YES WILL BE PRESIDENT.
Do not think that the "irreconcilables" in the House will succeed in defeating the session and the adjournment of the session at 12 o'clock of next Saturday and we feel sure that Hayes will be fully inaugurated as President on Monday next. All that we can do now is to protest first and quietly submit afterwards. The Democratic party of the State had neither part nor parcel in the election, and are therefore not responsible for the result. The peace of the country is to them the primary consideration and before this all other hopes and other desires must bow. Peace and patriotism are with them superior to party politics.

CAROLINA.
Goldboro Rifles expect their guns to be ready in an early day.
John's Roman Catholic Church in Goldboro has been condemned as unsafe.
W. W. Blakely, of Union county, arrived here this week with his family to reside here.

Thomas Garrison, of Morganton, was killed by his mule recently and died.
Residence of Mr. Ephraim Bowles, of Alexander county, was burned Wednesday, 14th inst.
Thos. H. Pritchard, D. D., of N. C., has just published a volume "A Treatise on Infant Baptism."
S. H. Howell, Esq., of Wayne county, was thrown from his horse on the 1st inst. and was picked up with a broken neck.

John H. Pierce of Johnstown, was killed in jail at Goldboro by a fire, charged with the burning of the jail, near Princeton.
Goldboro Messenger tells of the death of Mr. Gilbert Wards dwelling at Fremont, a few evenings since. The house was entirely destroyed. No one was hurt. Loss about $1,200. The fire was accidental.
Raleigh Observer says: Petitions signed for presentation to the Commissioners to call an election on the first Monday in May, for the purpose of settling the question of local option, were the qualified voters of Wake county.

Morganton Blade says: Thomas H. H. was murdered on Tuesday, the 1st inst., in a difficulty which occurred at a dance and died on Saturday last. He had been issued for the arrest of the supposed murderer.
A dwelling house and out building on the property of Col Allison, of Goldboro, known as the Joe Dick Cowan place, in the eastern part of Iredell county, was burned last Thursday night. The house and out buildings had nearly all been destroyed.

Charlotte Observer says: The Massachusetts colonists who have been living in Western North Carolina, and who are in the process of being removed to the region of country known as the Linville Valley, and are in the process of securing additional tracts of land. It is thought that the removal will move out in early Spring.
Raleigh News says: About three bills have been referred to the committee of the House, of which about ninety have been reported, about sixty favorably with amendments or substitutes, and a large number which were no question have been returned without action. The committee still has a heavy calendar of five or thirty bills, but hopes to get off in a few days.

Wonderful Success.
Reported that Boschee's German Balm, since its introduction in the States, reached the immense sale of a dozen per year. Over 6,000 have ordered this medicine from the Factory, at Woodbury, N. J. Every one has reported a single failure. Every letter speaks of its astonishing success in curing severe Coughs, Croup, Sore Throat, Consumption, and all the Throat and Lung diseases. It is very safe to give to any person that has any trouble with the Throat, or Lung, or any other part of the system. Regular size, 75 cents. Bottle, 10 cents. Two doses will cure any case. Don't neglect your health.

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. 2. WILMINGTON, N. C., TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1877. NO. 33.

LOCAL NEWS.

New Advertisements.
W. E. N. SELLERS—Mountain Beef.
J. H. ALLEN—New Designs.
I. FURMAN—Look at it!
J. W. LIPPITT—Velocipedes, &c.
A. SHRIER—Partly-Made Shirts at 90 cents, worth $2.50.

Our friends and patrons will please understand that carrier boys are not allowed to sell copies of the REVIEW. Please do not buy of them or encourage them to sell as it will positively cost the boy his situation when detected.

Cream colored dresses are made with ruby velvet sleeves.

A duck of a wife frequently makes a goose of her husband.

Three people can keep a secret but two of them must be dead.

Mr. Jno. H. Allen has received an invoice of clocks of entirely new designs.

Steamship Benefactor, Jones, from this port, arrived at New York on Sunday.

The Frederike Weigers, Krieger, cleared at Maaslin for this port on the 6th inst.

That young man who shed torrents of tears must have had a cataract in his eye.

Many receive their creed as they do their money; because they find it in circulation.

What is it that a poor man has and a rich man wants? Nothing. Ask us something harder.

The broken sewers on Third street have been repaired and the excavations filled up level with the street.

Modern young gents abhor what they call "spooney girls." Of all girls in the world, we look on them as the most lady-like.

The spring fashions are about coming in, and the startling commundrum will soon go abroad: "What is the sweetest thing in bonnets?"

The breastpin and bow advertised in yesterday's REVIEW as lost has been found already. One of the benefits of advertising in the REVIEW, you see.

Our friend Furmanski, of the Reform Barber Shop, under the First National Bank, is again to the front with a new and attractive ad. in this issue.

A young lady who knows, defines courtship to be "Looking at each other, taking hold of each other's hands, and all that kind of thing." Exactly so.

Hon. Neal Dow, the distinguished Maine temperance advocate, is to stump the State in April and is expected to visit Wilmington during the month.

A bandbox containing a lady's hat with trimming, plume and all, was sent lately from Belfast, Maine, to California by mail, the postage being eleven cents.

Judge Seymour went down to Smithville this morning and if nothing untoward occurred opened Brunswick Superior Court at that place this forenoon.

An exchange says: It is a singular fact that most dogs in Florida contract bad coughs." In Wilmington they all appear to be troubled with the bowwow complaint.

The private Hop given at Meginney's Hall last night, on the occasion of the Jewish Feast of Purim, was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present.

A piercing cold wind blew down upon us early this morning from the northwest but since breakfast the weather has moderated considerably, although the forenoon remained cloudy and overcast.

Sad Case.
It is very sad indeed to reflect upon, that in a Christian community of 20,000 inhabitants and nearly a score of churches, we hear of a helpless family consisting of five small children and their almost bed-ridden parents being without anything to eat for two whole days. The family is said to reside on Queen, between Fifth and Sixth streets.

Good Bye Dixie.
The little steamer Dixie will leave here this afternoon or to-morrow morning for New York, by inland water route, as far as practicable, under command of Capt. Sullivan, her owner, Mr. Parsley, having traded her with Capt. Foster, of New York, for the steamer Underhill. She will carry a crew of four men besides her commander. The Dixie registers but -18 61-100 tons.

Robin Hunting.
The robin red-breast may be found in gangs of thousands all through the county. Hundreds of them are killed every day by sportsmen from this city. The birds are very fat and in fine condition for eating, and readily command fifty to sixty cents per dozen in market.

Personal.
The Blue Ridge Blade says: Dr. George H. Moran, Post Surgeon at this place, has been ordered to Fort Johnson, near Smithville, N. C., and is to be succeeded by Dr. Buchanan, U. S. A.

Dr. Moran has made many friends, during his stay here, and the change will be regretted, because of his social relations with our people.

Partnerships.
It has been decided by the courts that if a partner of a dissolved firm neglects to give notice, through the local newspapers, of a dissolution of partnership, he is equally liable with his late partner for all debts contracted after dissolution.

In this connection it may not be improper to state that the REVIEW offers "splendid inducements" to those contemplating a dissolution of copartnership.

The Thermometer.
From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:

Augusta, 43; Charleston, 47; Cincinnati, 32; Jacksonville, 54; Key West, 65; Knoxville, 33; Lynchburg, 31; Memphis, 32; Mobile, 39; Montgomery, 42; Nashville, 32; New Orleans, 44; New York, 36; Norfolk, 37; Pittsburg, 29; Savannah, 48; St. Louis, 30; Washington, 35; Wilmington, 35.

Lost and Found.
Last night about 9 o'clock one of the attaches of this office, while on his way home, in company with three young men, came across two handsome picture frames on Third street, near the railroad track. Footprints in the sand, near where the frames were found, indicated scuffling. One of the frames was walnut, 32 x 16 inches, and the other was the frame of a looking glass. The glass had been broken out and was scattered about on the ground. Any one having been robbed can get the property by applying for it.

Bishop Lyman's Appointments.
Among the appointments made by Rt. Rev. T. B. Lyman, D. D., the Assistant Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese, as published in the Raleigh papers, are the following:
April 17, Thursday, Richlands, Onslow county.
April 20, Friday, p. m., St. Mark's, Wilmington.
April 21, Saturday, p. m., St. Paul's, Wilmington.
April 22, Sunday, a. m., St. James', Wilmington.
April 22, Sunday, p. m., St. John's, Wilmington.
April 23, Monday, Smithville.
April 26, Thursday, Kenansville, Duplin county.

The Henry A. Paull.
The cargo of the schooner Henry A. Paull, Capt. Strange, which arrived here on the 18th inst in distress, having been dismantled off Hatteras, bound from Mantanzas, for New York, with a cargo of sugar, is now being discharged and the cargo forwarded by steamship to New York, 150 hhds. having been shipped yesterday by the steamship Pioneer, the shipment having been made by the Underwriters' agents. The cargo, which was not damaged, is valued at about $66,000, and the vessel at $20,000, the damage to the ship being estimated at one half her value. Both vessel and cargo were insured.

Don't Read this, Boys.
A letter from Saratoga, discoursing upon the novelties in fashion, says: "But better, and above all, is that article of dress which, if my boyish lips had so much as pronounced, may grandmother would have thumped my head with her thimble—I think they call it garter. Well, this hitherto mysterious member of the wardrobe, of which the great outside world had only a dreamy idea, now becomes an ostentatious ornament of fine dressing. The delicate silk stocking is finished out at the top in laces, run into ruffles, and clasped with the most elaborate garters—garters with gilt, gold and silver buckles—garters which bring $5 and $50 the pair. And instead of making our sweetheart a present of bracelets, or of a pin, ring or silk umbrella, you lay in her lap a pair of expensive garters for her point lace stocking-tops. What a novelty it is, to be sure!"

Got It Wrong.
We got it wrong again. The Auditing Commission spoke of by us yesterday in the bill which passed the House on Saturday, appointed Hon. R. S. French, Maj. F. D. Poisson and E. S. Martin, Esq., as the Commissioners, instead of the gentlemen named by us, who are in another bill. The bill, we understand, as adopted, pays them $3 per day, each, but in this respect there was some amendment although we do not know what it is.

Rocking a House.
John Perry and Hugh Currie, two jolly sons of the sea, got on a big drunk last night, in the course of which they visited Paddy's Hollow, where they rocked the house of a colored man named John Toomer. Not relishing such a method of ratifying the verdict in favor of Hayes Toomer called in the police who, after much persuasion of a forcible nature, succeeded in getting the sailors to the guard house. The only explanation they gave of their conduct was that they were "looking for a long Dutchman." Their cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning.

A Brief Story With a Moral.
When trade grew slack and notes fell due, the merchant's face grew long and blue; his dreams were troubled through the night, with sheriff's bailiffs all in sight. At last his wife unto him said: "Rise up at once—get out of bed; and get your paper, ink and pen, and say these words unto all men: My goods I wish to sell to you, and to your wives and daughters, too; my prices are so very low, that all will buy before they go." He did as by his wife advised, and in the papers advertised. Crowds came and bought off all he had; his notes were paid, his dreams were glad; and he will tell you to this day how well did printer's ink repay. He told us, with a knowing wink, how he was saved by printer's ink.

City Court.
The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning:
John Perry, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $10 and costs or 30 days work on the streets.
The same, for throwing rocks at a house, was fined $10 and costs or 30 days work on the streets.
Hugh Currie, disorderly, $10, and costs or 30 days work on the streets.
The same, for drunkenness, $10 and costs or 30 days work on the streets.
The same, resisting a police officer, $50 and costs or 30 days work on the streets.
Fannie Gore, drunkenness, $20 and costs or 30 days work on the streets.
Henry McCrae, disorderly conduct, $5 and costs.
Monroe Wilkins, disorderly conduct, $25 and costs.
One case, in which the defendant was charged with resisting the police, was dismissed.

The Legislative Session.
The Raleigh papers have reported that the Legislature would adjourn on Saturday. This is a mistake, as we learn from Mr. James Wilson Representative from this county, who was in the city yesterday, and who informs us that the House Judiciary committee justify a continuance beyond the sixty days to which it is restricted by the present constitution on legal grounds and that the adjournment will therefore probably take place about the middle of the month. It is said that there are one or two young lawyers on the committee who find that the present session is being held under the old constitution, which did not restrict the session, and not under that which went into effect on the first of January which does restrict it. Per contra, we can find one or two and perhaps a dozen (we have already found two) old lawyers in this city who distinctly aver that the present Legislature cannot hold for more than sixty days at the public expense; that is to say they can stay in Raleigh, and in session, just as long as they please, but can only draw per diem for the sixty days allowed by the Constitution. We cannot see how any other argument can hold. As long as the old Constitution was in force the two Houses could name their own time but now that the new instrument is the law the old one is of necessity annulled and superseded by the new one. Their deliberations are all made with regard to the Constitution as it is now and not that which is dead and done away with and how they can make the dead letter of a dead law apply to living issues in one respect, while it is excluded in all others, is more than we can understand. We venture the assertion that there is not a lawyer of any prominence in Wilmington but will sustain us in this.
