The Fayetteville Gazette says: Last Friday night, about 1 o'clock, a fire broke out on the roof of Mr. Bousbee in lower Fayetteville and, notwithstanding every effort to save the property, the building was consumed. The loss of furniture was considerable; the house was insured.
Some Masonic statistics for this State are as follows: Lodges at work, 240; members admitted during the Masonic year ending October 31, 1876, 484; died, 115; number of members of lodges, 9,035; number of Masons not members of lodges, 2,882; whole number of Masons in the State, 11,917.
Austin Williams, colored, aged 14, of Raleigh, forged a note and it was agreed that a note proes be entered if his father would "talk" to him. Two policemen held the boy and the old man laid on 39 with a leather strap on the bare cuticle. It will be worth more than a year in the Penitentiary to that boy.
The Raleigh News says: The bondholders, through their counsel, appeared again yesterday afternoon before the joint committee on the State Debt. They propose to compromise at 40 cents on the dollar of the anti-war debt, and at 80 cents on the debt contracted since. This would give the State about $7,000,000 to pay or perhaps not more than $6,500,000, principal and interest.
The Raleigh Observer says: "The House of Representatives resolved yesterday that the best manner for that body to celebrate Washington's birthday, the 22nd, was to meet and devote the day to such legislation as will reflect credit and honor upon themselves and the State." In which case it is a pity that Washington has not got a birth day for every one that the present Legislature remains in session.

Sympathy constitutes friendship; but in love there is a sort of antipathy or opposing passion. Each strives to be the other, and both together make up one whole.
The days are lengthening and when a man now goes home to his dinner, he discovers that there is a vacancy, and sits down to the table and proceeds without delay to fill that vacancy.
Boneless codfish is all the fashion now. Besides the number of hasty ejaculations it saves on Fridays it has the merit of preventing fond mothers from losing time by carefully taking the fine comb out of the back.
A bride's dress was of pale cate an fait silk, arranged with diagonal plaits and flounces of the same shade on a train of a deeper shade; her head-dress was of blush roses and small garlands of vine leaves, with bunches of grapes.
There were 180 names on the petition for a Criminal Court here, which was sent up to Raleigh last night, and these were obtained by one gentleman in a few hours. This shows how unanimous our people are in the demand for the court.
There is one time in a man's life when even the eloquence of Burke would not give fit expression to the yearnings of his exalted spirit, and that time is when he gets up in the night to find the baby a drink, carries his ankle on the rocking chair, and jumps round on one leg while he holds his wounded foot in his left hand. It is then that he says indistinctly something about "sell," or "knell," or "tell."
Opinions.
Among the recent decisions rendered in the Supreme Court we find the following, by Justice Rodman:
State vs. James Mathews, from Robinson; affirmed.
State vs. Andy Wincroft, from Robinson; affirmed.
The Shootists.
The two teams of the St. George and St. Andrew's Athletic Club shot yesterday at the Park Grounds and "victory perched on the banners" of Team No. 1, composed of Messrs. DuB. Cutlar, L. S. F. Brown, Wm. Fyfe, W. R. Kenan and B. P. Harrison. The names of Team No. 2 are suppressed through motives of delicacy obvious to all.
Please Repair It.
Will Mayor Canaday, or the Marshal, or the five Conservatives on the Board of Aldermen, or somebody whose ever business it is, be kind enough to see that the brick pavement on Third street, just north of the City Hall, is repaired at once? Ye local has stumped his right leg too there now just long enough and often enough to have it become a very sore subject.
The Concert To-Night.
The Sunday School entertainment to be given at Brooklyn Hall this evening by the pupils of the Baptist Mission School, promises to be a very pleasant affair to those who may attend. There will be music, recitation, dialogues, &c., and the admission has been placed very low. A large attendance is looked for on the occasion.

Oregon for Hayes.
Information has been received here by telegraph, just before we go to press, to the effect that the Commission will render a decision, giving Oregon to Hayes. There is no disappointment as to the result as everybody had expected it. It is but part and parcel of the grand put-up job and for all intents and purposes the findings of the Commission in the three disputed States, Florida, Louisiana and Oregon, might just as well have been appended to the oath so solemnly taken by the immortal Eight.
The Thermometer.
From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:
Augusta, 49; Charleston, 56; Cincinnati, 47; Jacksonville, 59; Key West, 64; Knoxville, 36; Lynchburg, 43; Memphis, 42; Mobile, 46; Montgomery, 46; Nashville, 42; New Orleans, 49; New York, 38; Norfolk, 46; Pittsburg, 40; Savannah, 55; St. Louis, 34; Washington, 37; Wilmington, 51.
City Court.
The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning:
H. Banks, charged with the larceny of wood, was bound over to the Superior Court, in the sum of $25.
Ames Joneson and Lorian Agust, two sailors, were charged with resisting the police force but the case against them was dismissed on payment of costs.
Two young men whose names we suppress, charged with disorderly conduct, but judgment against them was suspended on the payment of costs.
Madcap Violet.
Mr. Heinsberger has placed on our table a copy of this, William Black's last work, with a request that we read it. We have read it and find it far superior to any of the same author's previous books, save alone his Princess of Thule, where Sheila, sweet Sheila, rules as one of the loveliest of the many lovely creations of fiction. Madcap Violet is indeed a charming book, sad yet sweet, and he who once takes it up will not willingly lay it aside until it reaches the last page. We can only regret the want of space in which to give it a careful review.
The Feast of Purim.
The anniversary of this Feast falls due next Tuesday, the 27th inst., and will probably be celebrated becomingly by the Jewish residents of this city. The Feast of Purim is held in honor of the delivery of the Jewish people from the curse of Haman, by Queen Esther, and which is so beautifully described in the book of Esther.
It is probable that there will be a Ball and supper given at the City Hall on the evening of the day as we understand that the matter is now being taken into consideration.
The Wrecked Schooner.
The vessel spoken of by us yesterday as being ashore at the mouth of the river proves to be the Etta May, from Philadelphia for this port with a cargo of coal for Mr. J. A. Springer. She went ashore on New Inlet bar on Wednesday, about noon, and was leaking badly. She bilged that night and yesterday was stripped by the steam tug Douglass, Capt. Jacobs, which went to her relief. The officers and crew were brought here last night out the vessel and cargo will prove a total loss.
The lost vessel registered 152 tons, was rigged fore and aft and had on 250 tons of coal. This coal was put on the schooner on the 3d of last December at Philadelphia and shortly after she dropped down the river but encountering more ice put in at Newcastle, about 40 miles from Philadelphia, where she remained until the ice broke up and rendered navigation safe. The coal was insured for $1,000 with Messrs. Atkinson & Manning's agency in this city, as we are informed by Mr. Springer.
Cut this Out—It May Save Your Life.
There is no person living but what suffers more or less with Lung Disease, Coughs, Colds or Consumption, yet some would die rather than pay 75 cents for a bottle of medicine that would cure them. Dr. A. Boschoe's German Syrup has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and its wondrous cures astonish everyone that tries it. If you doubt what we say in print, cut this out and take it to your Druggist, and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it, or a regular size for 75 cents.
Men spend their lives in the service of their passions, instead of employing their passions in the service of their lives.

Official Letter from Bishop Gibbons.
Right Rev. Bishop Gibbons has issued an official circular letter in which he urges upon the clergy and the faithful the propriety of joining with the Catholic world in commemorating, in a suitable manner, the fiftieth anniversary of the Episcopal consecration of Pope Pius IX, which occurs on the 21st of May. To secure concerted action in this matter he requests each clergyman to announce to their respective congregations that a collection will be taken up in all the churches of the diocese, on the 25th day of February, the second Sunday in Lent. The amount collected, together with the list of the names of the contributors, will be forwarded as early as practicable to the Secretary of the Diocese, so that the offerings, together with the donors' names, may be presented in due time to the Holy Father.
In view of this extraordinary appeal the Bishop states that the usual annual collection for the Pope will be omitted.
Accident to Mr. Oliver Kelly.
This morning, about 10 o'clock, an accident occurred to Mr. Oliver H. Kelly, on the railroad yard on Nutt street, which nearly cost him his life. Mr. Kelly was on his way to the C. C. R. W., depot and in crossing the track of the W. & W. R. R., his attention was attracted by something up the road at which he stood for a few moments gazing intently. Just before Mr. Kelly came up the yard engine had passed down the track towards the river a very short distance below the street, where it coupled on to some cars and then again moved up the track, backing as it did so. Mr. Kelly was standing just between the rails and although the bell of the engine was rung, as it always is at the crossings, he unconsciously took no heed of the fact and knew nothing of his danger until he was struck by the train. The engine was moving slowly at the time or Mr. Kelly would probably have been thrown across the track and then crushed to death. As it was he fell between the rails and had presence of mind enough to draw up his legs to keep them from the wheels. He was struck on the head by the swinging brake and at this point managed to cling to the machinery and was dragged several feet. The accident was witnessed by several gentlemen on the yard who shouted to the engineer to stop. This he did at once by reversing his engine and Mr. Kelly was rescued from his perilous position. He may have received some internal injuries but to all appearances he is not seriously hurt. His arm and the right side of his face were cut and bruised by the brake beam as it struck him and these seem to be the severest injuries. He was able, with assistance, to walk to the buggy which had been procured to take him home and we trust that he will be up and about again in a few days.
In this age of education and general intelligence the household is hardly complete without a Cornish & Co. Piano or Organ. Read the advertisement in another column, and then send for illustrated catalogue and price list.
