CHURCHES FIGHT RED MENACE

Score of Large Denominations Allied With Attorney General Palmer in Awakening Nation to Enemy Peril Within.

AMERICANISM GREAT ISSUE.

God-Fearing Voters Covenant to Put at the Head of This Government a Man of Proved Capacity and Firmness Who Will Suppress the Preachers and Practicers of Discord and Violence.

Washington.—The greatest endorsement ever given to the outstanding Americanism of a living official in public life is the forward movement represented by the powerful mass movement of a score of large church denominational organizations which has just been effected in this country to combat the "Red menace."

Twenty-five million persons, representing more than 50 per cent of the membership of all Protestant church organizations in the United States, are now leading their strength to the alliance which will carry on to its logical conclusion the work of Attorney General Mitchell Palmer in awakening the people of the nation to a realization of their peril from the enemy within and protecting the government with a firm hand from those who sought to overthrow it by force and violence.

Americanism and Americanization is to be the watchword of the churches, and the Christian people of the country, who have caught the note from the reville sounded by Mr. Palmer, will see to it that a man alive to the great question and of proved capacity to carry on the great work that is being launched is put at the head of affairs of government in this country.

To these millions of earnest people who see in the safety of the country, home and beside the overshadowing issue of the future, regardless of politics or politicians, there can be no step backward now that the forward movement is on, and the man who appeals to them most strongly as measuring up to the highest standard of American-ism and whose deeds are best proof of his high purpose to bring his whole country to a realization of the loftiest ideals of citizenship will receive their undivided support in primary, election and in the administration of his high office.

Before the great campaign of Americanism to be undertaken by the Protestant church organizations is well under way it would not be surprising to find the percentage in the alliance grow to a round 100 per cent, representing 100 per cent Americanism.

The great hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States is in heart and soul with the movement for Americanization and will lend its full strength to the promotion through the far-reaching channels of the church of the preaching and teaching of staunch Americanism to the many millions of its congregation within the United States.

A pastoral letter, the first issued by the heads of the Catholic Church in the United States in 35 years, has recently gone to all its people, in which the following paragraph is not the least in importance of the declarations of the letter:

"Whatever may be the industrial and social remedies which will approve themselves to the American people, there is one that we feel confident, they will never adopt. That is the method of revolution. For if there is neither justification nor excuse under our form of government. Through the ordinary and orderly processes of education, organization and legislation all social wrongs can be righted. While these processes at times may seem distressing slow, they will achieve more in the final result than violence or revolution. The radicalism and worse than radicalism of the labor movement in some of the countries of Europe has no lesson for the workers of the United States except as an example of methods to be detested and avoided."

Thus the churches and their people in the United States stand united in a determined movement to look to the future security of the government of their country and the peace and happiness of its people. In this, as in many similar movements which have written history, it is more a question of the man than the measure.

The formation of the powerful alliance in the interchurch world movement to campaign against red radicalism with Americanism is but another proof that the American people have made the issue of the day for the government, for the church and for the nation. It is stated that the interchurch world movement is serving as a clearing house for speedy and cooperative action to cope with the evils of radicalism, which have been made public as the result of a nation-wide survey. On their own account the representatives of these 25,000,000 people of the country have found that "Americanism" is the one and great issue now before the people and have called upon the churches to expand from their energy to fund several millions of dollars in immediate effort to raise the standard of Americanism.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

The great benefit derived from the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been gratefully acknowledged by many. Mrs. Benjamin F. Blakeley, Deatur, Ill., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is by far the best medicine for coughs and colds we have ever used in our family. I gave it to my children when small for croup and have taken it myself."

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Roanoke City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl, my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me, but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable. I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot...
I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it...
I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better.

The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."
Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial.

Democratic Delegates.

PRE-CONVENTION ESTIMATES

Believes Hoover is a Negligible Factor Because it is Inconceivable That the Democracy at San Francisco Will Vote for the Cast-off Candidate of the Republican Convention.

Washington.—Figures are beginning to talk in the pre-convention campaign of the candidates for the presidential nomination of both parties, and while their first words carry the waddy of the baby tongue, they appear to the hears of the papa and mamma politicians whose hopes and ambitions are inseparably linked with the words of truth that will drop from the mouth of the prodigy who has never yet been known to lie and whose growth will be to that of a giant's strength by the time the conventions are called to order.

A pencil and a pad of paper in the hands of an astute political observer can work wonders of prognostication and especially if that observer is broad-minded and clear-headed enough to calculate not what he would like to have happen, but what is likely to happen when the count of noses on the floor of the convention is completed.

The head political writer of the Philadelphia Evening Ledger, one of the publications of Cyrus H. K. Curtis and longed with its owner's graveyard campaign for Herbert Hoover, asked for some figures a few days ago from a man whom he describes as "a member of the Democratic organization who should know as much about the prospects as any one does," and he got them. And, to his credit be it said, he published them. This is what he said:

"He figures after a careful study that Attorney General Palmer will lead in the first ballot with 350 votes, Mc-Adoo will be second with 150 votes and Hoover third with 90 votes. For purposes of jockeying until some one answers the great question whether the party can win with either Palmer or McAdoo as a candidate the rest of the votes will be scattered around in a highly complimentary fashion among a lot of men who will feel flattered to have their names 'among the others voted for.'"

Mr. Hoover's recent action in declaring himself to be a Republican and a receptive candidate for the nomination at the hands of the Republican National Convention, of course, eliminates him from consideration at the hands of the Democracy. It is not reasonable to suppose that any Democrat, to do so would be willing to vote for the cast-off candidate of the Republican Convention. It is therefore probable that Mr. Palmer will get his share of the 90 votes which the political expert quoted assigns to Hoover.

The figures given above allot to Palmer not only more votes than any other candidate for the Democratic nomination, but more than any candidate who has been named for the Republican Convention. It is therefore
share of a block of 350 delegates to vote for him on the first ballot in the Chicago convention would consider himself rich indeed in chances for the nomination.

Every day that passes brings new biterness into the Republican pre-convention campaign and opens new wounds that will be difficult in the healing. Branches are being opened in state delegations that defy bridging by the most earnest efforts of accomplished leaders, and not a delegation has been selected to the Chicago convention from what might be termed real fighting ground for the several candidates which is not torn by bitter feuds and hopelessly split upon the candidate to whom it shall throw its support.

How is Your Complexion?

A woman should grow more beautiful as she grows older and she will with due regard to bath, diet and exercises and by keeping her liver and bowels in good working order. If you are laced and yellow, your eyes losing their lustre and whites becoming yellowish, your flesh flabby, it may be due to indigestion or to a sluggish liver. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders.

ONLY ONE STLYE IN THIS MILLINERY SHOP

TRIMMING A BONNET

A TRY-ON IN THE ONE-STYLE BONNET SHOP

There is a millinery shop in New York which guarantees its hats never to go out of style. With every purchase comes the understanding that in five or ten years from now the bonnet bought today will be just as attractive, just as much admired and even more in vogue.

It is the Salvation Army "Millinery Shop," located at 120 West Fourteenth Street, New York city, in which establishment every bonnet which enters the premises houses, rescue homes, orphanages, nurseries or ston settlements first sees the light of day. And the shop does a rushing business. Three hundred bonnets each week are trimmed, boxed, sent out to all parts of the country and started on their mission of spreading cheer and hope to every corner of the United States.

And the Salvation Army is an importer—not the type that stocks the crickest word after its name as a matter of course, but a real one. Every bonnet that graces the head of every Salvation Army lassie came all the way from across the Atlantic for that purpose. The bonnet itself is English, the trimmings are American, and the wearers embrace every nationality in the world.

Many times each week big trucks draw up to the door of the shop and deposit their cargoes of untripped hats. At frequent intervals the piquant bonnets, with their long blue streamers, leave the establishment bound hither and yon to the nation. The familiar blue bonnet-shaped like nothing else under the sun—is a symbol of unselfish service in nurseries, hospitals and tenements the whole world over.

Are You Happy?

To be happy you must be well. If you are frequently troubled with constipation and indigestion you cannot be altogether happy. Take Chamberlain's Tablets to correct these disorders. They are prompt and effectual, easy and pleasant to take.

DISCARDED AS DANGEROUS
Colomel salivates! It's mercury. Colomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When colomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!
If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your drugist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous colomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty colomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.
If you take colomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play.
It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

Mallory Hats
About the first question our salesmen will ask you when you try on one of our new

Is "How does it feel?" In other stores they ask "How does it look?" The difference is that we will first select a hat that will become you, and we know that "Mallory" hats are right, so what we want to know is whether the hat looks on the head. Be sure to have a look at our window display and come in and prove what we say.
