Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment. Never attempt to relieve your baby with a remedy that you would use for yourself.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. HONOR YOUR PARENTS.

"Honor Thy Father And Thy Mother."

The words, "Honor thy father and thy mother" mean four things—always do what they bid you, always tell them the truth, always treat them lovingly, and take care of them when they are sick or grow old. I never yet knew a boy who trampled on the wishes of his parents who turned out well. God never blesses a willfully disobedient son.

When Washington was sixteen years old he determined to leave home and be a midshipman in the navy. After he had sent off his trunk he went to bid his mother good bye. She wept so bitterly because he was going away that he said to his negro servant, "Bring back my trunk. I am not going to make my mother suffer so by my leaving her."

He remained at home to please his mother. The decision led to his becoming a surveyor, and afterwards a soldier. His whole glorious career in life turned on this one simple act of trying to make his mother happy. And happy, too, is the child who never has occasion to shed bitter tears for any act of unkindness to his parents. Let us not forget that God has said, "Honor thy father and thy mother."—The Little Christian.

HAD FEELING FOR DADDY.

Maxine was visiting a friend. Her mother told her to return home at four o'clock, and when the time arrived she put away her playthings and prepared to leave. Her friend urged her to play just a little longer, but seriously she replied: "No, Molly, I can't play any longer, for if my daddy comes home from work and I'm gone he will cry his blue eyes out."

BUT HE LIVETH.

A negro registrant from a farming district was called to service. Arriving in town, he found the local board had moved to another street. At the new address another negro languished in the doorway. "Is dis whar de redemption bo'd is at?" queried the newcomer. "Sho' is," answered the second. "But de blessed redeemer done gone out to lunch."

EXCUSE IT, PLEASE.

Voice at Phone: "Hello—hello—that you, George? Listen, old man. I'm up against it and I'm looking for a little financial succor again."

Voice at Other End: "Say, do you mean to insinuate—?"

GOT A BACKHANDER.

"What did Ethel say when you asked her for her hand?" "She simply said, 'You take the palm!'"

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which griped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

Thedford's

BLACK-DRAUGHT

THE HOME AFAR.

BY FRANK L. STANTON.

I dwell not with the rich and great, where shiny temples rise,
But I've a heavenly estate—a mansion in the skies;
I envy not the mighty ones—the lords of all the lands;
I know my tides yonder, in a house not made with hands.

Few earthly friends to welcome when she gleam o' gold I see,
But o'er the crystal river they are beckoning to me;
I see the lights of Canaan far shining o'er the tide—
The bright lights of the city that is on the other side.

An' so, my soul is singin' 'midst the red thorns of the way;
The Rose of Rest is bloomin' in the everlasting day;
An' the love that lives forever at a shiny portal stands,
An' calls the weary traveler to the house not made with hands.

DOES THIS HIT YOU.

An evangelist had tacked to a tree at the intersection of two roads a sign bearing this advice: "Prepare to meet thy God."

And then along came a man from the State highways department who placed a sign right below it with the single word: "Detour."
