NEWS SUMMARY.

Packer says he will resist to the bitter end (what ever that may mean). — Gold 102 1/2 in New York. — A bomb exploded yesterday morning in the office of John Jewett & Sons, New York, which killed two of the Jewetts and wounded J. A. Dand, another member of the firm. — The coal companies have adopted a plan limiting the product of coal by each. The plan proposes eight million tons for competitive points during 1877. — Five vessels from the Long Island fishing fleet, with their crews of ninety-five men, are missing, and all are supposed to have perished in a gale at sea. — Chamberlain leaves Washington for Columbia today. — It is authoritatively stated that there has been no change, nor is there any likely to be, in the date of the extra session—namely, June 4th. — The loss by the fire in Jessup & Moore's paper mill, at Wilmington, Delaware, is now estimated at from $200,000 to $300,000, upon which there is $125,000 insurance, divided among fifteen companies. — The Nicholls Board of Directors have taken charge of the city Hospital at New Orleans. They found from 600 to 700 patients therein, and there had been no money. — An enthusiastic meeting at Vandalia, La., adopted a resolution pledging taxes and unwavering support to the Nicholls government. — Peace has not yet been concluded between Abyssinia and Egypt, but probably will be, because the King of Soudan has captured Gondar, and the Abyssinian army has in consequence been withdrawn from the Egyptian frontier. The projected treaty will cede no territory to Abyssinia, but will provide for a reduction of the Egyptian export duties. — Jan Vaneyck's painting of the "Virgin and Child," which was stolen from the National Gallery in Berlin a few days ago, has been recovered. — The improvement in the Pope's health continues; he was able to walk from his apartments to give an audience on Wednesday morning. — There is great destitution among the laborers in Jersey City and local riots are not improbable. — At St. Philip's colored Episcopal Church, in New York on Wednesday evening, 35 young colored women were confirmed. — A Georgian walked all of the way from his home to Washington to see Mr. Hayes; he could have found a better looking man nearer home. — Hayes has just appointed Paul Shoback, one of Spencer's pets, and a dirty, indolent rascal, to be the Receiver of Public Moneys at Montgomery; Civil Service reform. Spotted Tail, with Crazy Horse and 900 of his followers, have come in and sue for peace. — The Republicans elected their ticket in Rhode Island on Tuesday by reduced majorities. — The Danish Rigsdag was closed on Wednesday by a royal decree. — George Sharp, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., has turned up missing in that city and so has $50,000 in money and $60,000 in precious stones. — The Princess of Wales is at Bologna, en route to Athens. — The Very Rev. Father Donaventura Keller, provincial of the Franciscan Fathers from New York to the Mississippi, died in Utica yesterday. — A Chicago dispatch says the whiskey rectifiers of the country have entered into a combination calculated to place the price of their products on what may be considered a profitable basis, and at the same time above suspicion of crookedness.

DIAMOND MERCHANT MISSING
(Special to the New York Herald.)
ATLANTA, Ga., April 4, 1877.—There is great excitement in this city over the mysterious disappearance of George Sharp, Jr., the most widely known diamond and jewel merchant in the South. He disappeared on last Friday night and has not been heard of since. No suspicion or uneasiness was aroused until Tuesday morning, when his store was closed by a representative of Stim & Co., jewelers, of New York, to whom he was indebted about 1,000. New Yorker closed the store under proceedings against an absconding debtor. Since this action the most scrutinizing search has been made to work in all the important Southern cities, but nothing has yet been heard. — It appears that Mr. Sharp has been heavily involved for some time, and that his famous store was supported almost entirely upon borrowed capital. His credit has been impaired and he has been forced to go on the streets for money. By paying enormous rates of interest, and putting diamond or jewel collaterals in the hands of the lenders he has been enabled, to float.

THE JURYMAN AND THEIR TAXES.

It having been asserted that some members of the present Grand Jury of the Criminal Court had not paid their taxes, as is required by the law, the matter was investigated this morning when it was found that of the 18 jury men, 11 had paid, 3 were somewhat in doubt and 1 had not paid. His Honor, Judge Meares, had the Jury before him this forenoon and sent the 14 who had paid and who form a sufficient quorum, back to their duties, while the others were relieved temporarily of duty so that they might ascertain if they had paid.
