ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
When You Become Discouraged
Just Remember This.

When Abraham Lincoln was a young man he ran for the legislature in Illinois, and was badly swamped. He next entered business, failed, and spent seventeen years of his life paying up the debts of a worthless partner. He was in love with a beautiful young woman to whom he became engaged—then she died. Later he married a woman who was a constant burden to him. Entering politics again, he ran for congress, and again was badly defeated. He then tried to get an appointment to the United States land office, but failed. He became a candidate for the United States senate, and was badly defeated. In 1856 he became a candidate for the vice-presidency and was once more defeated. In 1858 he was defeated by Douglas. One failure after another—bad failures great setbacks. In the face of all this he eventually became one of the greatest men of America, whose memory is honored and loved throughout the world. When you contemplate the effect of a series of setbacks like this, doesn't it make you feel kind of small to become discouraged, just because you think you are having a hard time in life?

PEACE.

BY HENRY W. LONGFELLOW.

Were half the power that fills the world with terror,
Were half the wealth bestowed on camps and courts,
Given to redeem the human mind from error,
There were no need of arsenals or forts.

The warrior's name would be a name abhorred!
And every nation that should lift again
His hand against a brother, on its forehead
Would wear forevermore the curse of Cain!

Down the dark future, through long generations,
The echoing sounds grow fainter and then cease;
And like a bell, with solemn, sweet vibrations,
I hear once more the voice of Christ say, "Peace!"

Peace! and no longer from its brazen portals
The blast of War's great organ shakes the skies!
But beautiful as songs of the immortals,
The holy melodies of love arise.

SUNSET.

Sunset and quiet, and the crimson glow
Of Twilight's halo on the western hill!
Over the fields Dusk walks and cursties low,
And sprinkle incense on the grass; the rills,
In muffled measures, croon a cradle song;
Rocked by the winds, the weary saplings nod;
To the leafy tents the beetles trudge along;
Day-burdened birds fly just above the sod,
Seeking their nests; the drowsy wild beasts yawn;
From downy clouds the stars spring into sight;
Earth seems with Heaven to meet out on the lawn;
And Rest comes tripping to the notes of Night.

Sunset and quiet, and the call of home!
And as the echo sounds throughout the glen
An age-worn heart looks upward from the loam,
And still, undaunted, dares to dream—again!

PRESSING DAD PRETTY CLOSE.

Youth's Last Question Certainly Might Have Been Called Pointed and Personal.

A most promising youth recently sought information from his father touching family affairs:
"Dad," said he, "do you like mother?"
"Way, what a question! Of course I do!"
"And she likes you?"
"I am certain she does."
"Did she ever say so?"
"Thousands of times, my son."
"Did she marry you because she loved you?"
Whereupon dad became angry, and said:
"See here, young man, you're getting entirely too personal. But I don't mind telling you that she did."

SHEER ACCIDENT.

"The bride and groom met by accident."
"Very interesting. How come?"
"She got a speck of dust in her eye and he thought she was winking at him."

ORDERS ARE ORDERS.

On a 1918 troop train these two orders were posted on the wall:
Divisional: No liquor is permitted aboard troop trains.
Regimental: Don't throw bottles out of the windows.

IDEAL.

Mrs. North: "My husband spends all his evenings at the club."
Mrs. West: "What a happy home life you must have!"

Add a tablespoonful of powdered borax to the bath, as it will soften the water and prove very invigorating.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stearns, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her."
"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. . . I can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."
For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.
If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too.
At all druggists.

Dodson's Liver Tone
Instead of Calomel

Calomel is quicksilver. It attacks the bowels and paralyzes the liver. Your dealer sells each bottle of pleasant, harmless "Dodson's Liver Tone" under an ironclad money-back guarantee that it will regulate the liver, stomach and bowels better than calomel, without sickening or salivating you—15 million bottles sold.
