill., writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is by far the best medicine for coughs and colds we have ever used in our family. I gave it to my children when small for croup and have taken it myself."

How Diphtherated Coneria is c.

One often hears the expression, "My child caught a severe cold which developed into diphtheria," when the truth was that the cold had left the little one particularly susceptible to the wandering diphtheria germ. If your child has a cold when diphtheria is prevalent you should take him out of school and keep him off the street until fully recovered, as there is a hundred times more danger of his taking diphtheria when he has a cold. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given it quickly cures the cold and lessens the danger of diphtheria or any other germ disease from being contracted.

THE Antisold League said its aim was to get whiskey out of politics, but it didn't explain that it intended to take whisky's place.

Are You Happy?

To be happy you must be well. If you are frequently troubled with constipation and indigestion you cannot be altogether happy. Take Chamberlain's Tablets to correct these disorders. They are prompt and effective, easy and pleasant to take.

LIVER DIDN'T ACT DIGESTION WAS BAD

Says 65 year Old Kentucky Lady, Who Tells How She Was Relieved After a Few Doses of Black-Draught.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Cynthia Higginbotham, of this town, says: "At my age, which is 65, the liver does not act so well as when young. A few years ago, my stomach was all out of fix. I was constipated, my liver didn't act. My digestion was bad, and it took so little to upset me. My appetite was gone. I was very weak. I decided I would give Black-Draught a thorough trial as I knew it was highly recommended for this trouble. I began taking it. I felt better after a few doses. My appetite improved and I became stronger. My bowels acted naturally and the least trouble was soon lighted with a few doses of Black-Draught."

Seventy years of successful use has made Theford's Black-Draught a standard, household remedy. Every member of every family, at times, need the help that Black-Draught can give in cleansing the system and relieving the troubles that come from constipation, indigestion, lazy liver, etc. You cannot keep well unless your stomach, liver and bowels are in good working order. Keep them that way. Try Black-Draught. It acts promptly, gently and in a natural way. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c. a package—One cent a dose. Harris & Ewing. HON. A. MITCHELL PALMER.

WHY M'CORMICK ENDORSES PALMER

Gives to All Forward Looking Democrats a Stimulating Agency for Promoting Their Cause.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Hon. Vance C. McCormick, formerly chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who conducted the campaign of 1916 which resulted in the re-election of President Wilson, has formally endorsed the candidacy of A. Mitchell Palmer, Attorney General of the United States, for the Democratic nomination at the San Francisco convention.

President Wilson recognized Mr. McCormick's political sagacity when he selected him as his campaign manager, and the result fully vindicated his judgment. Mr. McCormick, who knows Attorney General Palmer perhaps better than any one else, is enthusiastic over the announcement of Mr. Palmer's candidacy.

In a statement issued following the filing of the Attorney General's name in the Georgia primaries Mr. McCormick says: "Attorney General Palmer's formal consent to the filing of his candidacy for President in the primaries of Georgia is the welcome sign progressive Democrats in Pennsylvania and elsewhere have been awaiting with lively anticipation. Mr. Palmer's action directly presents to the people of the country his claims for consideration and gives to all forward looking Democrats the agency for promoting their cause."

"Mr. Palmer's political career has been one of liberalism, of progressive principles and actions. While Woodrow Wilson was fighting the hosts of privilege in Jersey as its governor Mitchell Palmer was waging battle with the same forces in Congress. As early as 1910 he had become a national figure through his anti-trust work and gave to all eyes looking for legislative power.

"Retrospection brings to him nothing new by way of advanced principles. Great movements, so near accomplished facts, measures of great human justice, prospered by his championship many years ago.

In those early days he gave national distinction to the Democracy of Pennsylvania by his pioneer efforts to wrest control of the people's liberties from the special privileged few which abused them. This official conduct has been a source of pride and gratification not only to his fellow partisans in his home state of Pennsylvania but to his fellow citizens regardless of party. He was ever the exponent of a forward-looking Democracy. He stands unchanged in that respect today.

"To all similarly minded men within and without his party his announcement should bring and will bring cheer and comfort. To them his candidacy is the opportunity for swinging back of a man who typifies their viewpoint, who has a conspicuous record of national service before, during and since the war, who has ever stood with President Wilson and who stands with him today.

"In his own State and party the Palmer announcement brings a special thrill and satisfaction. His own State and neighbors are proud of him. The severest test of a man is applied by those who know him best. In his homeland he has met that test with gratifying results. He has not been found wanting. True Democrats do and all progressive American citizens can proclaim Palmer as their own."

How Is Your Complexion?

A woman should grow more beautiful as she grows older and she will with due regard to bath, diet and exercises and by keeping her liver and bowels in good working order. If you are haggard and yellow, or have that test with greasy and white, becoming yellowish, your flesh flabby, it may be due to indigestion or to a sluggish liver. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders.

Instead of seeing snakes and other reptiles, the bibulous tramp sees axes and wood saws.

WHOLE SYSTEM RUN-DOWN

Quick Improvement is Noted After a Few Doses of ZIRON Iron Tonic.

Increase in appetite, the coming back of strength, disappearance of headaches and other ills, are a few of the many good results obtained from the use of a new remedy (ZIRON Iron Tonic).

Mr. Sim Grimsley, of Cordale, Ga., tried ZIRON and has this to say: "When I began to take ZIRON, it seemed that my whole system was run-down, but soon after I began to take ZIRON, I could eat more each day and would feel a great deal better. Ever since it seems that my health has been improving, as I seldom have the headache or feel bad the least bit."

ZIRON is a new scientific combination of pure medicinal iron, combined with phosphorus, the active principle of aux vomica and the hypophosphites of lime and soda. It will help to add more red corpuscles to your blood, resulting in more color in your cheeks and vitality in your system.

Salvation Army Seeks Many Recruits

At the corner, under the arc light, some money started. A crowd of passersby collected. It was not the usual charitable jazz; it was a soul-saving hymn.

"Pretty soft," drawled the young man whose shoulders propped up the brick store front of a pool hall. "Some people seem to get by with it, eh? A little singing on a soapbox every night—and call it a day's work. Probably the life of Billy when you've a buck private in the Salvation Army. No K. P. potato peeling. Pretty soft!"

And so Colonel Alexander M. Damon, field secretary of the Salvation Army, was asked about it. He is in charge of recruiting Salvationists at the National Headquarters, No. 122 West Fourteenth street, New York city.

"Say, that's good!" boomed the Colonel. "A soft job in the Salvation Army? I never heard of it. Listen, my friend!"

"In the United States right now the Salvation Army needs 500 men and women. It is the best work I know. The pay is the lowest; the hours, why, there aren't any! A Salvation Army officer is on call night and day. Sick ones in the hospitals, starving kids, beggars, busy poor in winter, bereaved families, convicts and their families, unmarried young women with babies—we aid them all. Strangers and friends, all religions, all races are just human beings to us, you see.

"Do you know the prospective Salvation Army officer works a year without pay? It takes two years of 24-hour-a-day service to God and to man before he, or she, is commissioned a lieutenant. And what do you think the pay is? Exactly $14 a week! Our remuneration comes from serving others. So we are well paid.

"Salvationists must visit the jails and prisons. Penitent families of convicts are helped out. Thousands of missing relations are found and returned to their families every year by the Salvation Army officers."

Then the visitor remembered those two Salvation Army lassies, bustling in the grocery, yellow mud that flanders dugout, baking pipe and serving doughnuts and hot chocolate to some weary, half starved infantrymen. Day after day and nights, too. And during the whole of that maddening August drive those lassies just kept on smiling and handing out food.

"Pretty soft," assuaged the visitor; "pretty soft!"

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury, quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel, just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.
