

FATE.
The whole wide world is in different tongues and have no common language, and no heed, of the other's being, and no heed, of the other's unknown seas to unknown islands, escaping wreck, defying death, unconsciously, shape every act of each wandering step to this one day, out of darkness they shall life's meaning in each other's eyes, shall walk some narrow way of side by side that should one turn the space to left or right, the must stand acknowledged face with wistful eyes that never meet, vain hands that never clasp, and vain ears that never hear, each other all their weary days, unsatisfied, and this is Fate.

The Great Family Paper.
THE NEW YORK LEDGER
FOR THE NEW YEAR, 1877.
The New York Ledger, now one year older, but ever new, reminds its readers that the season has arrived for the renewal of their annual subscriptions.
Many of those who were children when they first began to read the Ledger now have children of their own who read their favorite paper. There could hardly be a stronger testimonial to the excellence of its character than is thus given to the Ledger by the regular renewal of these subscriptions.
Our great exertion for the coming year will be to make a volume that will compare favorably with the best of its predecessors.
The Ledger is always alive and fresh and full of interest.
The stories for the coming year will be by the most popular of our old writers and the best of the new writers who have occasionally contributed to our columns.
The miscellaneous articles by eminent scholars and divines will be continued so will our accurate scientific department.
We shall reply, as heretofore, to the innumerable questions sent to us on love and domestic affairs, and every variety of subject.
Wherever the Ledger goes—and it goes nearly every where—it is generally conceded there is not a reader to whose happiness it does not minister.

Our subscribers will have no postage to pay. We prepay the postage on every paper that we mail.
OUR TERMS FOR 1877.—POSTAGE FREE Single copies, 43 per annum, four copies, $10, which is $2.50 a copy; eight copies, $20, postage free. The party who sends us $20 for a club of eight copies, (all sent at one time), will be entitled to a copy free. Postmasters and others who get up clubs, in their respective towns, can afterwards add single copies at $2.50. No subscriptions taken for a less period than one year.
When a draft or money order can conveniently be sent, it will be preferred, as it will prevent the possibility of the loss of money by mail. Remember that the postage on the Ledger to all parts of the country will be paid by us, so that our subscribers will have no postage to pay.
We employ no travelling agents. Address all communications to

ALL CORRESPONDENCE,

OUR SUBSCRIPTION LIST,

SCRIBNER'S MONTHLY.
AN UNRIVALED ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE
When Scribner issued its famous Midsummer Holiday Number in July, a friendly critic said of it: "We are not sure but that Scribner has touched high-water mark. We do not see what worlds are left to it to conquer." But the publishers do not consider that they have reached the ultima thule of excellence—they believe "there are other worlds to conquer, and they propose to conquer them."
The prospectus for the new volume gives the titles of more than fifty papers (mostly illustrated), by writers of the highest merit.
Under the head of "Foreign Travel,"
we have "A winter on the Nile," by Gen. Mc-Clellan; "Saunterings About Constantinople," by Charles Dudley Warner; "Out of My Window at Moscow," by Eugene Schuyler; "An American in Turkistan," etc. Three serial stories are announced: Nicholas Minturn,
By Dr. Holland, the Editor, whose story of "Sevenoaks" gave the highest satisfaction to the readers of the Monthly.
The scene of this latest novel is laid on the banks of the Hudson. The hero is a young man who has been always "tied to a woman's apron strings," but who, by the death of his mother, is left alone in the world, to drift on the current of life,—with a fortune, but without a purpose.
Another serial, "His Inheritance," by Miss Trafton, will begin on the completion of "That Lass o' Lowrie's," by Mrs. Hodgson Burnett.
Mrs. Barrett's story, begun in August, has a pathos and dramatic power which have been a surprise to the public.
There is to be a series of original and exquisitely illustrated papers of "Popular Science," by Mrs. Herrick, each paper complete in itself.
There are to be, from various pens, papers on
"Home Life and Travel." Also, practical suggestions as to town and country life, village improvements, etc., by well known specialists.
Mr. Barnard's articles on various industries of Great Britain include the history of "Some Experiments in Co-operation," "A Scottish Loom Factory" in the November number, and "Toad Lane, Rochdale," in December. Other papers are, "The British Workingman's Home," "A Nation of Shopkeepers," "His Penny a Week for the Child," etc.
A richly illustrated series will be given on "American Sports by Flood and Field," by various writers, and each on a different theme. The subject of "Household and Home Decoration" will have a prominent place, while the latest productions of American humorists will appear from month to month. The list of short-stories, biographical and other sketches, etc., is a long one.
The editorial department will continue to employ the ablest pens both at home and abroad. There will be a series of letters on literary matters, from London, by Mr. Welford.
The pages of the magazine will be open, as heretofore, to a limited space will permit to the discussion of all those subjects of social and religious life of the world, and especially to the freshest thought of the Christian thinkers and scholars of this country.
We mean to make the magazine "better and purer, higher and nobler, more general and generous in all its utterances and influences, and a more welcome visitor than ever before in homes of refinement and culture." FIFTEEN MONTHS FOR $4.
Scribner for December, now ready, and which contains the opening chapters of "Nicholas Minturn," will be read with eager curiosity and interest. Perhaps no more readable number of this magazine has yet been issued. The three numbers of Scribner for August, September, and October, containing the opening chapters of "That Lass o' Lowrie's," will be given to every subscriber (who requests it), and whose subscription begins with the November number.
Subscription price, $4 a year—35 cents a number. Special terms on bound volumes.

What better investment can be made for schools?
More than TEN TIMES as many are sold of Webster's Dictionaries as of any other series
