THE TONGUE.

WE USUALLY TALK THE THINGS THAT ARE IN OUR MIND.

The story is told of a school master who, when several little boys were absent from school, asked of them the reason. One little boy said, "Mother kept me at home to tend the baby." "Let me see your tongue," said the schoolmaster. He put forth the tongue and it was black. The truth was known, just as the teacher had surmised; they had been off in the pasture picking berries.

The Doctor comes to the home to visit a patient. He says let me see your tongue; then he prescribes for the patient.

The Apostle James took into account the tongue when sizing up a person's religion, and declares that he who bridleth not his tongue his religion is vain.

Again he says "the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity," and pronounces the man a perfect man—a perfect man who is able to control it.

I have many times come in contact with men that by their tongues I have been able to form an opinion of their spiritual condition.

We usually talk the things that are in our mind; the tongue is a very good indicator of your spiritual health.

What ship is it that no woman objects to embark in? Court-ship.

Is a boy's mother his father when she is a sinner?

It is a man's head that enables him to foot his bills.

Many a woman keeps a dark secret in a bottle labeled "hair dye."

What lock requires the attention of a physician? Lock-jaw.

What kind of essence does a young man like when he pops the question? Acquiescence.

IF I KNEW YOU AND YOU KNEW ME.

If I knew you and you knew me,
'Tis seldom we would disagree;
But, never having yet clasped hands,
Both often fail to understand
That each intends to do what's right
And treat each other "honor bright."
If I knew you and you knew me.

When'er we ship you by mistake,
Or in your bill some error make,
From irritation you'd be free
If I knew you and you knew me.
Or when the checks don't come on time,
And customers send nary a line,
We'd wait without anxiety
If I knew you and you knew me.

Or when some goods you "fire back,"
Or make a "kick" on this or that,
We'd make it in good part, you see,
If I knew you and you knew me.
With customers a million strong
Occasionally things go wrong—
Sometimes our fault, sometimes it's theirs—
Forbearance would decrease all cares;
Kind friend, how pleasant things would be
If I knew you and you knew me.

Then let no doubting thoughts abide
Of firm good faith on either side;
Confidence to each other give,
Living ourselves, let others live;
But any time you come this way,
That you will call we hope and pray;
Then face to face we each shall see
And I'll know you and you'll know me.

APPEAL FOR ORPHANS OF STATE.

ONE DAY FOR ORPHANS' MOVEMENT WILL BE USED AGAIN.

The public committee of the North Carolina Orphan Association has issued its appeal to the people to contribute during the coming Thanksgiving season something to the support and maintenance of the orphans of the State.

The "One Day for the Orphans" movement was inaugurated several years ago and it has been a wonderfully successful means of bringing to the attention of the citizens of the State the duty they owe the wards of society. The object of the movement is not particularly to care for the orphans who are already in the various institutions in North Carolina, but to make it possible for these institutions to reach out and take in the thousands who cannot be accommodated.

In order that more adequate equipment and support might be provided for the fatherless and motherless children of the State, the "One Day for the Orphans" movement was started, calling upon all people to add to the stream of regular contributions a special Thanksgiving offering equal to a day's income. This is a reasonable request, for anyone can share with the orphans the earnings of one day out of 365. It is practicable, for rich and poor alike can participate in it. It enlists our people of all creeds and classes in beautiful co-operation for the support of a needed civic and Christian philanthropy. While it deposits a handsome aggregate in the orphanage treasuries, it also deepens and enriches the life of our people.

The cry of the orphan—who can hear it unmoved? And whose heart does not thrill with joy at the thought of twenty-one orphanages in North Carolina housing many hundreds of dependent children and training them into individual efficiency and good citizenship? Yet everyone of the splendid institutions needs better equipment and larger support, and everyone of them is besieged by applicants for admission. And, as a matter of fact, in this good State of ours there are literally thousands of orphan children dependent and deserving, who must be handicapped for life, unless in their tender years they can have the sheltering care and culture offered in our orphan homes.

Make your offering on or about Thanksgiving Day. Make it on the basis of your earning capacity for a single day—more, if you will, less if you can do no better. Make it through your church or lodge. Make it with the prayer that our orphan children may be led into the larger life here and the life eternal hereafter.

The Pythians of Weldon Lodge 237 have appointed Mr. T. E. Brown as a committee of one and requested him to see every member of his lodge and friends of the Orphans, and to raise as large a sum as possible.

This is an opportunity for real service and it is earnestly hoped that every member of the lodge and all others interested will call on T. E. Brown at once and make a liberal contribution for this most worthy cause.

Bank Vice-President

Tells How Ziron Iron Tonic Helped His Daughter After Operation for Appendicitis.

As I felt any serious illness, the first thing I noticed when you begin to get around to your lack of strength and energy—a tired, weak feeling. The sooner you get your strength back the better. The thing to do is to eat plenty of good, nourishing food, get all the fresh air you can, exercise conservatively, and take Ziron Iron Tonic three times a day. Your doctor will tell you this is sound advice, and urge you to follow it.

Read this letter from Mr. J. B. Kelly, vice-president of the First National Bank, Grassville, Fla.: "My daughter had been in bad health since last April. She was operated on for appendicitis. She has been taking Ziron for two weeks. Her appetite is better than it has been. Her nerves are better, and she says she feels better. . . I know that Ziron is good for weak and feeble people." Ziron is a scientific, reconstructive tonic, prepared from valuable strength-building ingredients, for weak people with thin blood. Druggists sell Ziron on a money-back guarantee. Try it.
