

THE DAILY REVIEW.

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 1877. NO. 82

NEWS SUMMARY.

The Louisiana Legislature, headed by Gov. Nicholls, proceeded in a body to the State House yesterday and took possession. Packard had previously issued his valedictory and retired. — General Crook is coming to Chicago to consult with Sheridan, and may possibly continue his trip as far as Washington. — Couriers continue to arrive reporting the approach of Crazy Horse with all his people. His arrival at the Agency will virtually end the Sioux war. — The Russians and Turks have exchanged shots near Kars. — Gen. Von Moltke has made a threatening speech in the German Parliament towards France. — The English press are very much exercised over the Imperial manifesto of the Czar. — The war news has advanced the price of flour 15 to 25 cents. — The South Carolina Legislature is excited over the contested seats of members from the Mackey House. — The Louisiana Commission have tendered their report to the President and retired gracefully. — Gen. Ord has been ordered with his troops to Laredo, Texas. This is thought a menace to the Diaz government. — Col. Thos. B. Geogh, Chairman of the North Carolina Republican Committee, endorses President Hayes' Southern policy. — A terrible storm visited Galveston, Texas, Tuesday, doing much damage to shipping and property. Several lives were lost. — A monster whale, forty feet long, has been caught off South Hampton, Long Island.

We have heard a great deal of ice cream talk this season but, positively, we haven't seen a drop of the crathur yet.
A little attention given to some of the stalls in the Market House would add greatly to the sanitary condition of that structure.
Low slippers have already appeared, and when a girl is accused of having mended stockings she says, "Not by a darn sight."
The fish market, which has been rather poor for many weeks past, is picking up slowly. The usual varieties of Spring fish are appearing by degrees.
The Cornet Band have ordered very handsome hats which will be here in time for the celebration of Memorial Day. They are something new and are very handsome.

We were in error in stating there would be a repetition of the entertainment given by Prof. Agostini in a few days. An entertainment consisting of tableaux and fancy dances will be given by the class, but no part of the programme observed at the former entertainment will be repeated.

Again we Declare.

That come what may we shall never give up the belief that advertising pays a merchant who is willing to augment his cash receipts.

The Thermometer.

From the United States Signal Office at this place we obtain the following report of the thermometer, as taken this morning at 7:31 o'clock:

Augusta, 66; Charleston, 69; Galveston, 69; Jacksonville, 72; Mobile, 70; Montgomery, 65; New Orleans, 68; Norfolk, 62; Savannah, 71; Wilmington, 66.

Important.

The State Treasurer has decided that Sheriffs are authorized to collect a special tax of $25 from any person selling gift or prize packages of any character. Under this opinion, prize candy boxes, gift stationary packages or any goods where a prize is offered, are included. This is under section 6, schedule B., of the Revenue Act.

New Cream Saloon.

The doors to Lippitt's Ice Cream Parlors were thrown open to the public last evening. The Parlors are neat, cool and cozy, and were very tastefully decorated with flowers. They are separated by folding doors and can be made perfectly private to parties of ten to twenty persons. In the first room small apartments are partitioned off sufficiently large to seat four persons around the tables or, if you prefer it, only two. The entrance is on Princess street, and is in no way connected with the entrance to the store. See advertisement.

Arrested on Suspicion.

A. V. McDonald, the stranger who was found asleep on a bale or hay and arrested on suspicion Tuesday night, referred the Mayor to his former employer at Nashua, New Hampshire, as to his being all that he represented himself to be, viz: a workman in search of employment. Accordingly the Mayor telegraphed to the parties and this morning received a dispatch in reply stating that McDonald's character was good. McDonald was thereupon discharged.

Recovery of a Watch and Chain.

A letter was received here this morning directed to the Chief of police, from S. J. Radcliffe, Chief of Police, Columbia S. C. asking if anyone in this city had lost a fine hunting-case gold watch double movement, also a fine gold chain. The watch and chain was taken from an escaped convict who had been in the city, and who was subsequently arrested and carried to Columbia. Capt. Radcliffe expressed the belief that the watch and chain had been stolen while the fugitive was in Wilmington. We do not recollect at present of having heard of the articles being stolen in this city, but if our memory serves us right, a watch and chain was stolen about two months ago, from a citizen of the town of Goldsboro.

City Court.

There were three cases tried before this august tribunal this morning. The first called was that of a sailor who had two charges against him—one for disorderly conduct, and the other that of drunkenness. In the first he was fined $20 and cost of 30 days on the streets; in the second he was found guilty and sentenced to $10 and costs or 15 days on the streets, in default of which this jolly tar will have to make an involuntary donation of 45 days of labor in helping to put our streets in something of a sanitary condition.

The second case was that of Catharine Merrick vs. James Kelley. In other words Catharine caused James Kelley to be brought before his Honor, the Mayor, to be tried for disorderly conduct. But upon investigation of the facts the Mayor adjudged that the gentle and peaceably inclined Catharine was equally as guilty as the more riotous and demonstrative James, notwithstanding the mild Catharine's strong assertions to the contrary, and the verdict of the Court was so recorded, but judgment was suspended on payment of costs. And so that's the last ob da, as Pompey Harris would say.

Commissioner's Court.

Napoleon Bonaparte Taylor was up before U. S. Commissioner Cassidy for peddling tobacco without license. From the evidence, it seems the accused has been carrying on a systematized "blockading" of tobacco from Moore County for some time past, and at last a day of reckoning came, and Napoleon Bonaparte was exiled to the county jail, in default of bond, to await a hearing at the next term of the U. S. District Court.

Memorial Day.

The Ladies of the Memorial Association are fast perfecting their arrangements for the proper celebration of their hallowed Memorial Day, which falls due on the 10th of May, two weeks from to-day. Capt. Jno. T. Rankin has been chosen Chief Marshal and in a few days his Aides will be announced. Mr. Jno. C. James has been selected to deliver the Memorial Address on the occasion and he has accepted the invitation, while Rev. J. B. Taylor, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, will serve as Chaplain. Full particulars of the arrangements will be announced as soon as they are perfected.

When and How to Eat Fruit.

When fruit does harm it is because it is eaten at improper times, in improper quantities, or before it is ripened and fit for the human stomach. A distinguished physician has said that if his patients would make a practice of eating a couple of good oranges before breakfast, from February to June, his practice would be gone. The principal evil is that we do not eat enough of fruit; that we injure its finer qualities with sugar; that we drown them in cream. We need the medicinal action of the pure fruit acids in our system, and their cooling, corrective influence.

Mail from this City.

For a period of four weeks, commencing January 15, 1877, there were 44,327 letters weighing 909 pounds and 10,241 postal cards weighing 65 pounds sent from this city, as we learn from a detailed statement of mail matter furnished by the Postoffice Department at Washington City. The total of 260 of the largest Postoffices shows that 29,076,423 letters and 6,199,326 postal cards were sent during that period. The statement shows that Wilmington's patronage to the Postoffice Department is more than the average of four-fifths of the cities named.

The Lecture Last Night.

We regret to say that only a medium sized audience assembled at the Temple of Israel last night to hear the beautiful and highly interesting lecture of Rabbi Ed. B. M. Browne, on "The Talmud, its Ethics and Literary Beauty." Those who were fortunate enough to be in attendance were regaled with a discourse of more than ordinary force and beauty having for its subject the description and explanation of one of the sublimest codes of ancient or modern times. The Talmud, said the learned lecturer, comprised the laws and everything pertaining to the government of the Hebrews when these laws had been reduced to writing. It, he said, would make about three hundred volumes of ordinary size of five hundred pages, (folio) each, and had neither index nor digest. The lecturer discoursed at length the ethics of this great work and explained how on account of the Hebrews having at different times been overcome by different nations, their laws and customs had been preserved in the dialects which were the result of the combinations of their different languages so that an acquaintance with the Talmud presupposed a thorough knowledge of at least six different languages. This was a height of knowledge to which very few ever attained, consequently the Talmud remained a sacred arcana of mystic and almost forgotten lore on account of the great difficulties that beset the path of the explorer after knowledge in this direction. But, suffice it to say, as our space will not permit us to go further in attempting a synopsis of the evening's discourse, that it was one of great comprehensiveness and abounded in apt and happy illustrations, by way of anecdote, which were at times amusing and laughable. The lecture was a decided success and the lecturer showed a thorough acquaintance with his subject and an appreciation with its salient points that won the closest attention of the audience. We bespeak for him a large attendance to-night.

Money is said to be very close, but it is not yet close enough for some of our people to catch hold of.

We were in error in stating that there would be a repetition of the entertainment given by Prof. Agostini in a few days. An entertainment consisting of tableaux and fancy dances will be given by the class, but no part of the programme observed during the former entertainment will be repeated.

SOME OF THE GREATEST RASCALITIES of the world are achieved by the use of impure and poisonous materials in articles of current use. It has been the noble aim of the manufacturers of DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER, to make an absolutely pure article, which should be a boon to every household. Little more than half the usual quantity, and makes the most delicious bread and pastry.

Sensible Advice.
