NEWS SUMMARY.
The Tarboro Southern says: We were informed in Weidon on Wednesday, that Mr. B. F. Lockhart, of that place, died suddenly at his home about 10 a. m., on that day. He had been complaining a day or two, and twenty minutes before his death, was sitting up. Apoplexy was the probable cause. Mr. Lockhart had represented Northampton county in the Legislature and was about 50 years old.
The State Grange, in session this week at Goldsboro, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Master, S. B. Alexander, of Mecklenburg; Overseer, N. B. Whitfield, of Lenoir; Lecturer, F. H. Pemberton, of Cabarrus; Steward, D. H. Armstrong, of Pender; Assistant Steward, H. E. King, of Onslow; Chaplain, Rev. Wm. Grant, of Northampton; Treasurer, Dr. D. W. Benbow, of Guilford; Secretary, J. E. Porter, of Edgecombe; Gate Keeper, W. T. Wharton, of Guilford; Ceres, Mrs. S. B. Alexander; Pomona, Mrs. N. B. Whitfield; Flora, Miss Eugenia Robinson, of Cabarrus; Lady Ass't S., Mrs. H. E. Kink.

The colonization scheme died the death it deserved to die, in the Senate on Thursday, and Joe Hill killed it.
Prof. J. W. Hartley will give one of his interesting and amusing readings in this city on next Monday evening.
Mr. W. H. Seward, of New York, a son of the late Secretary Seward, is in the city, with his family, and stopping at the Purcell House.
The alarm of fire last night, about 9 o'clock, was caused by the burning of a chimney on the premises of Mr. Geo. F. Colin on South Water street. No damage.
The old house on the corner of Third and Red Cross Streets, just south of St. John's Church, has been torn down to make room for a handsome residence to be erected by Mr. R. C. Orrell.
And now they have gone to canning pig's feet. Mr. George Myers has them, an invoice having just been received. They are put up in Cincinnati and are fresh, sweet and cheap, and we know all about it because we have tried them.
A postmaster cannot deliver from his office mail matter addressed to and deliverable from another office, but mail matter addressed to persons at a discontinued office should be received and delivered by the post master at the next nearest post office.
The Finance Committee of the Board of County Commissioners met last evening, and audited a large number of accounts but ordered that none of them be palced on the warrant book until some arrangements can be made for their payment, a fact we are glad to chronicle.
Can You Identify Them?
The pair of pants and coat found on the person of a negro man who was arrested a few days ago were identified this morning as the property of Mr. Marsden Bellamy. There is one fine broadcloth coat, 4 pair of do. pants, 3 vests, 1 pair of fine pillow cases and a small piece of cloth stamped M. M. Katz, in the hands of the officers who made the arrest and subsequently unearthed the above articles. Persons who have lost such articles are requested to examine them at Justice Gardner's office.
A Treat Ahead.
Miss Mary Anderson, the popular young tragedienne, who has been performing in the prominent cities to the South of us, supported by Mr. Geo. C. Boniface and Cyril Searle, will play in Romeo and Juliet at the Opera House in this city next Saturday evening. The sale of seats will commence on Tuesday next at Heinsberger's. She comes to us with excellent recommendations, the press of Augusta, Atlanta, Savannah and Charleston giving her most unqualified praise. Miss Anderson is very young, being not yet 18 years old and having been on the stage for less than a year. Mr. John T. Ford is the Manager and this fact is in itself an additional recommendation of the merits of the Company.
City Government.
The Committee of Twenty, Ten from the Wards and Ten from the Central Reform Committee, will meet this evening at 7 1/2 o'clock, at the Court House to hear the report of sub-Committee of them.
The Last of the Season.
The closing Hop of the season of Mr. James M. Brown's dancing school took place at Lippitt's Hall last evening. The floor was covered by the little ones (and some of the big ones, too) while parents and visitors smiled approval from the seats which had been arranged for them in the Hall. It was a very pleasant occasion and the little folks did just as much dancing and had just as much fun as they could possibly crowd into the short hours.
The Thermometer.
From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:
Augusta, 42; Charleston, 40; Cincinnati, 32; Jacksonville, 52; Key West, 62; Knoxville, 42; Lynchburg, 31; Memphis, 33; Mobile, 51; Montgomery, 46; Nashville, 32; New Orleans, 51; New York, 31; Norfolk, 35; Pittsburg, 26; Savannah, 42; St. Louis, 37; Washington, 26; Wilmington, 32.
Another Fire.
The fire alarm this morning was caused by the burning of a bed and bedding in the residence of Mr. John Hopkins, on the corner of Third and Ann streets. The fire originated from a spark which popped from the fireplace to the bed setting the sheets on fire. The Fire Department was promptly out but their services were not required. In this connection we are requested to say to the City Fathers that the fire alarm is not rung long enough and that it is seldom that all the alarms are sounded.
The New River Canal.
Says the Raleigh News: Maj. Young, who has been absent from the city for some time past, returned yesterday, bringing with him a lengthy petition from citizens of Wilmington, memorializing the Legislature to pass the bill for the improvement and reclamation of certain swamp lands in Onslow and other counties: in other words to give to the New River Canal Company one half the swamp lands between Wilmington and Pamlico Sound for the reclamation to the State of the other half. The petition is said to represent more wealth than any that was ever presented to a General Assembly in this State.
Changes in the Express Office.
On the first of the present month a change was made in the Southern Express Co.'s office in this city. Mr. Keen, the recent and obliging agent, has been relieved by Mr. W. W. Allen, formerly of Danville, Va., who is now in full charge of the office. Mr. Wm. Tilly, recently of Columbia, presiding over the money department, and Mr. J. A. Wolfe, of Petersburg, has charge of the freight department. We welcome Mr. Allen and his assistants to our city, and wish them a profitable and pleasant sojourn among us.
Mr. Keen is running between Wilmington and Charleston, in the employment of the company, Mr. Latham occupies a desk in the money department of the Express Company in Charleston, and Mr. Metts, we believe, is in business with his brother in this city.
How to Go to Sleep.
Various have been the methods adopted for courting "balmly sleep" by afflicted humanity, none of which have proven satisfactory. Who is it that has not lain for hours counting black sheep jumping a fence till he has reached the millions, or a hundred backwards till his head would swim, vainly endeavoring to win the "sweet restorer"? The question has received the attention of a scientific physician who suggests that it is only necessary to breathe very slowly and quietly for a few minutes to secure refreshing sleep. He thinks that most cases depend on hyperemia of the brain, and that in this slow breathing the blood supply is lessened sufficiently to make an impression. Certainly, when the mind is uncontrollably active, and so preventing sleep, we have ascertained from patients, whose observation was worth trusting, that the breathing was quick and short, and they have found they became more disposed to sleep by breathing slowly. This supports the doctor's practice, but at other times his plans quite failed. It is certainly worth any one's while, who is occasionally sleepless, to give it a trial.

Amusement.
Last night we had the pleasure of attending the Concert at the Opera House, for the benefit of Prof. Van Laer and the Cornet Concert Club. It will doubtless be remembered by many of our readers that these gentlemen, assisted by some other ladies and gentlemen, gave a Concert on the 23d of last month in behalf of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, on which occasion a rich musical treat was afforded the public, who showed their appreciation by being present in large numbers, still owing to the inclemency of the weather, many were prevented from hearing it. Last night, however, the clerk of the weather placed no obstacle of that nature in the way, and a very large and appreciative audience assembled to enjoy the feast provided for lovers of music. We noticed several improvements in details, showing care and foresight on the part of the management. Shortly after 8 o'clock, the curtain rose on the Cornet Band, who performed in capital time a Quickstep, (Estella) by Goetz; they afterwards played the first number of the second part: Andante and Waltz Garland, for which they received an encore, and the last number on the programme Andante and Waltz, by Keller. They seem to improve every time they appear in public. In the third number of the first part, Mr. Johnson's flute playing, accompanied by the stringed orchestra, evoked much applause and on being recalled, he played the well known melody, "Massa in de Cold Ground." Messrs. Hargrove, Chadburn, Mitchell and Robinson gave two songs with chorus: Stars of the Summer Night, by Abt, and By the Old Mill Stream.
Mrs. Kahnweiler, with her usual kindness, was present and sang the air from Bonizetti, entitled "O Mio Fernando," for which she was recalled and sang the Cuckoo Song, by Abt. In the second part she appeared again and sang Eckert's Swiss song, and on being recalled sang Estacy, by Ardite.
With so many gems as Mrs. Kahnweiler has in her repertoire, it is difficult to indicate any one above another as deserving of special mention, unless the exquisite vocalization of the Swiss song be excepted; we congratulate her on the excellent taste she has shown in her selections, and thank her for the treat she has afforded us. In connection with her singing, however, we must not omit to mention Mr. Fred DeRosset, whose careful accompanying was very noticeable.
In the second part Mr. Northrop sang "The White Squall," and, on being recalled, gave the well-known ballad, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep." He was followed by Mr. Hargrave in a serenade, who was also recalled.
The appearance of the "Zithern" created much enthusiasm and the performer, Mr. Ehrlich, after playing an original composition, was recalled and played a melody from Il Trovatore, and, on being again recalled, he reappeared with Mr. VanOrsdell and played a duet.
One of the principal features of the evening's entertainment was Suppe's Overture to Poet and Peasant. No one will deny that this afforded scope for the most ambitious performer; commencing andante and piano it changes to an allegretto movement, then to an allegro strepitoso, then by several startling transitions fortissimo, it returns to its original theme allegretto piano and thence allegro to its finale. To the first violin and to Mrs. Taylor, who presided at the piano, were allotted the most arduous parts and it is needless to add that they proved themselves quite equal to the task; the rendition of the whole showed careful study, the various themes were promptly taken up and the difficult changes in time properly marked. We are glad to note that Mr. VanLaer is making these overtures a feature in his concerts; it is a work of no little labor, but it will repay him amply in the end.
The seventh number was a chorus from Rossini's "Italiana Algiers." Mrs. Taylor, who was received with applause, accompanied it with a chorus of twelve voices and Mr. DeRosset on the cornet.
At the close of this Mr. Bowden stepped forward and tendered the thanks of the Cornet Club and Mr. VanLaer to the large and appreciative audience. We have only to add that we wish that these gentlemen may favor us again with many more such entertainments and hope their present success will act as an incitement for if our citizens have given them such marks of appreciation in these hard times they will undoubtedly patronize such entertainments to a greater extent when times improve.

Savannah Benevolent Association, 1876.
The following letter was received by the Mayor of this city from the Savannah Benevolent Association.
RESOLUTION OF THANKS, PASSED JANUARY 11TH, 1877.
When the people of this city bowed, trembling under their recent dreadful calamity; when thousands fled for safety; when industry was paralyzed and commerce suppressed; when want, pestilence and death joined in their ghastly and unsparring work; when tenderness failed to soothe and skill to save; when the strong grew weak and the timid quailed; when the brave were resigned and only the reckless defiant: Then came citizens and strangers, from far and near—a noble band—with ready hands, and willing hearts, came unsolicited, upon this scene of desolation pain and woe, proffering their devoted service—some sacrificing their lives—to the needy, the sick, the suffering, and the dead.
Then, too, from the North, the East, the West, and the South, even from beyond Seas, came an impouring of benefaction, universal, and so lavish that, leaving no room for want, religious blessings and gratitude reveres humanity so supreme:
Therefore, Resolved, That the thanks of this Association and of its members individually, and in the name of our grateful people be, and they are hereby tendered to all those who, whether citizens or strangers, who gave their personal services in any capacity, and also to all those who, in Savannah, in the State of Georgia, elsewhere in the United States, and in other countries, contributed money or supplies to the relief

About two o'clock this morning the fire alarm was sounded and two houses, the property of police officer Walcott, were destroyed; also the house in which a colored woman, Jane Cowan, was living. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, and, owing to the difficulty experienced by the fire department in getting water, the houses were entirely destroyed. Most of the furniture of the houses was burned. The flames spread so rapidly that a great many pigeons and fowls belonging to the premises were overcome by the heat and were roasted in the burning buildings. The property was insured, but for what amount, we could not ascertain, and it is thought Mr. Walcott will sustain a severe loss.

Destroyed.
About two o'clock this morning the fire alarm was sounded and two houses, the property of police officer Walcott, were destroyed; also the house in which a colored woman, Jane Cowan, was living. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, and, owing to the difficulty experienced by the fire department in getting water, the houses were entirely destroyed. Most of the furniture of the houses was burned. The flames spread so rapidly that a great many pigeons and fowls belonging to the premises were overcome by the heat and were roasted in the burning buildings. The property was insured, but for what amount, we could not ascertain, and it is thought Mr. Walcott will sustain a severe loss.
