MURDER IN COLD BLOOD.

Our town was shocked with the sad intelligence received early Saturday morning, that Mr. Jeff E. Dunn, a most worthy young man, of Sandy Ridge township, was foully murdered in his own lot on the evening before. We learn that he had gone out to his barn about dusk to feed his stock, and after entering the lot discovered an object which proved to be a man.
After two or three efforts to find out who the intruder was, Mr. Dunn was told that he was lost (still giving no name), and asked directions to a neighbor's house.
Mr. Dunn then began giving the asked for information, when he was fired on and shot down. Helved for about two hours, and made a statement as above. Not being near enough to tell in the dim moonlight, he could not say who the assassin was. Mr. Dunn bore the reputation of being a fine young man, was highly respected by all who knew him, and his untimely death will cast a gloom of sorrow and regret over his many friends. Being very quiet and peaceably disposed, it was not supposed that he had an enemy in the world. He leaves a young wife and child to mourn their sad bereavement. May the God of the widow and orphan be with and comfort them. — Munroe Enquirer.

Wonderful Success.

It is reported that Boschee's German Syrup has, since its introduction in the United States, reached the immense sale of 40,000 dozen per year. Over 6,000
Druggists have ordered this medicine direct from the factory, at Woodbury, N. J., and not one has reported a single failure,
but every letter speaks of its astonishing success in curing severe Coughs, Colds settled on the Breast, Consumption,
or any disease of the Throat and Lungs.
We advise any person that has any predisposition to weak Lungs, to go to their Druggists—and get this Medicine, or trade about it. Regular size, 75 cents.
Sample Bottle, 10 cents. Two doses will relieve any case. Don't neglect your cough.

We have had no lectures in Wilmington this season. The fault perhaps lies more with the people than with any one else.

With some of the young folks the festive season is rapidly running to a close, as Lent will be on hand in two weeks from to-morrow.

What do young men want? Indiscretions in exchange. Most of them round here want a recipe for dressing well and paying board on no income.

The Committees from the various wards in the city met last evening and appointed a Joint Committee who will confer with the Central Committee as to an adjustment of the city question.

"I am not like some Republicans," said Hill, colored, of New Hanover, in the House, "afraid of seeing anything honest done." "Very well said," says the Raleigh News, which tells it.

An adjourned meeting of taxpayers in the county will be held at the Court House this evening for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee appointed at the meeting of the 22d inst.

Counterfeit.

We are informed that counterfeit five hundred dollar legal tender notes were offered in Augusta a few days ago, and, in all probability they will come this way. The people should be careful that none of them get mixed with their spare change. We shall be on the lookout for them, and if any are passed upon us we shall simply light our pipe with them.

The Nine P's.

A married lady sends the following as her opinion of a bachelor's idea of a wife: "A wife should have nine qualifications, which begin with the letter P—piety, perseverance, patience, prudence, patriotism, politeness, penetration, persuasion, and portion. That which should be first of all, and most of all in consideration, which is piety, is now-a-days the least of all. That which should be last of all, and least of all in consideration, which is portion, has now become first of all, most of all, and with some all in all."

Knights of Honor.

A comparatively new mystic but progressive order known as Knights of Honor has been introduced in our midst by Deputy Supreme Dictator, Jno. J. Hill, of Atlanta, Ga. A subordinate Lodge named "Carolina Lodge," was organized last night at Old Fellows' Hall. Its peculiar features are to assist each other in obtaining employment and to provide a fund from which the family of a deceased member receives $2,000. The Lodge here is now in full working order and prepared to receive petitions for membership from any good moral citizens who can stand a physical examination and who wish to co-operate with them in their laudable enterprise. The order claims to contain all of the best features of the older benevolent order, with a systematized Widow and Orphan's Benefit Fund. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

- P. D.—Marsden Bellamy.
- D.—N. Jacobi.
- V. D.—Dr. W. J. II. Bellamy.
- A. D.—R. G. Ross.
- Guide—Newton Gillican.

County Commissioners.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of County Commissions was held last evening; present Mr. Wagner, the Chairman of the Board, and Commissioners Worth, Grainger, Nixon and Holmes. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Petition of Preston Cumming, Hart & Bailey, E. E. Burruss and others, that Barren Creek Road be made a public road, was referred to the trustees of Massey's township.

Application of Dr. W. W. Lane, regarding the county sick, was referred to the Poor Committee.

It was ordered that the clerk of the Board invite sealed proposals from each drug store in Wilmington as to what amount they will be willing to furnish prescriptions for the out-door and other poor for the county. Such proposals will state the rate per prescription, and also the rate per month for which they will furnish all the medicines needed, the Board reserving to themselves the right to contract in either of the two ways for a period not exceeding twelve months.

It was ordered that the matter of the Scott contract be referred to the Committee on Poor and Hospital, with full power to annul such contract or make such other arrangements with Mr. Scott as may to them seem best; and also to establish the Poor House and Hospital on such other footing as they may think best, either by employing a suitable man to take charge of them directly for the county, or to invite sealed proposals for taking care of the poor per capita.

It was ordered that, from and after the 1st day of February, the rates allowed to the sheriff for feeding the prisoners in jail be reduced from forty-five to thirty-five cents per day.

G. W. Barnes, John Haar and C. Shriver were granted license to retail liquor.

Call at Munroe's meat store, on Fourth street, two doors South of Bancy Bridge, and get some of that fine fat beef from the mountains. He keeps the best and always sells it at lowest market prices. Fresh pork, veal, sausages, &c., constantly on hand.

Bound to be Married.

Justice Cassidy was called upon this morning to unite in the holy bonds of matrimony Manly K. Williams and Miss Eliza M. Benton, all of Brunswick county. It was an elopement. After reading the candidates a lecture as to their great responsibility he pronounced them man and wife when the happy groom informed the J. P. he was very poor and had only money enough to pay his ferrage over the river. The blessing had been given, however, and could not then be recalled.

The Bachelor's Hop.

The "old bachelors" are making active and ample preparations for the hop to be given by them at the City Hall to-morrow evening. Gray hair turned as black and glossy as a polished ebony breastpin, scant locks made up skillfully to hide the ravages of t—he election trouble on the top of the head, faces on which too many mateless years have already dawned, smoothing their wrinkled fronts, a pad here and there to make up for the roundness and symmetry of a lost youth, and rheumatic joints kerosened to the dancing point, will make the scene as gay and festive as the heart of any semi-centenarian might desire. Of course we will be there to take notes and perhaps something else—maybe a thrashing for daring, like G. W., to tell the truth.

The New River Canal.

We learn that there will be a called meeting of the citizens of Wilmington on Friday evening next, to be held at the City Hall, to take into consideration certain matters now pending before the Legislature, in relation to the inland water route. This proposed canal, from its first incipency to the present hour, has been in spirit and action, a Wilmington enterprise. The policy of the company has ever been to construct and operate this canal in the interest of Wilmington, and other interested sections of the State, and any action of the Legislature that may militate against this line of action, will be fraught with great danger to the future commercial prosperity of eastern North Carolina. We hope the people will turn out en masse as there are grave and serious questions to be discussed, touching the vital interests, not only of the citizens of Wilmington, but all the people of eastern North Carolina. This canal must be constructed and controlled as a State enterprise if it takes the "last man and the last dollar"—in the last ditch.

Response from Charlotte.

The following eloquent communication from Col. Wm. Johnston, Mayor of Charlotte, sufficiently explains itself:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 27, 1877.
To Messrs. M. P. Taylor, S. G. Hall and others, Committee:

GENTLEMEN:—Your communication in behalf of the Wilmington Light Infantry and the Cornet Concert Club, tendering to the city authorities of Charlotte your generous acknowledgments for courtesies extended, on your recent transit through the city, was duly received. A reply to your communication has been delayed until a meeting of the Board of Aldermen. In behalf of those they represent they direct me to acknowledge your favor—so expressive of slight hospitality, and express their regret that your brief sojourn did not afford the opportunity to give more substantial evidence of their appreciation of your presence.

You are pleased to allude to the commercial as well as social intercourse between the cities of Wilmington and Charlotte. These have grown and strengthened greatly since the completion of the Carolina Central Railway; nor are half the results yet realized to the social and commercial life from the completion of this great artery of trade. The construction of this line of railway was recommended to the Legislature of North Carolina by your own liberal and distinguished Gov. Dudley more than thirty years since. His enlightened sagacity foresaw that such a road would annihilate time and space and make distant strangers neighbors and friends. But other ties bind Wilmington and Charlotte—New Hanover and Mecklenburg. The 20th of May declaration, and the battle of Moore's Creek, with many other historic deeds of each—following as successive steps in a great revolution, show that they were joint champions of civil liberty one hundred years ago, as they have been of material and intellectual progress ever since. On all great occasions they have stood together; and be assured, gentlemen, that the descendants of such men as Caswell, Lillington, Ashe, Hooper, Moore, &c., will ever be welcome guests to the generous hospitality of the sons of the Polks, Brownes, Grahams, Alexanders and other worthies of old Mecklenburg and her "Hornet's Nest."

With sentiments of high regard, I am, very truly yours,
Wm. JOHNSTON, Mayor.

PLEASE NOTICE.

We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest but:
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.

Mr. J. F. Garrell, being about to remove to his plantation, offers for rent his elegant residence containing 13 rooms, with water and gas conveniences throughout, located near Third and Walnut streets. See advertisement.

Released Yesterday.
A. Sinclair and J. A. Bracey, who have been imprisoned for 60 days past under sentence from the U. S. District Court, were released yesterday. Their term of imprisonment had expired but they were still held for the costs, when they were carried before U. S. Commissioner Van Amringe, and took the insolvent debtors oath and were then released from custody.

City Court.
Before the Mayor this morning:
Annie J. Blackman, charged with allowing her cow to run at large on the streets, judgment suspended on payment of costs.
Mary Anderson, drunk on the streets, was fined $30 and costs or 35 days work on the streets.

Daniel McEachern was found guilty of a violation of the general tax ordinances, but judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

Winslow Gause, charged with the larceny of clothing, was ordered to give a justified bond for $200 for his appearance at Superior Court.

Charles Mallett, for selling cigars on the street without a license, was fined $10 and costs or 15 days work on the streets.

Alabama Melton, for keeping a junk shop without a license, was fined $10 and cost or 15 days work on the streets.

Scipio Hill, charged with disorderly conduct, case dismissed.
