A LARGE 8-PAGE, 40-COLUMN
AGRICULTURAL AND HOME JOURNAL,
WILL BE SENT
ONE YEAR FREE
To any one subscribing to this paper one year at the regular rates, $2 per annum. This is a rare chance for every one to secure Two Papers for the Price of One.
Every Farmer, Merchant, Lawyer, Doctor and other person should subscribe at once, as this offer is good for a short time only.
FARM AND FRESIDE is published by P. P.
MAST & CO., of Springfield, Ohio, who have a capital of over half a million dollars, and they are determined to make FARM AND FRESIDE the best, as well as the Cheapest Agricultural Journal in the Country.
It already has a larger circulation than any other Journal of its class in the United States. Every farmer, especially should take advantage of this offer, for FARM AND FRESIDE will save many times the cost of both papers during the year, as each number contains much valuable information and many timely suggestions which will prevent losses and increase returns to farmers, and also many useful receipts, and much interesting and entertaining reading matter for all departments of Home and Farm Life, making it a valuable and welcome visitor to every member of the household.
Those who wish to see a sample copy of FARM AND FRESIDE before accepting this offer should send their address on a postal card to P. P. MAST & CO.,
Publishers Farm and Fireside, Springfield, Ohio.
But all wishing the two papers for the price of one must apply to the publishers of the ASHEVILLE CITIZEN.

Parties wanting job work, of any character or description or of any style and price, should remember that the CITIZEN'S office is thoroughly prepared to do the same at the shortest possible notice. Blanks of all kinds a specialty.

Spring is here! Where is that bonnet, my dear?

Is the dollar of our day what they call government paper?

Red headed girls use for their hair a lead comb, so as to make the hair turn auburn.

Ladies now adays lift up one side of their dresses and let the other side drag in the mud.

A GREENBACK CLUB is being organized in Fair View township, this county.
Count us in, brethren.

Our friends in Quallatown, Jackson county, complain of not getting the CITIZEN regularly. We hope post-masters and route agents will please attend to this.

Northern health-seekers are already coming South for the Spring and Summer. Our hotels and boarding-houses are beginning to clean up for spring, and all will soon be gay as a butterfly, bright as a Queen, about Asheville.

We are pleased to announce to the many friends of Mr. S. M. Banks, that he is improving, and will, if no unforeseen change takes place, soon be home.
He is now in Richmond, in the hands of the ablest surgeons of that city, who have no doubts of his complete recovery.

Gov. Vance arrived in town Tuesday evening, called here by the sudden illness of his mother. We are gratified to state, however, that Mrs. Vance is better, and now strong hopes are entertained of her recovery.

THE EASTERN DIVISION.—Hon. J. L.
Robinson passed through Tuesday, enroute home from the annual meeting of the board of directors of the above road, held Monday at Henry. The same officers were re-elected, save the master machinist, but we failed to learn who was chosen. We hope soon to see the report of President Wilson.

All parties interested will remember, that all obituary and marriage notices not exceeding ten lines will be inserted in the CITIZEN free. For every line above ten five cents per line will be charged. There will be no deviation from this rule.

Suicide is not more sinful than neglecting a cough. For only 25 cents you can buy a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and be saved from death.

THE EAST LA PORTE SCHOOL.— This school, located in Jackson county, is, we are glad to learn, doing well under Prof. A. M. Dawson as Principal, with W. H. Hughes, Esq., and Rev. R.
Coggins assistants. There are about 90 students in attendance the present session.

THE SHORT WALKING DRESS.—The Philadelphia Times, in its fashion notes, says of short dresses this season:
"An unusual, a decided effort will be made to introduce the sensible short walking-dress which is worn abroad. In Paris a train is never seen on the pavement, and why American women cling so persistently to them it is not easy to divine. In the house and for carriage wear they are graceful and elegant, but their most infatuated devotee must acknowledge them out of place on a crowded thoroughfare. One hand is constantly occupied in holding the train up, and even then it is seldom that the work is effectually done. But all this and far more has been said again and again, each time as vainly as before."

THE CLAY COUNTY TRAGEDY ILLU-STRATED.—The Charlotte Observer gives the latest phase of the "Clay County Tragedy" to which we referred last week. Says that paper:
"The New York National Police Gazette has arrived with the alleged Clay county (N. C.) tragedy fully illustrated.
There is the bride pleading with the enraged husband to soften his wrath against her former lover, and then again there is the picture of the shooting of the young man by the husband, while the young wife faints in the background.
Very sensational, surely, but unfortunately not true. The whole affair serves to show where a large number of the tragedies which are pictured in the papers every week come from. An enterprising and unscrupulous quill driver manufactures the story, locates it in some far off out-of-the-way place in the South where the people are as law-abiding as any on the face of the earth, and the next week it comes out illustrated to the minutest particular."

REDMOND THE OUTLAW.—From the Greenville (S. C.) News of the 14th we learn:
"Further accounts of the raid of Redmond in Pickens a few days ago corroborate the statement in yesterday's News, except as to the number of prisoners released, which was only 3, instead of 10.
Deputy Collector Jilson who returned from Easley Station yesterday morning, says that Redmond's band was, on day before yesterday divided into two squads of 15 and 20 men, and were making diligent search for the revenue officers Hoffman and Gary with the announced intention of killing them on sight, but the revenue men had succeeded in keeping out of Redmond's way. Redmond and band it is now believed, have returned to their haunts in the mountains.
"There are, we believe, several rewards offered for the capture of Redmond; one by the United States government; another by the Governor of N.
Carolina; the amounts we do not know."

This man seems to hide about the State line in Transylvania, is a very desperate character, and should be captured. It is only a question of time, however, Providence only permits such criminals to flourish for a season. We hope soon to chronicle his arrest.

ASHEVILLE DISTRICT.—The following is from Dr. Kennedy, presiding elder of this district, which recently appeared in the Holston Methodist. It is under date of the 6th inst:
"Since writing you last, I have received communications from Bro. C. S.
Bird and others, informing me of a glorious revival at Bald Creek, Burnsville circuit,—the continuance of our second quarterly meeting at that place. So far, 30 conversions; many backsliders reclaimed; and the altar crowded with penitents. The meeting still goes on—I left Bro. J. H. Wampler, of the Vanderbilt Mission, assisting Bro. Bird. He is a very efficient worker.
Returned yesterday from the Asheville Quarterly Meeting, and left it in progress under Bro. Atkins with favorable indications for good. Bro. Atkins is always wide awake to the interests of the hour. He waits for no special occasions, but makes them.
It rejoices my heart to hear of so many triumphant victories for Jesus—the captain and Prince of our salvation, all over our conference. I trust and pray that there may be many more throughout the realm of Southern Methodism. Our church needs a fresh and all pervading baptism of the Holy Ghost to qualify it for the emergencies of the present crisis."

AT HOME.—We are pleased to see our young friend Dr. W. D. Hilliard at home, looking very well, and a fully commissoned disciple of Esculapius.— We sincerely wish him all success and distinction in the noble profession he has chosen.

THE NEW DEPOT.—A near sighted gentleman being Mr. Williams' new sign "Book Store and News Depot," omitted to put the s to news, and read it New Depot, whereupon he exclaimed, "Well, they have settled the depot question have they? and put it right in town. That's good." That was good.

THE NEW BOOK STORE.—What Asheville has long sadly needed Mr. C. M.
Williams has just opened, a Book-store, and News Emporium, where will be kept a good line of books, stationery, the latest periodicals, and goods usually found in such stores. Mr. W. has filled up a handsome store-room in the building formerly occupied by Capt. T.
D. Johnson as a law office, adjoining Cowan's Jewelry Store, and has on hand an admirable assortment of standard and light literature which is sold at New York cash prices. Be sure to call at the New Book Store for all goods in that line.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mr. Joseph Chunn has opened a carriage, buggy and wagon factory in Asheville, and is prepared to do any work in that line, in any style desired, and at prices to suit the times. Be sure to give Mr. C. a trial.

Mr. John McEwen, Joiner, Builder and Architect, has established his headquarters on Willow street. Mr. McE. is one of the best workmen in this or any section, and we commend him to the public. Stair building a specialty.

For many of the good things kept by Messrs. Morrison and Staples look over the various pages of this CITIZEN. To find out definitely what they have, how good and cheap their goods are, you must call on them.

RED OAK PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
—THE POWER OF LITTLES.—Twelve miles North-west of Asheville and within three miles of the famous Alexander Hotel on the French Broad river, on one of the highest hills in the neighborhood, stands the beautiful and comfortable church known as Red Oak Presbyterian Church. It is completely furnished, seated &c., and is said to be the best church-building outside of Asheville, in Buncombe county. This Church was built a few years ago by dollar contributions, received from kind friends living in as many as nine States in the Union, and contributed in less than one year from the time the first appeal (through the church papers) was made. There is a moral which adorns this tale, to which we would specially invite attention.— Why cannot any neighborhood of any importance do the same thing, and thus provide preaching for their families so convenient that all could attend religious services?

Our attention has been called to this enterprise by being shown a most elegant silver communion service recently presented to this church by Rev. Geo.
Summey and his good wife. Mr. Summey is now the local pastor of the Ninth Street Presbyterian Church, Covington, Ky., who was mainly instrumental in organizing the congregation at Red Oak, and to him and his father, our excellent mayor, is due the credit of this dollar enterprise. Rev. Mr. Summey, can't forget his first love, and from his far-off Kentucky home remembers with warmth and affection those mountain people among whom he was born and raised. We are very sure that the beautiful and appropriate gift will be received by the members of Red Oak Church with feelings of the sincerest affection and appreciation.

DANVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSES.
—We invite attention to the following warehouses, whose advertisements appear in this issue of the CITIZEN: Face Brothers & Co., whose Star Warehouse has already won for itself a most enviable reputation, is even better than ever. These gentlemen have done well for many of our planters of our section, and deserve all the patronage they can get.
Planter's Warehouse, at whose head is that indefatigable and popular gentleman Col. J. P. Neal, holds its own with the foremost. Col. N. is assiduous in his attentions to his business, and having inherited great talent for his business is winning conspicuous success.
Mr. W. P. Graves, the veteran Warehouseman of the city, keeps full abreast with the bustle and vim of the times, and Graves Warehouse is but another name for the fairest dealing and most satisfactory results.

Messrs. Keen, Poindexter & Co., of the Public Warehouse, are practical tobacco raisers and handlers, and though comparatively recently established ranks with the best. The day before we were in their house they sold some tobacco for Mr. T. C. M. Hall, of Mc-Dowell, for 62, 44, 22, cents per pound respectively.

We unhesitatingly commend each and all of these gentlemen to our readers.

THE W. N. C. RAILROAD.—The Raleigh News of Sunday says: Much interest is felt by the people of the State in the progress of the work on the Western Road to Asheville. The land-slides and snows have obstructed the track so much that the labor of the force at work has been almost entirely occupied in their removal. The engineers think that the cars will be able to run to the summit of the mountain, but not through the tunnel, by the 15th of June. The grading from the top to Asheville is light and the track will probably be laid to Asheville before the completion of the tunnel."

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. J. P. Sawyer is having his store building handsomely embellished. Mr. G. A. Hughes superintending.
Messrs. Pleasant, Allen, Millis & Co. are adding a double story section to their store.
Mr. J. L. Smathers' residence approaches completion.
Mr. N. P. Chedister is breaking ground on Patton Avenue for a residence.
The Court-house is being re-covered with tin.
Very cheap and handsome Job Work being done at the CITIZEN office.

THE COLORED SCHOOL, under the control of Rev. Mr. Berry, colored, a minister of the Episcopal church, is decidedly creditable to the teacher, the church which sustains it, and specially the colored children who are its pupils.
In company with Revs. Dr. Buxton and Mr. Buel, and Mayor Summey we attended the recent semi-annual examination, and heartily join in the agreeable surprise expressed by all in the advancement and thorough training of these colored children. They are under good discipline, and certainly have been well instructed. The recitations in geography, grammar, arithmetic, spelling, reading, and the specimens of writing, needle-work, &c., were unusually creditable.

It was suggested, and Mr. Berry agreed, to repeat this examination, and conduct the same in the Courthouse or Town Hall, and invite our white citizens to attend and witness what is being done for the advancement, and improvement of the colored race in our midst. And this is a matter every good citizen should feel an interest in—the negro constitutes a very large and important element in our social and political government, and the more he can be elevated, educated, and morally and religiously educated, the better citizen he becomes, the more valuable in all respects will be his status.

But we have another, greater reason, for desiring as many of our white citizens to witness this examination as possible, and that is to arouse them to the painful realization of the efforts being made by our colored citizens to appreciate, and be benefited by every educational advantage, while, from first one cause and then another, all petty and shameful, our own white children are being allowed to grow up in ignorance.
The colored children are made to attend School by their parents, while even the few public schools which may be established for white children are but scantily attended.

We are glad of every school, for white or black, we can hear of, and specially rejoice to hear that every one is full of scholars. We urge our colored citizens to persevere in getting an education, but will have something soon to say to our authorities, and white people, upon the subject of public schools.

Mr. Berry's school was addressed by Mr. Buel and Mayor Summey in short, but encouraging and appropriate remarks. We wish it continued prosperity.

GRASS.—The Burke Blade well says: Too much attention cannot well be given to the cultivation of the grasses.
At the risk of worrying our farmers with this suggestion, we again repeat, prepare every one of you a portion of your land for grass, and get the seed in before it be too late in the Spring.
Some will say, "I've got no seed and don't know where to get it," or "I've no money to buy seed." Now is the time to be looking out for seed, and as for the means to pay for it, we will say, grass seed is about the only thing we would feel justified in going in debt for.
Your hay pays for it; your stock pays for it, and your improvement on the land pays for it. Sow clover and orchard grass.

We request all mothers to stop using Laudanum for their Babies, but use Dr.
Bull's Baby Syrup, a good medicine. It contains nothing injurious. 25 cents.

Get your Timothy, Orchard and other grass seeds at Porter & Brevard's, Swananoa Bridge, near Asheville.
