SENATE.

THURSDAY, Jan. 25.
Sanford: A bill to incorporate the Academy, in Pender county,
to committee on corporations.
The bill to be entitled an act in refer-to the Mutual Insurance Company of North Carolina, repealing an act of 1874-75,
and sections 42, 43 and 44, chapter of the laws of 1871, came up on its reading, and was supported by Mr.
It passed its second reading, and is being suspended, on motion of
Jan. 29, passed 10.
The bill granted Mr. Robinson to ina resolution in relation to endorsement introduced in Congress in recounting the Presidential vote,
reads as follows:
BEAS, in the opinion of this Gen-Assembly there was grave reason to believe that a conflict would ensue between the two Houses of Congress, growing out of the count of the electoral vote
and Vice President—a conflict would result in bloodshed and anarchy, and that threatened Republicans in America, and whereas reported to the two Houses of Congress, the committee appointed to make a report on the count of the electoral vote, and a constitutional and appropriate resolution to reconcile all differences between the two Houses in regard to the count, therefore Resolved, That the thanks of the country to those members of the country who, without regard to party affiliation, patriotism and patriotism united to the country to escape the dangers of the civil war, and that copies of these resolutions be transmitted to our Senators and Representatives in Congress.
Sanford called for the yeas and nays, which resulted as follows: in the yeas, 25, in the negatives 15.
Sanford moved that the reconsideration of the swamp land bill be postponed until Thursday next, which motion was sustained.

Mr. Crawford introduced a bill to amend section 3, article 6, of the Constitution of North Carolina. Passed yeas and nays, and was referred to the judi-cary committee.
Mr. Sanford asked permission to introduce

Bitten by a Dog.

A little girl about 10 years of age, daughter of Mr. Platt, was attacked yesterday afternoon on Fourth street, near Boney Bridge, by a fierce dog and severely bitten in two places. It is about time to chain up the dogs or to shoot them.

The Third Ward.

A meeting of the members of the Third Ward Democratic Club was held last night, at which the chairman was requested to appoint a committee of five to confer with similar committees from the other wards, in reference to the action of the Central Club as regards the city bill.

Weather Prophecy.

The prophecies regarding Thursday, St. Paul's Day, are to be found in quaint verse, either Latin or English; one of these most commonly referred to was as follows:
"If St. Paul's Day be fair and clear,
It does betide a happy year;
But if it chance to snow or rain,
Then will be dear all kinds of grain;
If clouds or mists do dark the sky,
Great store of birds and beasts shall die;
And if the winds do fly aloft,
Then war shall vex the kingdom of."

From the Mountains.

Passing along on Fourth street yesterday we saw at Mr. Monroe's meat shop, a few doors South of Boney Bridge, some of the finest beef we have seen this season, which Mr. Monroe informs us was shipped to him from the mountains in the West-ern part of this State. It is now on sale by him and those fond of a good roast or tender steaks are invited to call and see this beef.

Old Bachelor's Hop

Takes place on Wednesday evening next at the City Hall. The management gives the hop complimentary to the hem-pocked husbandry and expects a rush. In this connection we would say that the world old which prefixes the word Bachelor is a thorn in the flesh of a por-tion of the management. It is strange how sensitive these unmarried men are about the matter of age, yet there are three or four of them who have been on the carpet for 10, these many years and still want to be classed among the boys of the city.

A Wilmingtonian in Trouble.

The Raleigh News tells this good one: At the Yarborough House night, before last somebody changed the shoes in front of the rooms on one whole floor, and the amount of cursing around there yester-day morning was frightful in the extreme. Half dressed men rushed wildly up and down the passage, and a deaf and dumb man would have supposed the house was on fire. The practical joker allowed his eccentricity to go to the extent of making way with one pair entirely and Capt. Brock, the doorkeeper of the Senate, appeared on the streets yesterday wearing a pair of low-quarters, cut so low in the waist that any body but a shoe-maker might take them to be slippers.

In this age of education and general intelligence the household is hardly complete without a Cornish & Co. Piano or Organ.

For the Review.

To place strong and sufficient safe-guards around the receipts and disburse-ments of all moneys belonging to the City, seems to be the point aimed at in the present anxiety of our citizens for reform.
To obtain this reform, in the opinion of a large body of taxpayers, it is abso-lutely necessary that the Democratic party should have control of the City Government.
In the opinion of many others, also taxpayers, it is believed that any proposed amendments to our Charter, looking to this mode of reform, on account of the political complexion given to such amend-ments, would in the event of a legal con-test, touching their constitutionality, be defeated by the Supreme Court.
Still another class of our citizens entertain very grave doubts as to the constitu-tionality of laws looking to reform, through the appointing power, by annulling or even abridging the elective fran-chise.
To meet the requirements of these and all others of our citizens the Board of Aldermen by their recent action have paved the way. We humbly offer the fol-lowing plan as both full and satisfactory:
We suggest that the Charter of our city be so amended, as to permit the appoint-ment by the Governor of a Comptroller, and that this appointment be conferred upon that citizen who can, irrespective of party, produce the best testimonials and the strongest bondsmen. That the Com-ptroller's bond be passed upon by the Judge of the Criminal Court. The duty of the Comptroller should be to take account of all moneys coming into the Treasury, and disburse all moneys so ordered by the proper authorities, making detailed state-ments to the public, from time to time.

He should be held to a strict accountability in the payment of all bills against the City.

He should have the legal power to refuse payment of any bills, where im-proper or exorbitant charges are made, either for material for the city or for work done for the city, and for the faithful performance of these or any other duties ap-pertaining to his office, he should through his bondsmen, be responsible to each and every taxpayer. This officer thus having the power to look into the legality of all claims against the city would in a great measure be independent of the authorities. His responsibility would be directly to the people, and the tax-payers being secured for the faithful discharge of his duties, would feel that there was an ample check on any ex-travagance as to bills contracted, or contracts awarded.

That the tax payer would be secure, would be evidenced by the character of the testimonials necessary for the applic-ant to receive the appointment, and the security of such bondsmen as the Judge of the Court would require.

This plan will meet the requirements demanded by all classes, first, because it insures, as near as possible, the honest disbursement of the tax payer's money; second, because it does away with the danger of annulling or even abridging the elective franchise, third, because, while not being a party measure, it will in a great measure unite all classes in a thor-ough and honest administration of the city government; fourth, because both parties now being equally represented on the Board of Aldermen, this measure could not be construed as a reflection on any one. These suggestions, we are well aware, are crude, but we believe any two or more taxpayers can get together and shape them into proper form. Other amend-ments, such as the reduction of salaries, if necessary, the doing away with the office of City Marshal, etc., etc., can easily be arranged. If these suggestions can be carried out, the result will be confidence restored, the credit of the city bettered and a general feeling of satisfaction will prevail.
