STONES IN STONES.
The miserable twaddle as that in it is disgusting every independent man, and I will drive them over the top. I have spent the last year in Florida, and although I have voted the Democratic ticket in voting four years ago for the Democratic paper and taught fanaticism, I have done with that in the present. I voted for Hayes and I declare to you that I was a fair election to be held, but was thrown out, as it is (as I believe) because it was a specimen brick. It was written by the name of D. D. Willet at Branford, Conn., December 1876. It is found in the columns of the Tribune. If there are really stones, then quite an exhaustive search can be found on Mr. Willet's remarks. They are carelessly attributed to the attention of the Virginia says, Mr. Willet, what he is talking about, and what he understands. And a Republican he voted for the candidate, as an American, is justly indignant that the sovereign State should be caused to be raised against which he himself belongs. Which all over the country Mr. Willet does, would thoughts as boldly, the country and the serious crisis which is at hand.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. 1. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 1877. NO. 297.

CAROLINA.

Prof. S. M. Banks, of Asheville, is seriously ill.
A man in Charlotte wants to eat 30 quails in 30 days.
Ice is now floating down the Roanoke river in large quantities.
They are complaining in Raleigh of the very high prices charged for wood.
Quite a number of the members of the General Assembly are reported sick.
Captain M. T. Whitaker fell on the ice at his house, near Enfield last Tuesday and broke his leg.
The Hornet's Fire Company of Charlotte have purchased two powerful horses to draw their steamer.
The revival in the Baptist Church at Asheville has closed after having run its good course for several weeks.
The Robesonian learns that Messrs. D. Biggs & Sons, of Antioch, in that county, are preparing to erect a wool factory at that place.
Col. J. E. Peyton, of New Jersey, is in Raleigh on behalf of the bondholders to arrange some basis for an adjustment of the State debt.

Gov. Vance has appointed Mr. Sherwood Haywood, of Raleigh, State Librarian. Is there anybody else in Raleigh who wants an office and hasn't got one?
Col. J. McLeod Turner, having resigned the position of engraving clerk to the Senate, W. J. Wilson, of Haywood, has been nominated in caucus for his successor.
Sheriff Taylor, of Henderson county, informs the Raleigh Observer that snow is fully thirty-inches deep and small game and birds are actually freezing and starving to death.

The Raleigh Observer says: Aunt Abby House makes her daily visit to the Governor, taking her work-basket and spending the evening. Aunt Abby wants to be matron at the Insane Asylum.

The Weldon News says: At an egg-nog frolic at Esquire Huh's near Ringwood, Fred Spattuck and Henry and Eaton Solomon, colored, became involved in a quarrel, when knives were used and the darkeys were seriously cut about the throat and face. They were out of doors at the time and both parties claim to have justifiable grounds for the cutting. Henry is the worst cut and his wounds are said by Dr. Garrett to be of a serious nature.

The Charlotte Observer says: Yesterday W. N. Alexander, Coroner of the county, arrived in the city with three negro men, named Richard Walker, Fletcher Walker and Mose McMillan, charged with the murder of one Sam Ross, also colored. It seems that on Tuesday night there was some sort of a gathering on the premises of Dr. W. N. Alexander, who lives about six miles from town. A difficulty occurred between Ross and the parties mentioned above. From our report of the matter, all three of the men were beating Ross, when one of the number, Richard Walker, drew a knife and cut him in a terrible manner, so that he died almost immediately.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Jan. 9.

Mr. Bennett: An act requiring beef cattle to be carried to the town of Wilmington to be weighed. Propositions and Grievances.
Mr. Short: A bill to protect fish in Waccamaw Lake and adjacent waters. Propositions and Grievances.
Mr. Short: A resolution in favor of the Petersburg Railroad. Claims.
Mr. Thorne: A bill to be entitled an act to establish an industrial and educational school for the benefit of the colored children of both sexes in the State, to be known as the State Colored College of North Carolina. Ordered to be printed and referred to the committee on Education.

Moore, col., of New Hanover: A bill to repeal chap. 82, sec. 182, Battle's Revisal. Judiciary.
Mr. Robinson, by request: A resolution requesting Congress to take the necessary steps to have a final settlement of the account of the eastern band of Cherokee Indians of North Carolina with the United States Government. Also asking for such appropriations for the establishment of educational and industrial schools as have been made for other Indian tribes. Propositions and Grievances.

A communication was received from Col. J. McLeod Turner, resigning his position as engraving clerk of the Senate.
Mr. Stanford moved to take from the table the bill introduced before the recess to incorporate the Laborers' Union and the First Ward Hook and Ladder Company No. 2, of Wilmington, and refer to the committee on Propositions and Grievances. Agreed to.
The bill to allow mechanics 60 days in which to file liens, with a substitute offered by Mr. Bingham, were upon his motion recommitted to the Judiciary committee.

House bill to pay the burial expenses of Dr. P. M. Winchester, late member to the House from Rockingham, referred to the committee on claims.

Resolution in relation to paying the expenses of the commissioners of the Western North Carolina Railroad. [The Finance committee recommended that no appropriation be made to Curtis H. Brogdon, he having done nothing except make one trip to Greensboro; that R. F. Armfield be paid $350 for valuable service in New York; that $250 be paid James L. Robinson, and $100 each be paid John H. Dillard and W. N. H. Smith for legal services.] The resolution unanimously passed its second reading.

The Senate then, upon motion of Mr. Johnston, went into Executive session upon the appointments of His Excellency, the Governor.

Upon motion of Mr. Robinson, the rules of the Senate were adopted for the government of the executive session.

The clerk then read the message of His Excellency the Governor announcing the appointment of Col. J. McLeod Turner as Keeper of the Capitol.

Mr. Robinson moved that the appointment be confirmed, and the roll being called the Senate confirmed the appointment, ayes 40, noes 2.

A second message from His Excellency was read, announcing the appointment of Sherwood Haywood as State Librarian.

Mr. Dortch moved that the Senate confirm, and the roll being called the vote resulted: ayes 40, noes 2.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
Mr. Wilson, of Burke, presented a memorial from the National Board of Trade Calendar.

Bunn, col., presented a petition from colored citizens of Edgecombe county, asking the Legislature to recommend a feasible plan for their early colonization somewhere in the limits of the United States. Calendar.

Mr. Henderson: A bill to secure the owners of real estate a homestead in fee simple. Referred to the Judiciary committee and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Henderson: A bill to require clerks of all courts of record to keep indices and cross-indices of the names of parties to all causes in their counties &c. Committee on Judiciary.

Mr. McLean: A bill to protect the people of the State from incompetent and ignorant physicians. Committee on Education.

Mr. Rowland: A bill to authorize the commissioners of Robeson county to appoint a tax-collector. Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Shackelford: A bill to amend the charter of the New River Canal Company. Committee on Internal Improvements.

Resolution of inquiry relative to the impeachment of J. C. L. Harris, Solicitor of the 6th judicial district, was taken up.

[The resolution raises a committee of 7 to investigate the charges of malfeasance and corruption in office made against Solicitor Harris and report the facts in order, if they be true, that steps may be taken for his impeachment.]

The resolution was adopted.
The Senate bill for the relief of sheriffs and tax-collectors was taken up as the special order of the hour.

[The bill provides that all who have been sheriffs and tax-collectors in the years 1872, '73, '74 and '75 may collect arrears of taxes for the years aforesaid under the restrictions imposed by law.]

On motion of Mr. Richardson the bill was further amended so as to prevent sheriffs from collecting insolvent taxes already credited to them, but empowering the county commissioners to provide for their collection.

The bill passed its third reading and was ordered to be sent to the Senate for concurrence in the House amendments.

Messrs. Graves, Henderson, Carter, of Buncombe, Todd, of Ashe, Cobb, Clarke, of Craven, and Duggan were appointed in reference to the Harris impeachment matter.

The petition from colored citizens of Nash County, asking the Legislature to recommend a feasible plan for the early colonization of their race somewhere within the limits of the United States, was read, and, on motion of Mr. Braswell, was referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

On motion of Reynolds, col., the Senate bill to prohibit the sale of liquor on Sunday was taken up and passed its several readings.

You can save nearly all your wood by putting up coal stoves in your house, but the cold stoves must be kept warm.

The "When-I-was-at-the-Centennial" man and woman are now beginning to cast a dark shadow over this life.

He sat shivering over the fire this morning and at high noon he was working near an open window and in his shirt sleeves.

The Robesonian commences this week the 8th volume of its truly excellent existence. May it live to number its eightieth.

It is a curious fact that poor people, though sometimes given to stealing, are never afflicted with kleptomania. It takes a rich person to have that disease.

A lawyer in Raleigh has reached the superlative of life; at first he sought to get on, and then he sought to get honor, and now he is trying to get honest.

One thousand dollars is the price of a fine "crown sable" set, muff and boa, but the finest sets bring $1,600. Young ladies receive them for birthday presents.

There is no longer any doubt that Zach Chandler is to be credited with the authorship of the famous saying: "Give me the returning boards of a country and I care not who casts its votes."

It was a year ago that a pretty young bride began to follow the occasional recipes for cooking that have appeared in newspapers, and with such success that she has just married her second husband.

During the recent cold "schnapp" street crossings in the city have suffered from depredations of the wood fiend. The crossing at the corner of 3d and Walnut street has entirely disappeared. Gates and hitch-posts have met the same fate.

In a Bad Fix.

George Rowe, a young man and a colored man, was arrested last night for stealing a cheese from the store of Messrs. C. D. Myers & Co., and also for obtaining letters from the Postoffice under false representations. He is to have a hearing this afternoon before U. S. Commissioner Cassidy.

Superior Court.

The following cases were called in this Court this morning:
State vs. James Merritt, for assault and battery. Motion for new trial and motion ordered entered.
State vs. William Ross, for perjury. Verdict guilty.
State vs. James Bryan, for larceny. Verdict guilty.

Movements of the Mayor.

Mayor Canaday left here last evening on an absence of some days. First he will visit Raleigh (but he is not going there to get an office) and then he will take old H. G.'s advice and go West, but on business connected with the Western N. C. R. R. of which he is one of the Commissioners. During his absence Alderman Gardner will fill the Mayorial chair.

Spiritualistic.

George Everett, the so-called spiritualistic medium, is about to fool the people of Charlotte as he did those of Wilmington. He has a "seance" there to night and to-morrow everybody will know all about him. The press of the State should be on their guard against his impostures. The people he "bulldozed" here into believing in him will make it rather warm on his next appearance among them if Everett happens.

Very Handsome.

"Leisure Hours" is the title of a very handsome monthly periodical which is now before us. It is a 16 page (64 column) family paper and is full of very interesting readable matter. Terms, $1 20 a year, including premium engraving, and sent on trial four months for 25 cents. J. L. Patten & Co., 162 William street, New York, are the publishers.

Bruce Williams, Esq.

Our young friend, Bruce Williams, Esq., of Lillington, who was recently granted license to practise law by the Supreme Court, came into the Superior Court this morning and after taking the necessary oaths prescribed by law was on motion of Col. W. S. Devane duly admitted to the Bar and authorized to practise law in the several courts of the State.

C. F. and P. S. C.

At a meeting of the Cape Fear and People's Steamboat Companies, held in this city yesterday, the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing year, viz:

President—F. W. Kerchner.
Secretary and Treasurer—D. G. Worth.
Directors—B. G. Worth, D. G. Worth, A. A. McKeithan, H. Vollers, F. W. Kerchner.
Agents at Wilmington—Worth and Worth.
Agents at Fayetteville—J. A. Worth and J. D. Starr.

The Thermometer.

From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:

Augusta, 29, foggy; Cairo, 46, cloudy; Charleston, 40, clear; Cincinnati, 34, cloudy; Corsicana, 62, cloudy; Fort Gibson, 57, fair; Galveston, 58, cloudy; Indianola, 64, cloudy; Jacksonville, 40, foggy; Key West, 65, fair; Knoxville, 18, clear; Lynchburg, 18, cloudy; Memphis, 47, cloudy; Mobile, 50, cloudy; Montgomery, 35, clear; Nashville, 44, cloudy; New Orleans, 50, cloudy; New York, 19, fair; Norfolk, 27, fair; Pittsburg, 28, cloudy; Punta Rasa, 58, fair; Savannah, 36, clear; Shreveport, 57, cloudy; St. Louis, 40, cloudy; St. Marks, 29, clear; Vicksburg, 48, cloudy; Washington, 15, smoky; Wilmington, 30, smoky.

This term of Court seems to excite but little interest, as the number in attendance is unusually small.

The Great Family Paper.

THE NEW YORK LEDGER

FOR THE NEW YEAR, 1877.

The New York Ledger, now one year older, but ever new, reminds its readers that the season has arrived for the renewal of their annual subscriptions.

Many of those who were children, when they first began to read the Ledger now have children of their own who read their favorite paper. There could hardly be a stronger testimonial to the excellence of its character than is thus given to the Ledger by the regular renewal of these subscriptions.

Our great exertion for the coming year will be to make a volume that will compare favorably with the best of its predecessors.

The Ledger is always alive and fresh and full of interest.

The stories for the coming year will be by the most popular of our old writers and the best of the new writers who have occasionally contributed to our columns.

The miscellaneous articles by eminent scholars and divines will be continued; so will our accurate scientific department.

We shall reply, as heretofore, to the innumerable questions sent to us on love and domestic affairs, and every variety of subject.

Wherever the Ledger goes—and it goes nearly every where—it is generally conceded there is not a reader to whose happiness it does not minister.

Our subscribers will have no postage to pay. We prepay the postage on every paper that we mail.

OUR TERMS FOR 1877.—POSTAGE FREE

Single copies, $3 per annum, four copies, $10, which is $2.50 a copy; eight copies, $20, postage free. The party who sends us $20 for a club of eight copies, (all sent at one time,) will be entitled to a copy free. Postmasters and others who get up clubs, in their respective towns, can afterwards add single copies at $2.50. No subscriptions taken for a less period than one year.

When a draft or money order can conveniently be sent, it will be preferred, as it will prevent the possibility of the loss of money by mail. Remember that the postage on the Ledger to all parts of the country will be paid by us, so that our subscribers will have no postage to pay.

We employ no travelling agents. Address all communications to
