HOPE IS REQUISITE FOR LIFE.
—Each morning we awake with hope for what the day may bring forth, and each night we go to sleep with the hope that the next day may bring less of sorrow and more of happiness. If it were not for hope, our troubles might often seem unbearable. And unhappy indeed, is the man who looks forward to nothing. Life to him is drear and monotonous. But hope in good to come gives zest and purpose to life. And this faith in the future is not an illusory hope which is never fulfilled, but is a hope capable of being fulfilled, and, by its very existence, promises fulfillment.

It is very hard to convince young persons of eighteen or twenty years of age that their tastes are not as fully matured and judgment as ripe as is one of forty.

TWINKLE OF SUNSHINE.

Only a twinkle of sunshine, only a brighter day,
Only a song through the shadows, and the dark clouds rolled away.

Only a twinkle of sunshine
And the heart a thing reborn
To the simple splendor and beauty
And singing glory of morn.

Only a twinkle of sunshine, and the world lifts up from care;
Only a memory of April, and the blue-bird whistling a prayer.
Only a twinkle of sunshine
And the ice of the heart of things
Gone like a mist on the marshes
When the dove unfolds her wings.

Only a twinkle of sunshine, and the laughter heard again,
Only a hope and a promise, and a world of lullier men.
Only a twinkle of sunshine
And love's delicate wings set free
On the hills of the bygone morning
By the shores of a silver sea.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes: "From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain. . . It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, use the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

"Didn't Rest Well"

Prominent Georgia Lady Suffered from Faint Spells and Sleeplessness—Relieved by Ziron.

PEOPLE who do not feel well every now and then, and who do not seem to get the proper refreshment from rest, sleep and recreation, need a tonic to help their blood, fortify and build up their system.

For this you will find Ziron tonic very reliable, as the testimony of thousands already has proved. Mrs. J. W. Bryant, lady of a prominent Georgia family residing near Cartersville, says:

"I didn't rest well some nights. I would be just as tired when I got up in the morning as when I went to bed. I would get weak, and have kind of fainty spells—at times hardly able to do my housework."

"I heard of Ziron, and felt maybe a tonic would help me. I thought it would at least strengthen me."

"I believe Ziron has done me good. I feel better. I am glad to recommend it as a good tonic."

Try Ziron. Our money-back guarantee protects you. At your druggist's.
