A. SHRIER—All Made Linen Bosom Shirts for 90 cents, worth $2 50. HEINSBERGER—"Faith of our Fathers." Geo. W. PRICE, Jr.—Marshal's Office.

The poor need food as well as wood. — Winter's back bone ought to be broken now. — The birds of beauty are abroad in full force to-day. — Little boys' stockings and neckties should match in color. — The business of the world is steered by tillers of the soil. — Gold touched 105 1/2 in New York yesterday, the lowest since the war. — Charcoal dust mixed with soil increases the brilliancy of leaves and flowers. — Red balmorals are quite common here now. These imported are embroidered. — Rev. George Patterson, of St. John's, this city, was in Raleigh on Wednesday.

The first masquerade ball of the season is to take place this evening at Megimney Hall. — Mother Goose is the name given by milliners to crowns having quaint tapering fronts. — The "roadstead" opposite the lower part of the city is sometimes full of square riggers. — The goose breast bone has been a complete failure as a weather prophet this winter. — Please hand in church notices by 12 o'clock, at the latest, for insertion in tomorrow's issue. — Looping the skirt at one side to display the cardinal red barmoral is the latest device of the fashionable.

We regret very much to learn that Mr. Silas N. Martin is and has been quite sick for the past few days. — A party of pleasure seekers took advantage of this Spring day and are picnicking on Masonboro Sound. — Broken pavements abound in almost every locality and broken necks may be the result unless the repairs are made soon. — The pretty weather to-day has tempted numbers to the Sound who have nothing particular to do in the city and no call to do anything. — The atmosphere to-day is more like Spring than Winter; the cry damself seems to have already found her way into the old fellow's lap. — There is much less of obtaining money under false pretences than formerly, probably owing to the difficulty of obtaining money under any pretence. — A man with a German flute can move into almost any quiet neighborhood and depreciate the value of the real estate about twenty-five per cent in one week. — No man need wish for sweeter opportunities of revenge than Christmas offers. Buy your enemy's child a drum, or, if it is to atone for injuries which blood cannot wipe out, send him an accordion. — Tempus fugit. Of course it does, and the old fellow seems to go about three hundred per cent. faster than he did only a few years ago. The driving wheels gather force and momentum with every revolution of the sun. — In order to avoid answering the question, "Who is elected?" some newspaper men have provided themselves with printed cards bearing the legend, "Damned." They are always ready to hand them out to all anxious inquirers. — Mr. Moody sensibly says that pretty girls should not permit men to kiss them at church fairs for twenty-five cents. That is right. They may be just as easily kissed after they leave the fair and for a hundred per cent less in the price. — A rejected colored jurymen thus soliloquized yesterday: "I don't understand this business. Looks to me like nattral for a man what's in trouble to get his friends on de jury. I aers been a friend to dat man in de box, and yet I is rejected."

What You Are.

You have 208 bones and 600 muscles, your blood weighs 25 pounds, your heart is 5 inches in diameter, it beats 70 times per minute, 4,200 times per hour, 100,800 per day. At each beat a little over 2 ounces of blood is thrown out of it; and each day it receives and discharges about 7 tons of that wonderful fluid.

The Mail Robbery.

George Rowe, the colored boy who was arrested on Wednesday night, charged with stealing a cheese and with obtaining mail matter from the Post office under false pretences, was carried before U. S. Commissioner Cassidey yesterday afternoon on the last named charge, and after a hearing of the evidence was bound over in the sum of $500 for his appearance at next term of the U. S. District Court. Failing to give the bond he was committed for trial.

Supreme Court.

In the Supreme Court, on Wednesday, before Justice Pearson and the Associate Justices, W. F. French vs. J. J. Nance was disposed of: — J. J. Nance vs. Carolina Central Railroad Company, from Bladen. T. H. Sutton and Lyon & Lyon for plaintiff, and W. F. French for defendant. Case argued.

The docket from the Fifth Judicial District was opened up, and the case of K. McK. Williamson vs. Flat Swamp, Lock Creek and Evans Creek Canal Company, from Moore county, was taken up. Mr. Ray for the plaintiff and J. C. McRae and C. W. Broadfoot for the defendant. Cash argued.

Turpentine Interest of Georgia.

The Macon Telegraph and Messenger says: We had very pleasant and instructive interview, yesterday, with Mr. VanBokkelen, of Wilmington, North Carolina. This gentleman has made a very large purchase of land in Appling county, near Bailey, and commenced operations in November last. He has now over one hundred hawks at work, and thirty crops of ten thousand boxes each in full blast. Each of these crops, in an ordinary season, will yield 2,200 barrels of spirits of turpentine, worth at this moment forty-seven cents per gallon, and 250 barrels of rosin containing 280 pounds to the barrel. To manage thirty crops, about eighty hands are needed, including dippers, teamsters, etc. Still, there is ample margin for profit in the premises. It is the intention of Mr. VanBokkelen to enlarge his business greatly, and, doubtless, his example will be followed by numerous other citizens of the "Old North" State, also, who will be glad to exchange their exhausted turpentine plantations for the virgin forests of Georgia. Our informant says great care should be used in boxing the trees not to overdo the matter. Not more than three orifices should be made in the largest pines, and fully six inches of space left between them. It is the neglect of this precaution that often causes the wholesale destruction of the turpentine forests. The boxes are dipped about seven times per annum, and no tree should be boxed after the sap begins to rise, say early in March. The turpentine business of Georgia, now in its infancy, is destined to no distant day to be one of the greatest elements of wealth in the State.

Superior Court.

The following cases were called and disposed of in this Court this morning: — State vs. Thomas Weeks, on a peace warrant. Ordered that the defendant be put in custody of the Sheriff, to be discharged upon giving bond of $200 for good behavior with sufficient security. Also ordered that capias issue in five days in case defendant is bailed and does not leave. — State vs. Francis Holmes, for assault and battery. Verdict guilty. — State vs. Thomas King for larceny. On trial.

A Business Proposition.

One of the original subscribers to the Sea Side Railroad requests us to state that he will donate his stock, and we hear of others who will do the same, to any company or responsible member of individuals who will undertake to complete the road to the Sound, or he will obligate himself as one of twenty-five who will complete and equip the same, provided the road franchise, &c., be surrendered to them. What says everybody? Do let us have the road by all means. Many wish to go to the Sound but are disappointed on account of the time and expense required by the present method of getting there.

Watch the Children's Feet.

The following advice from the New York Evening Post is very important. Let every mother remember it: "Life long discomforts and sudden death often come to children through the inattention or carelessness of the parents. A child should never be allowed to go to sleep with cold feet, the thing to be last attended to is to see that the feet are dry and warm. Neglect of this has often led to a dangerous attack of croup, diphtheria, or a fatal sore throat. Always on coming from school, on entering the house from a visit or errand in rainy, muddy or thawing weather, the child should remove its shoes, and the mother should herself ascertain if they are dry, they should be taken off, the feet held before the fire and rubbed with the hands till perfectly dry, and another pair of stockings and another pair of shoes put on. The reserve shoes and stockings should be kept where they are good and dry, so as to be ready for use on a minute's notice."
