

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Ed. and Prop. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MAY 9, 1877.

VIEWS AND REVIEWS.

Caleb Cushing complains that he was relieved of his office by Mr. Hayes without any previous intimation that his scalp was wanted.

Statistics show that more elderly marriages take place in Kentucky than in any other State of the Union.

A Florida man has invented a machine for preparing palmetto fibre, which is quite a success.

The Memphis Ledger has an unaccountably level head. It says "the Democrats have a clear majority of over a quarter of million in the popular vote of the country."

A leading English journal speaking of Bismark's proposed retirement, observes that "some say that he is sulking, as the Earl of Chatham used to do when he could not have his own way."

The Russian fleet now in American waters is said to have been dispatched here as a menace to England.

A New York letter asserts that the practical result of the first in-house investigation in that city will be a sweeping reduction in the personnel of the establishment.

Governor Hartranft issued a warrant on the 14th instant for the execution, June 21, 1877, of Andrew Lambani of Luzerne county, for the murder of Baptista Kelly of Wilkesbarre.

The Louisville Courier-Journal, declaring that the Rev. Newman and his wife had been but mere "tools" to the Grants, says that Dr. Newman really ordered his usurper to keep the Grant family out of their regular pew on the 23rd Sunday when President Hayes was in Washington.

The correspondent of the New York Times at New Orleans writes as follows concerning the Southern States and national politics: "They know their power; they know that by carrying one or two Northern States they are sure of a majority in the Electoral College, and unless some sign fails they will vote for the Democratic vote at the next Presidential election."

Oregon has seen Virginia's bell punch for collecting the tax on ardent spirits, and "goes her"—metaphorically speaking—"one better." The legislators of that far Pacific State have a proposition before them to require all consumers of the inebriating cup to take out a license.

A HEAVY PEACH CROP.

The newspapers all promise a heavy peach crop this year everywhere, South and North. In the great peach regions of Maryland and Delaware the trees are all full, and growers are now actively making their arrangements for the distribution and sale of the crop.

THE RISE IN BREADSTUFFS.

Speaking of this point, the New York Daily Bulletin shows by tabular statement the rise in breadstuffs in that market from 15th March to 30th April last, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Date (March 16, April 30) and various flour types (Superior Flour, Trade & Family Flour, Corn Meal).

The market since the 30th has been depressed and unsettled. The discount on war prices has been too heavy.

HOG AND HONEY.

The New York Sun says: The war in Europe, with high prices for provisions and low prices for cotton, may make hard times for Southern farmers who neglect to raise their own bread and meat.

A GRAND OPPORTUNITY.

It is said that over two hundred thousand Germans, mostly in independent circumstances, living in the south of Russia, are preparing to emigrate to the United States to avoid being drafted into the army.

Here is an opportunity for somebody in North Carolina, the Governor or the Commissioner of Agriculture or somebody else, to take advantage of for inducing emigration to our State.

WHO WAS HE?

An Atlanta letter to the New York Herald says that a prominent Federal officer in that city, "who for obvious reasons will not allow the use of his name" in speaking of Hayes' "Southern policy," said it was all wrong, and "that the day he turned Packard out that day he should have resigned his own position."

RESUMPTION IN 1879.

Hayes has been called many ugly names, but he has never been charged him with being a resumptive man.

The resumptive man means something. Now, I apprehend a little different effect in the country from that entertained by some of the press. I don't believe, without a good reason, that it will send up the price of breadstuffs, provisions, leather, vessels, materials, &c., but your laboring men now amply supporting their families by getting higher pay in order to buy flour and corn.

you don't want rags" and yet Woodford knew that silver dollar wasn't money any more than a bushel of wheat was.

California is rejoicing over an orange grown by Mrs. Brewster, of Paradise valley, which, while growing, had to be suspended in a net bag, and in which it is yet shown.

The Washington Capital says a prominent manufacturer in Vermont received an order a week ago for six thousand hickory ax-handles, to be transported to the seat of war in the East.

APPLETON'S AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA. NEW REVISED EDITION.

Entirely rewritten by the ablest writers on every subject. Printed from new type, and illustrated with Several Thousand Engravings and Maps.

The movement of political affairs have kept pace with the discoveries of science and the progress of the human mind.

Large accessions to our geographical knowledge have been made by the indefatigable explorers of Africa, Asia, and Australia.

The great political revolutions of the last decade, with the natural result of the lapse of time, have brought into public view a multitude of new and important facts.

None of the original stereotype plates have been used, but every page has been printed on new type, forming, in fact, a new Cyclopaedia, with the same plan and compass as its predecessor.

The illustrations which are introduced for the first time in the present edition have been added not for the sake of pictorial effect, but to give greater lucidity and force to the explanations in the text.

Specimen pages of the AMERICAN CYCLOPEDIA, showing type, illustrations, &c., will be sent gratis, on application.
