The Ansonian records the death of Mr.
John Brewer, of Anson county, aged 90.
Sunday passenger trains have been discontinued on the Seaboard and Roanoke railroad.
Mrs. Mary A. Palmer has been appointed postmistress at Pittsboro, Chatham County, vice J. T. Mallory.
A rumor is current that a new daily paper is to be published in Charlotte by a stock company, the editor to be imported from St. Louis.
The Robesonian says: Mrs. Culbreth an old lady residing near Moss Neck, in this county, died at her residence last Friday, in the 89th year of her age.
The Elizabeth City and Norfolk Railroad seems to be a fixed fact. A contractor from Philadelphia has arrived at Elizabeth City and will begin work on the road soon.
Angus Love and Purnell Locklear, both colored, were frozen to death while drunk, in Robeson county, during the recent cold snap. This we learn from the Robesonian.
A dwelling house at Manson, Warren county, on the R. & G. Railroad, was destroyed by fire on Monday night. The house was unoccupied, and is believed to have been fired by tramps.
Raleigh has still another sensation. Albert Magnin, a deputy sheriff, is charged with packing the Jury box and Judge Fowle is conducting the prosecution against him and Judge Schenk is on the bench.
The Raleigh News says: The statements of the condition of the several banks of this city, show individual deposits to the amount of $813,069.45—distributed as follows: In the State National Bank, $228,419.72; in the Raleigh National, $268,648.20; and in the Citizen's National, $321,001.53.
The Raleigh News says: Mr. W. H.
Ellen, who lives on East street, in the neighborhood of Oakwood Cemetery, suffered a stroke of paralysis on the left side some time ago from which he had recovered sufficiently to walk about, but Monday night his right side was paralyzed and he is now entirely helpless.
The Charlotte Observer says that a young man in Gastonia attempted suicide by taking laudanum last Sunday night because some young lady had refused to marry him. He laid in a comfortable supply of the article and then told the girl about it who became alarmed and summoned a physician, when the young man was trotted around all night and his precious life was saved.
The Weldon News says: There is a colored woman living near here, Sabry by name, formerly the property of Colonel Andrew Joyner, who has nineteen living children, fifty-eight grandchildren and twenty-five great grandchildren. She is eighty-two years old and on three successive days in December picked ninety-nine pounds of cotton.

The Raleigh Observer says: A miserable, mean, vicious negro was up before the Mayor yesterday on a charge of assault and battery upon a child. This big scoundrel was employed as a laborer on a gravel train on the Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line Railroad, and when passing the residence of Gen. W. R. Cox, the wretch saw the General's little eight-year old boy, at whom he threw a lump of coal, which struck the child on the head, fracturing the skull. Yesterday he was arrested at Cary and brought back, and His Honor, after hearing the testimony of three witnesses, held the negro under $500 bond to answer to the Superior Court. He could not make the bond, and in default was locked up in the county jail, where he ought to stay till he goes to the penitentiary.

A Sheriff Settled.
One of the two sheriffs for whom the State Treasurer has been waiting so patiently, says the Raleigh News of Tuesday's date, arrived yesterday and settled the tax of his county. This was Sheriff W. J. Sutton, of Bladen, who paid into the treasury $8,999.16, divided as follows: Special tax, $1,812.08; general tax, $2,030.33; retailers' tax, for the educational fund, $156.75. Pender, the last county made, is the last to settle. It is, as Governor Brogden said of himself the day after the election, "the last rose upon the stalk, to show where the garden had been."

pointed recently with reference to meeting are designated as follows:

The Committee met last night and while the members will not divulge the with and that a treaty of peace will be who are working hard to help the Church.

Harbor Master's Report.
Capt. B. G. Bates, Harbor Master, makes the following report for the month of January:
Arrived—Steamers, 19; barques, 18; brigs, 11; schooners, 10; total 58. Aggregate tonnage 24,541; foreign tonnage 8,422. The pilots' report of soundings during the month, at low water, is as follows: Bald Head channel, 10 feet; Western Bar, 11 feet, 6 inches; Rip 6 feet, 6 inches; New Inlet, 9 feet, 9 inches; Rip, 9 feet.

Stole His Harness.
Some one entered the wood-vault of Mr.
J. A. Springer, corner Front and Mulberry streets, some time last night and stole therefrom a valuable set of harness, horse blanket, &c. A very fierce dog is kept in the yard at night and as it seems that he failed to give an alarm, it is assumed that the robbery was committed by some one who had at one time been employed on the premises and had thus become familiar to the dog.
As Was Expected.
For some time past we have been on the lookout for a dead hog, the natural result of the nocturnal raid made by these animals on the flower gardens in various sections of the city and yesterday it was reported that a defunct shoat had been lying on Third street, between Walnut and Red Cross, for the past two days, the carcass looking as though anatomy had hastened its exit from this world by means of a blow on the head with an axe. This is certainly an effective way for curing an evil and will probably be followed by other instances.

The Man Arrested.
We spoke yesterday, as briefly as we could, of a disgusting item of news which some people roll under the tongue as a sweet morsel but which we never publish except under protest. The girl's name is Lucinda Clark, and after our paper had gone to press a colored man by the name of Hector Davis, well known as fireman of the steam tug Wm. Nyce, and a married man, was arrested, charged with the crime.
The girl swore to his identity and Davis gave bond for his appearance this afternoon, before Justice Van Amringe. After he was released Davis attempted to commit suicide by taking laudanum but the proper remedies were applied and his life was saved—for the time being.

Sunday School Missionary Work.
The Raleigh News learns that under the supervision of Rev. G. S. Jones, of Wilmington, the American Sunday School Union has planted and aided in North Carolina during the past twelve months about eighty schools. The one great aim of this time-honored society is directed in the channel of meeting the wants of hitherto neglected communities. An open Bible, placed in the hands of all who can read, with the injunction "search the Scriptures," and see what they testify of Christ and his doctrines, is the platform on which this missionary enterprise has maintained its position through the past half century of our national existence.
For every seventy-five cents contributed to the American Sunday Union, a child has been placed under Bible instruction, while for want of Christian education and proper training of the young it costs the several States of our Union over ten million nine hundred and thirty thousand dollars for the annual support of pauperism and crime.
Prison is better than care, education is cheaper than punishment, and schools less costly than courts of justice and jails.
We are glad in view of these facts, to learn that the Union is progressing in its work in our State.
Montague curls on the forehead is the style of the passing moment.
