THE COUNT PROCEED.

was announced by us yesterday has been declared for Hayes by the majority of the electors. The result is complete. What the end of the universe only can tell, yet a few days will give the indication. Naturally enough, there is a strong feeling in the House who voted for the result and who threaten to impeach the President. The Democratic party in the House so decide they can impeach this end, or they can achieve a compromise, which will be a state of affairs to contemplate. We are of the opinion expressed by us in our paper that the Republican party will force the installation of Hayes on the 4th of March at the very point of bayonet, if necessary, and in defiance of all moral as well as Constitutional law. The men who have dared as much as to have already dared, who have stood under foot every principle of freedom, who have overridden all right and all honor, who have deliberately perjured themselves before God and in the sight of man to elect a rascally triumph over a country, will not hesitate now at any price which can ensure their success. They will be to them as bad as backward and there is nothing left to forward in the dark paths they have chosen to tread. They care nothing for safety, honor and welfare of the ends they aim at are neither God or truth or country, only personal aggrandizement, and not falter for hesitation will be to destruction.

Early enough it is not to the candidate and his aids who expect that the country now in its safety and salvation but to have been defrauded of their votes to the Democrats in Congress who can either make or unmake the fate of this great country. They have acknowledged a fraud and subverted or else plunge the country into a revolution that will be felt in its utmost Eastern to the Western shores; it will paralyze industry, throttle and stifle every new-born aspiration. With them it is a choice of ruin, and the choice must be made or else the golden opportunity never to be recalled.

of the hour is plain and we know it can be avoided or why it should be perverted. The country is in the hands of the Democratic party for that and patriotism which it failed to support. Let the count proceed. Let the Oregon vote will not be recalled Monday and then let it be simply under a protest, and let proceed without obstacle to its end. What we may lose in official patronage, we will gain in the endorsement of honest men and shade of political opinion.

CAROLINA.

Neal Dow will preach temperance in April. The 4th Light Infantry, 40 strong, on the 22d. Whitaker is about to open a new in Durham. Officers of the Charlotte Grays were on Thursday. E. C. Woodson is to take a position in the Raleigh Observer. L. Parker is to remove from to Conwayboro, S. C. A tobacco firm made a shipment of 45,000 rabbit skins. In the City Rifemen and the New-Yorkers paraded on the 22d. Gregory, of Greensboro, speaks of an infantry in Durham. But one Sheriff who has not been elected with the State Treasurer.

Miss Elizabeth E. A. Haywood died in Raleigh on Wednesday in her 70th year.

Mr. B. N. Duke was married to Miss Sallie P. Angier, in Durham, on Thursday night.

The average valuation of land in Mecklenburg county is $5 per acre, exclusive of town lots.

It is proposed that the Good Templars hold a District Convention in Durham at an early day.

The citizens of Wilson are moving energetically to have the colored Insane Asylum located there.

Joel Eatman, a colored prisoner, made an unsuccessful attempt to escape from Wilson jail last Monday.

A Durham young man went to work and trimmed a young lady's hat and the Durhams are bragging about it.

Judge Moore will hold Tyrrell and Dare courts instead of Judge Cannon who has been called to his home by sickness in his family.

Ten gas lamps are to be put on the streets of Newbern at once. Such a reckless expenditure may break the corporation.

T. N. and A. Wells, two lads of Magnolia township, killed a pig recently which was 18 months old and weighed 547 pounds.

That two thousand dollars has already been subscribed for rebuilding the Davenport Female College—recently destroyed by fire at Lenoir.

The Tarboro Southern says: The dwelling of the Messrs. Battle, living three miles West of Whitakers, has been burned down. Loss about $2,500. Not insured. Accident.

The Magnolia Record says: A little boy, the son of Mr. Joseph Rouse, of this county, was drowned on last Monday. The child, in attempting to follow his father to his work, fell into a creek which he had to cross.

An old white woman by the name of Mary Watkins, who peddles lightwood in Raleigh, was accidentally shot on Thursday and dangerously wounded with a pistol ball fired by a young man named Andrews.

The Tarboro Southern says: The cold snap has retarded attention to gardens, as the snow and sleet made farmers backward in the preparation of their lands for the crops. The weather has been so favorable for the past week or two that immense strides have been taken in a persuasive way and all will yet be well.

The Charlotte Observer says: Mr. Ruffelt, who lives near South Point, Gaston county, and who was thought to be crazy, set fire to his house and burned himself in it on last Monday night. His wife, who was the only other person in the house, awoke to find the room in which her husband was sleeping almost entirely consumed. She barely escaped with her life.

A man by the name of Edward Wallace was arrested near Neuse Depot, Wake county, on Thursday, for stealing a mule from Mr. R. H. Saunders, of Nash county, but afterwards got hold of a pistol and dangerously wounded one of Mr. Saunders' neighbors and then made his escape. He was a Yankee spy during the war and is represented as a desperate character fit to sit on a High Commission or a Louisiana Returning Board.

The Raleigh Sentinel says: Theodore N. Ramsay, G. W. C. T. will have the distinguished Hon. Neal Dow from the State of Maine, to assist in the great temperance battle to be fought in Raleigh on the first Monday in May. The campaign has opened in earnest and times will be lively in this city for the next two months. In a letter to Mr. Ramsay, Mr. Dow says: "Our legislature will this week pass a more stringent law for the suppression of the liquor traffic in the State of Maine."

The Raleigh News says: Since the burning of the town of Smithfield, Johnston county, about a week ago, the question of moving the county seat to Selma, on the line of the North Carolina Railroad, is again mooted. Senator Waddell, of Johnston, yesterday presented in the Senate a bill looking to this end and also a memorial on the same subject. The question of moving the county seat has been the cause of a good deal of trouble, in times past, in Johnston county, and there bids fair now to be a revival of the former disturbances.

Wonderful Success.

It is reported that Boschee's German Syrup has, since its introduction in the United States, reached the immense sale of 40,000 dozen per year. Over 6,000 Druggists have ordered this medicine direct from the Factory, at Woodbury, N. J., and not one has reported a single failure, but every letter speaks of its astonishing success in curing severe Coughs, Colds settled on the Breast, Consumption, or any disease of the Throat and Lungs. We advise any person that has any predisposition to weak Lungs, to go to their Druggists—and get this Medicine, or require about it. Regular size, 75 cents. Sample Bottle, 10 cents. Two doses will relieve any case. Don't neglect your cough.

In this age of education and general intelligence the household is hardly complete without a Cornish & Co. Piano or Organ. Read the advertisement in another column, and then send for illustrated catalogue and price list. Jan 8.

McPherson, made settlement in full with the State Treasurer, under the provisions of a resolution of the General Assembly, relieving him from all penalties imposed by reason of his failure to settle at the proper time.

The Truckers.

The truckers in the neighborhood of this city are now taking advantage of this fine weather and are putting in some of their "best" licks. The prognostications thus far are favorable for early crops, and good ones, and if the promises hold out quite a shower of greenbacks will fall here this Spring, in return for the early fruit and vegetables sent to the Northern cities.

The Concert Last Night.

The concert or entertainment given last night at Brooklyn Hall by the pupils of the Baptist Mission School, under the direction of Mr. J. W. Taylor, was in every way both successful and delightful. There was a very large attendance, the Hall having been so crowded that standing room was in demand and the music, speeches, dialogues, &c., were all delightfully rendered. We are glad to know that a handsome sum was realized on the occasion for the benefit of the School.

The Military Movement.

The Charlotte Observer, commenting on Maj. Taylor's letter to the Adjutant General, relative to the proposed meeting of company commanders in Raleigh, very happily observes: A good move, and Capt. Taylor deserves credit for being the first to inaugurate it. If we are going to have State militia let's have it organized and equipped. The idea of the grand military encampment seems to be growing in favor with our military companies. The more they think of it, the better they like it. It has been suggested that if all the military companies in the State cannot make the necessary arrangements to meet together this year, that two or more companies, say the Charlotte and Wilmington companies, meet at some point and spend a week together.

Custard Bread Pudding.

To three well-beaten eggs add one quart milk; sweeten and flavor to taste, (lemon is the most generally used flavor), and pour in a tin pudding-pan. Then take baker's rolls, or bread (sweet rolls are best), spread with butter, and lay in the pan. Bake until the custard forms. Serve cold.

The Thermometer.

From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:

A Thief Caught.

Henry Boon, colored, was arrested this morning on a warrant issued by Justice Gardner, charged with the robbery of the St. James' Mission School some nights ago accounts of which have been published. Boon keeps a little shanty shop corner of Church and Tenth streets, some of the articles, a bucket, frying pan, &c., were found in his possession. He was required to give a justified bond in the sum of $300 for his appearance before Justice Gardner next Saturday, March the 3rd, failing in which he was committed to jail.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning:

Oscar Anderson, charged with drunkenness, was fined $10 and costs.

Solon Stevenson, for the same offense, was fined $1 and costs.

Oscar Anderson, cursing and other disorderly conduct on the streets, was fined $1 and costs.

Solon Stevenson, for the same offense, was fined $1 and costs.

Three parties were charged with obstructing the sidewalks, but judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

Was in Wilmington.

Brother Avera, of the Rocky Mount Mail, slipped down to the city last week and slipped back again with a pocket full of new advertisements without letting any of his press friends know of his presence here. We would have been glad to make his acquaintance. He gives an account of his visit and his impressions here from which we make the following extract:

For the importation of molasses, salt, iron, Peruvian guano, &c., Wilmington probably has vantage ground over other places in reach of our people. Vessels of heavy tonnage find easy access to her ports and the flags of almost all the nationalities can be seen on the bosom of her waters.

Her foreign trade has greatly increased and as many as 40 foreign vessels have anchored in her port at one time awaiting cargoes.

The Spitz Dog.

The number of these dogs seems to be on the increase in this city, notwithstanding the fact, as is becoming now so well known, of the danger of having them in our midst. They have already wrought much injury in Northern cities, and they are weeding them out there while the crop seems, in the meantime, to grow with frightful rapidity in the South.

The New York Herald, of yesterday's date, has the following editorial article which we commend to those who now own, or who expect to own, one of the Spitz devils:

Two cases of hydrophobia are reported from Staten Island, and in both the victims were bitten by Spitz dogs. In one case it is reported that the dog was not rabid, and he appears to have been only irritable in the other. Before the great increase now noted in the frequency of these accidents it was thought that society paid sufficiently for the advantage it derived from dogs by the death they caused in communicating rabies; yet that was when there were no dogs about but the old acclimated breeds, that did not go mad often, and so far as close observation could discover did not cause hydrophobia save when they had it themselves. It was bad enough that way, and certainly it is infinitely worse to have in all our streets and in many houses an animal which seems to possess a virus capable of causing hydrophobia while the animal is himself to all appearance in a normal condition. Persons who care for the lives of their children should take notice that the number of cases reported is now large in which this dog, while himself apparently not mad, has caused hydrophobia by his bite. They have not, therefore, in regard to this species, even that slight assurance of safety which, in regard to other dogs, is derived from the warning of evident sickness in the animal himself.

The Fire this Morning.

The alarm of fire at a little after 2 o'clock this morning was caused by the burning of a frame dwelling on Orange street, between Front and Second, occupied in part by the Widow Daniels. The fire caught in the upper part of the house and in the northwest corner and in a room which was occupied. The only theory is, therefore, that it was caused by rats knowing matches. Mr. James Daniels, who is employed on one of the morning papers, was not at home at the time. His mother was awakened by the smoke which rapidly filled the room and springing up at once gave the alarm. She saved all of her furniture and effects but some in a damaged condition. The members of the Fire Department were promptly on the ground but the house was old and burned rapidly and was destroyed before they could get to work, only a part of the shell being left. The property was owned by Mr. Lullr Vollers, and was valued at about $500, with insurance with the Etna, Mr. T. C. DeRosset, Agent, for $250.

The habit of dressing children for fancy ball and concert exhibitions induces in the children a foolish conceit and an immoral tone of ideas.

Angot collars for ladies are worn with plush cravats.

Cooked minced salt codfish may be stirred with eggs in a frying pan, like scrambled ham and eggs.

Church fairs are good things. They teach a man how to preserve a look of humility while paying out $2 of his hard-earned money for a ten cent pin-cushion.

The Cutter.

Capt. Frank Barr, of the United States Revenue Marine, has been assigned to the command of the Revenue cutter Cofax, in place of Capt. Joseph Irish, who has been relieved at his own request.

Recognized.

The negro who stole Mr. Tilly's overcoat has been recognized as the man who stole the handsome chrono, "Rock of Ages," from Heinsberger's Art Gallery on yesterday. The chrono was one of a new invoice just received and was placed on exhibition near the door. It was offered for sale by the thief for fifty cents at several houses in the northern portion of the city. A reward is offered by Mr. Heinsberger for the capture of the thief.
