As Dead as the Dodo

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

ALICE JOYCE
Many of the greatest men and women of the stage have had their names associated with one certain play. Alice Joyce seems destined to have the same distinction. The Vitagraph star has had success after success, but, like all other motion picture stars, she has been without a role that stood out separate and distinct from the rest. In "The Venetian of Durand," adapted from Rex Beach's powerful story adapted by Mr. and Mrs. George Handolph Chester, she has the best role in her notable career.

ANTONIO MORENO
Inspired by the advice of an American actress, Antonio Moreno joined a stock company at Northampton, Mass., after completing his course at Williston Seminary. Soon he was engaged by Louis Carter and later appeared with Constance Collier in "Thalia." Then he went into silent drama and played with Edith Storey, Irene Castle and Pearl White. Then Albert E. Smith, president of Vitagraph, placed him under a long-term contract and introduced him to the serial. His fiery black eyes, black hair, complexion of "golden palfrey" and a talent for expression make him the ideal type for the serial.

Women Who Suffer From Backache and Headache
Nashville, Tenn.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best medicine I have ever taken. I suffered for a long time with woman's troubles. I would become so nervous that I would have to give up and lie down. I suffered with backaches and pains in my side. I would have continual spells of sick-headaches. I could not eat or sleep and I got where I was a physical wreck when I saw the Favorite Prescription advertised and decided to give it a trial. It completely cured me of the feminine trouble and restored me to good health."—MRS. ALICE McCLOUD, 1010 10th Ave., N. C.

Notice of Administratrix.
Having qualified as administratrix of the estate of John Perkins, deceased, late of Halifax, N. C., this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned at Brinkleyville, N. C., on or before the 15th day of April, 1921 or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment.

This 15th day of April, 1920.
JULIA ANN PERKINS,
Adm. of estate of John Perkins, dec'd.
J. H. TAYLOR, Attorney.

Popular Leader of Peacetime Army

MISS EVANGELINE C. BOOTH,
Commander of the Salvation Army in the United States.

WITH the $14,000,000 fund generously contributed by the country to the Salvation Army last May all but exhausted through the Army's unparalleled year of activities and service throughout the country, Commander Miss Booth is now marshaling her forces for the organization's second nationwide Home Service Appeal to be held May 10 to 24. "It makes me extremely happy to report, even before the full statistics of the year's work are in hand," the Commander stated in New York recently, "that never before in the history of the organization in this country has the Salvation Army been able to accomplish so much for the poor, the distressed, the sick, the unfortunate and the erring."

"All this is because of the magnificent way America has supported our efforts. We are deeply thankful to God and country for the opportunities of Christian and humanitarian service that have been afforded us during the last few months. Very shortly, now, we shall give an accounting of our trusteeship, and soon thereafter we plan to go to the country again for the encouragement and funds with which to maintain our many vital activities throughout another twelvemonth."

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard recommended very highly, so began to use it. It cured me. I keep it in the house all the time. It is the best liver medicine made. I do not have sick headache or stomach trouble any more." Black-Draught acts on the jaded liver and helps it to do its important work of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system. This medicine should be in every household for use in time of need. Get a package today. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c a package. All druggists.

BLACK-DRAUGHT

ALICE JOYCE
Of all the reigning favorites of the early motion pictures, Alice Joyce alone shines as a star today. With such notable plays as Charles Klein's "The Lion and the Mouse" and "The Third Degree," the famous Drury Lane melodrama, "The Sporting Duchess," Rex Beach's story, "The Venetian of Durand," and "Staves of Pride" as her medium, Miss Joyce has entered an era of steadily increasing popularity. She occupies a place among the rulers of the screen.

EARLE WILLIAMS
Earle Williams, Vitagraph star, has devoted most of his time to that company's West Coast studio in recent years, but came east to make "The Fortune Hunter" and "Captain Swift," two plays that had a long run on Broadway a few years ago. They were made famous by the Barrymores. Mr. Williams is now at work making features at Vitagraph's West Coast studio.
