A Handsonie Present.

A donation of one hundred Sunday School library books for the Baptist Mission Sunday School, of which Mr. J. W. Taylor is the Superintendent, was received this morning by Mr. F. W. Poster from his sister, Mrs. Tilly Holmes, of Patterson, N. J. Mr. Foster, we believe, was instrumental in getting up the School and has always taken a lively interest in its welfare and development and sie

On a Purtough. Mr. R. M. Foster, who has been on duty in the l'ournities here for the past four years, has obtained his first leave of absence and starts to-morrow merning for East Canton, Par, where his parents reside and where well, where somebody else resides, too. On the 28th of this month, that being next Wednesday week the ceremony will take place. Mr. Foster has been a polite, courteous and efficient assistant, a fact to which Col. Brink himself bears willing testimony, and we hope that the fates will deal gently with him in all things.

St. Patricks Day. · To-day, the 17th of March, an occasion ever sacred to every true Irishman, the Hibernian Benevolent Association, according to previous announcement met at their a m and 7½ p m. Sunday School at 9½ a Hall on Third street, opposite the City Hall, and prepared for the celebration of the day.

The meeting having been called to order after roll call the organization was turned over to the Chief Marshall, Mr. Timothy Donlan, and Messrs. McEntee, and Collins Assistant Marshals, and the line of March | o'clock. Sunday School at 4 p m. was formed, headed by the Cornet Concert Club, arrayed in their superb and tasty uniforms.

The procession proceeded in accordance with the line of march previously published, and in due time arrived at St. Thomas, Catholic Church, when High Mass was celebrated after which Rev. Father Townsend delivered a beautiful School at 93 a m. and appropriate discourse. He comment day and the character and times of Ireland's Patron Saint. After the conclusion of the religious services the procession was again formed and marched through several streets of the city to the inspiring strains of the music of the Cornet Concert Club and finally arrived at the Opera House, which was filled with a large audience. Here, after the members of the Hibernian Benevolent Association had been seated, the President of the organization, in a few appropriate remarks, introduced Hon, Edward Cantwell who delivered a lengthy, interesting and beautiful address, in which he took occasion to give the history of Ireland from the earliest known period, interspersing his remarks with a concise view of the geography and m. political condition of that country. The Ireland from St. Patrick Erin's Patron and the programme having been extended Saint, were related with feeling and pathos. The oration of the gentleman was highly creditable and we regret that want of space will not allow us to give our acaders a more extended notice of the able address delivered on the occasion, at the conclusion of the address the procession was again formed and the order of march was taken up to Temperance Hall, when after the Association had assembled the annual election of officers was gone into resulting as follows:

Capt. I. B. Grainger, President, relected; Capt. John Barry, Vice President vice Mr. J. W. Corbett, declined; Secretary Mr. Daniel O'Conor, re-elected; Mr. Martin O'Brien, Assistant Secretary, Mr. L. Brown, Treasurer, re-elected.

The business of the day being concluded the Association attacked, with a vim, the ample store of solid and liquid refreshments that the forethought of the Committee had provided for the occasion.

In the midst of the attack Mr. F. H Darby was called upon and having taken ----the stand delivered a stirring address appropriate to the occasion.

After the conclusion of these ceremonies the inceting adjourned, this occasion being reckoned one of the most successful and pleasantest known in the history of the
