THE SITUATION.
The change in the situation at the Democratic are more the Republicans are as com- on in the Louisiana case will be considered this week but this is doubtful. The question is narrowed itself down to a decision and those who look more than a political decision to be disappointed. The case is tried upon its merits there is hope for us we all hope for it. It will either be counted upon and in this latter will be elected by the House, at Louisiana we feel only ask Was the Florida case decided? If it was there is hope for us; if it was not there is no hope. Expressing this latter view of it here what Representative Florida, a Republican member, on the floor of the House, on the telegraphic report: He was engaged all day in de- port of the Florida invest- ment, the majority report de- Tilden electors to have been as the minority the Hayes there was but little interest in until Purman, of Florida, rose, ensuring his party associates for the indifference which it to the result of the election in and for the blunder it had as to admit Pinchback into mate as a Senator from Louis- iana, that, though a staunch he felt it his duty to say that electors had been duly elected and he characterized the Can- did of that State as a bold, un- scrupulous body. As will be seen by reference to the Legislative proceedings the bill to appoint Messrs. F. D. Poisson, R. S. French and E. S. Martin special commissioners for the county of New Hanover, to investigate books and accounts of the county, passed its several readings in the Senate on Monday.

Annual Meeting.
The 24th annual meeting of the Wilmington Seamen's Friend Society will be held in the Bethel this evening at 8 o'clock. It is desired that every member be present. The citizens are also invited.

An Item.
For the information of the department, an actual count of the number of pieces of mail originating at the Post Office in this city, for the past four weeks, has been taken, amounting in the aggregate to eighty-six thousand three hundred and twenty-five pieces.

The Readings Last Night.
Prof. Hartley read last evening to a small but select audience who were greatly entertained by the wonderful powers of the elocutionist. It is to be regretted that our citizens are so inert in all instances where a literary entertainment is offered them.

The Light Artillery.
The Cape Fear Light Artillery were out yesterday on parade, under the command of Maj. James Reilly, the Senior Lieutenant in the company. They drilled excellently, giving a specimen of sabre exercise, which elicited the admiration of all who saw it. They are a fine looking body of men and an ornament to the city.

The Festival this Evening.
We are requested to call attention to the fact that the ladies of the Fifth Street M. E. Church will have a Festival this evening for the benefit of their church, at the residence of Mrs. Fleet, corner Orange and Front streets. There will be lots of cake, oysters, &c., for sale and those who may attend will probably find it a pleasant occasion.

The Last of the Shops.
The tall chimney to the W. C. Eagle Island, opposite Market Dock, was laid low this morning. It was tackled by Mr. N. B. Vincent, who caused his men to break into one of the sides, when it fell. There were upwards of 12,000 bricks in that chimney, and its fall shook the entire island.

Severely Burned.
The clothing of a grown colored woman living in "Brooklyn" caught fire this afternoon about 2 o'clock, and before the flames could be extinguished she was very severely burned. She was engaged in ironing some pieces of clothing when she discovered her clothes to be on fire and rushed frantically on the streets imploring help. A colored man who was some distance off ran to her assistance, throwing her down and heaping sand upon her burning garments. When the flames were extinguished she was found to be delirious. The burn is considered of a very dangerous character, though some hopes are entertained for her recovery.

The Right Man in the Right Place.
Some few weeks ago a young man by the name of Theodore F. White, came here, as he says in his own account of himself, from Danville, Va. He was accompanied by a good looking young woman, who he introduced as his wife, and they found board at a very respectable boarding house kept by a lady. White proposed to teach a commercial school, and to this end got five scholars who paid him $5 each in advance. So far the school prospered wonderfully, but not a lesson have the pupils yet received although they have long since paid their money.

A few days since White, with his wife, so-called, left their boarding house and afterwards turned up as proprietors of a house in the lower part of the city said to be a house of ill-fame. Thither he was followed by one of his pupils who demanded of him to return the money he had paid him for the lessons he had never received. White refused to refund the money and the young man threatened legal proceedings. This White mistook for a personal threat, and so yesterday he appeared before Justice VanAminge, and sued out a peace warrant against the young man. The case was heard this morning and the evidence failing to sustain the charge, the case was dismissed and White was adjudged to pay the costs, failing to do which he was committed to jail, where he now luxuriates while his "wife", Hattie Seymour, the creature he imposed upon decent people, is at liberty to pursue her old calling.

The Parade Yesterday.
There was a full-dress parade Yesterday afternoon of the Wilmington Light Infantry, in response to the notice given by Maj. Taylor. The ranks were not as full as the friends of the company might have desired, but yet what they lacked in numbers they made up in the precision with which they executed the various maneuvers of the drill. We would be glad to see the boys appear at least once every month.

Reducing the Force.
And it is not only in regard to gas that orders have been issued by the Board of County Commissioners relative to the county officials; but henceforth all are to furnish their own fuel and their own blanks and stationery. The number of hangers-on too about the Court, who have been dignified by the name of "officers of the Court" have been reduced to three, with which force it is thought that we may manage to squeeze through the next term. There were but thirteen of them before.

Robbery.
The slaughter house in the butcher pen of Mr. Thos. H. Johnson was robbed last night of about one hundred and fifty pounds of very fine beef. Mr. J. succeeded in getting some very nice cattle yesterday which he had butchered in the afternoon, and had hung up in the house until this morning. Several very fine watch-dogs are kept in the pen and as the house was robbed without the accustomed signal from the dogs when strangers are around, the supposition is the thief was familiar with the situation and was known by the dogs.

An Early Spring.
It will be noticed that as far North as Albany, New York, the rivers and ocean inlets are opening to navigation daily, and entire confidence is expressed by the newspapers that they will not be closed again this season. All these authorities are looking for a much earlier spring than "tory" birds are started to us "have in" justify such anticipations. Well, we shall not dare to take issue with the river ice and the birds—especially the wild geese; but, if we fail to have a severe March, we shall be agreeably disappointed.

Look at It.
Mr. Heinsberger has on exhibition in his art gallery a very handsome landscape made by Mrs. E. E. Jackson, of Randolph county, a sister so Mr. D. G. Worth. The landscape was sent to Mr. Worth a few days ago, and, as it is something so unique and handsome, he was induced to put it on exhibition to let others less fortunate than himself have an opportunity of seeing and enjoying it. It is made of mosses, ferns and barks gathered from Mt. Mitchell, in the Western part of this State, and represents a scene on the French Broad river. It is a very handsome thing and received very many encomiums at the Centennial, where it was placed on exhibition.

The Wilmington Court Bill.
We publish the following, from yesterday's Raleigh Observer, as a still further continuation of the above matter, which has treated by us editorially yesterday. It is hoped that the friends of our section will rally to its relief and give us the court we ask.

There is opposition, we know, and opposition from a source we should not have thought of, but for this opposition we care nothing. We want this Criminal Court bill passed and there is no reason why we should not have it. The article from the Observer, referred to above, is as follows: We learn that our friends in Wilmington are becoming quite apprehensive as to the fate of the bill to establish a special court in that city, now so serenely reposing in the bosom of the House Judiciary Committee.

They see with alarm the near approach of the end of the session and no step taken for their own peculiar relief. The say, and say justly, too, that the can get no relief from any general bill now pending that they have any knowledge of. The city of Wilmington contains near 20,000 inhabitants, and needs a special court with a single Judge that shall be in session almost, if not altogether, all the year round. It is manifest that her case is an exceptional one, and that there is no need to delay giving the required relief, in the hope that it will be had from any general bill.

Will not some gentleman in the House, who has a warm place in his heart for the goodly City by the Sea, take the matter in hand and put it through? We are quite sure there are many such in the House, both willing and able to do the deed. To all such we say, "twere well it were done quickly."

The Thermometer.
From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:
Augusta, 39; Charleston, 39; Cincinnati, 30; Jacksonville, 52; Key West, 63; Knoxville, 39; Lynchburg, 25; Memphis, 36; Mobile, 52; Montgomery, 39; Nashville, 41; New Orleans, 54; New York, 14; Norfolk, 28; Pittsburg, 17; Savannah, 59; St. Louis, 31; Washington, 20; Wilmington, 32.

City Court.
Millard Smith, a vagrant, found sleeping under a shed on the wharf, was fined $5 and costs or 10 days work on the streets.

Kate Thigpen, charged with allowing gambling in her house, was found guilty but judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

William Price, for the larceny of wood, the property of John Meyer, was bound over the Superior Court in the sum of $100, justified bond.

Western N. C. Railroad.
The bill for the speedy completion of this road passed its third and final reading in the House on Monday and goes thence to the Senate. It was amended and the House and Senate may refuse to concur on these amendments, but such action, if it does take place, will but serve to delay, and not defeat the bill. The following in effect are the House amendments:

1. The number of convicts employed in the completion of the road is not to be reduced below five hundred.
2. The Directors are to be elected from each Congressional district.
3. The private stockholders' interest in the road is practically nullified. It was contended that the holders of private stock ought not to be entitled to share in the profits unless they bear a part of the burdens. As they had contributed no part of the purchase money, $850,000, and do not propose to contribute their proportionate part of the labor necessary to the completion of the project, they had no legal or moral right to participate with the State in its ownership. On the other hand, it is believed that they have a moral or taken away.

In this age of education and general intelligence the household is hardly complete without a Cornish & Co. Piano or Organ. Read the advertisement in another column, and then send for illustrated catalogue and price list. Jan 8.

Cut this Out—It May Save Your Life
There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boesche's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wondrous cures astonish every one that tries it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist, and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents.
