EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

SECOND DAY.
MORNING SESSION.
THE BISHOP. May 31st, 1877.
The Episcopal convention was called to order at 9 o'clock, a. m., by the Bishop, who read the roll, the following clergy and lay-delegates answered, and were present yesterday:
CLERGY.
C. J. Curtis, R. B. Drame, Luther T. B. Haughton, H. G. Hilton, J. H. Lewis, W. S. Pettigrew, A. A. Watson, and James A. Weston.
LAY-DELEGATES.
W. L. Patterson, J. J. Erwin, W. Walton, J. C. Tate, H. R. Byron, J. H. C. Best, J. D. Grimsley and G. Boyle.
BISHOP'S ADDRESS.
The Bishop Atkinson then delivered his annual address to the convention, in detail his visitations during the past year, the number of times he had preached at each place, and the confirmations and passing suggestions as to the different regions, particularly of extreme Western North Carolina, which was a fine field for labor. His work may be summarized as follows: Confirmed by himself during the year, 283. During the same time, Bishop Lyman confirmed 238. During this time, he (Bishop Atkinson) baptized 16 persons, of whom 10 were adults and 6 infants; had performed 1 marriage service and one burial service; and one deacon, viz: Rev. Benjamin Lasser, and two priests, viz: Rev. Robert B. Drame and Rev. James A. Weston. Bishop Lyman has ordained one priest, the Rev. George C. Cooper, and consecrated St. Mary's Church, Kingston. There had been received by him into the diocese, from the Bishop of Tennessee, Rev. Lucien Holmes; from the Bishop of Alabama, Rev. Harvey A. Judd; and from the Bishop of Virginia, Rev. Jno. T. Clark; transferred by letters dismissary, Rev. J. J. Jones to Indiana; Rev. W. W. D. D., to the Bishop of Albany; and Rev. John T. Wheat, D. D., to California. Turning to the losses which the Church sustained during the year, he mentioned, with peculiar sadness, the death of the Aldert Smedes, D. D., and paid a beautiful tribute to his many virtues and high christian characters. "I need not say of his personal worth," said he, "I have often uttered the opinion in private, which I take this occasion to express publicly, as my deliberate judgment, and the smiles accomplished more for the advancement of this diocese, and for the promotion of the best interests of society than any man who ever lived in this diocese."
The candidates for Priest's Orders were Thomas B. Haughton, Charles O. Brady, Walter J. Smith, Benjamin S. Lasser, Benjamin E. Price, Jas. B. Cheshire and Edmund N. Joyner. The candidates for Deacon's Orders, were Edwin A. Osborn and Brooks G. White.
It was glad to note an improvement in the condition of the diocese; an increase in the number of the clergy and of the laity. The increase of communications, however, did not correspond as it ought to the number confirmed. He made important suggestions to the clergy on the point.

ASSISTANT BISHOP'S ADDRESS.
Bishop Lyman then detailed to the convention his services during the conventional year. He had baptized 18 persons, 9 adults and 9 infants; confirmed 238; and 1 couple. Had ordained 1 person to the Deacon's Order. Had administered Holy Communion 45 times in connection with his official visits, besides other celebrations in the ordinary services of the church.
He said, that in reviewing the work of the year he found much occasion for congratulation. The church, however, needs more means and more laborers. The young men of the church should be encouraged to see their duty in this respect, and to make a constant training. "Hence," said he, "it is a matter of great importance that which is supplied by a thorough christian school. It is impossible to calculate the influence for good which such an institution may be able to accomplish, and the consciousness which it fills me with sadness, in view of the establishment of our proposed christian school at Morganton. I had not before this time, to see this good so fairly inaugurated, but the great emergency of the times has rendered it almost impossible to raise the funds necessary to establish the institution upon a successful basis. I confess that I am greatly perplexed to determine what we ought to take in regard to this important matter, and should be very glad of any suggestions on the part of the convention. We have at Morganton one of the most attractive sites for such a school which can anywhere be found; but without the necessary buildings and furniture to give the institution a permanent character, it is not possible to open the school. We are all well, and we expect to have success in the one hand, and the greatest possible usefulness on the other.

This is the season for cats, croquet and spring clogs.

Only two interments in Oakdale during the week past, both infants.

Hot-house flowers and exotics are now in the height of their loveliness.

It's June blankets instead of June bugs now. They were in demand last night.

Five interments in Pine Forest Cemetery during the past week, two adults and three infants.

Their name is legion, and they all want some "office," and about ninety-nine out of every one hundred of them will get a disappointment.

Maj. Jno. W. Dunham, who has been quite ill for several days past, is now better and hopes to be able to take his place at the Clerk's desk in the Criminal Court on Monday.

Mr. John D. Love, who was reported by us on Thursday as being dangerously ill, is still in a very critical condition, although we are glad to hear that he was slightly easier this morning.

The June Term of the Criminal Court for this county convenes next Monday. The docket is a pretty full one and it is probable that the Court will be kept very busy during the two weeks of its term.

The "shutting up" business went into effect last evening at the ringing of the Market House bell. This signal will be given on every evening now until Sept. 15th, as a note of warning and information.

Applications for Office.

By advertisement published this morning, it will be seen that all applications for municipal positions must be handed in to Mr. T. C. Servos, City Clerk and Treasurer, on or before next Thursday, at which time the Board of Aldermen will go into an election to fill the various offices.

An Honor Worthily Bestowed.

We are glad to learn of the appreciation which our former fellow-townsmen, General R. E. Colston, has met with at the hands of the Khedive of Egypt, in whose service there are so many American officers. He has recently received a high testimonial of this fact, which consists of the decoration of "a Commander of the Order of the Osmanieh," which has been conferred upon him in acknowledgment of his distinguished services in Kordofan. This decoration is in the shape of a seven pointed star or cross of green enamel, with red or gold centre, hanging from a gold crescent, and is worn around the neck on a green ribbon with a red stripe.

You Can Save Money.

By using DOUGLASS'S YEAST POWDER, for less butter, flour, eggs, etc., are required to accomplish satisfactory results. This is not a needless happy-go-lucky statement, but a fact verified by the experience of many thousand families. Try it and prove the claim.

Lecture on Entomology.

The regular meeting of the Historical and Scientific Society will be held next Monday evening on which occasion Mr. W. F. Wenzel will read a paper on Entomology, which has been prepared by him with especial reference to noxious and beneficial insects. Mr. Wenzel is fully equal to the subject he has undertaken and the paper he will present will afford real entertainment to those who may be present on the occasion.

Dr. Deems in North Carolina.

Yesterday's Raleigh Observer says: Rev. Dr. Chas. F. Deems, pastor of the Church of the Strangers, New York, arrived in the city yesterday evening, and took rooms at the Yarborough House. Though much fatigued by his journey, he was able to receive and entertain a large number of friends during the evening. Dr. Deems is en route to Chapel Hill where he will deliver the annual sermon before the graduating class Wednesday evening next.

Prof. Agostini's Entertainment.

There was what might really be called "a tremendous crowd" at the Opera House last evening, the occasion being the final entertainment of Prof. Agostini's dancing school. Every seat was filled and the interest was intense and unflagging. It is no flattery to Mr. Agostini to say that the entertainment did him honor. The proficiency of his pupils was something wonderful to behold and we know that the entire audience were delighted and pleased. After the exhibition by the children the City Hall was then opened and the young disported themselves there in the mazes of the dance until the small hours.

The Fire To-Day.

About noon to-day an immense volume of smoke was seen rising in the southern portion of the city, and for at least fifteen minutes persons in the vicinity of the Market House were undecided whether it proceeded from some of the distilleries or from a burning building. The fire alarm was sounded and the fire department turned out promptly, but before any branch of it could reach the scene of conflagration the burning building was completely consumed.

The house was situated on the corner of Front and Maresh's streets and was occupied by Mrs. Kershaw and her two small children and owned by the estate of Lary Williams. Mrs. Kershaw was unable to tell us anything as to the origin of the fire, and says the first she knew of it was the floor near where she was sitting sewing in a light blaze. The poor woman lost all of her household effects, save two wooden bottom chairs and a small table. When we left the burning building the poor woman was sitting in the hot sun with her little children crying and clinging to her skirts. They are indeed to be pitied—no shelter over their heads, no food to eat, and without money and friends.

The Seventeen Year Locusts.

The seventeen year locusts which have made their appearance throughout Eastern Virginia, and portions of North Carolina this spring, are said to be a harmless insect, and do no injury till about the time of their departure, when they perforate the tender twigs of forest and fruit trees and deposit their eggs in countless thousands.

They perforate the limbs in double rows, and so deeply as to kill most of them at once, or leave them in such a crippled condition that they are soon broken off by the winds.

In this way they inflict serious damage to young fruit trees and limbs of the forest trees.

The eggs thus deposited hatch out into small worms in about a month, and fall to the ground, which they soon penetrate deeper and deeper, until they get below the limits of freezing, where they silently grow, and undergo a transformation from year to year till they are fully grown, when they come to the surface, and cast their last covering, emerge therefrom in perfect form and growth. It is the male that is heard filling the forest with its soft, plaintive notes, which is heard for about six weeks, which ends their career. After that all that is seen of them is the wreck of their dead bodies strewed about. But few of the middle aged will ever see them again, and none before the year 1894.

The attention of our readers is directed to the changes made in the schedules of the W. & W. and W. C. & A. Roads and in the hours for opening and closing the mails.

A Bold and Desperate Thief Caught and Stolen Articles Recovered.

This morning Robert Ellerby was arrested on a capias by Deputy Sheriff Thos. C. Miller, charged with the robbery of Mr. Thos. H. Smith's store, some months ago, and since his arrest it has been ascertained he was one of the thieves who has made so many successful visits to the premises of persons living near this city. Last night the chicken house on the premises of Mr. W. P. Canaday was robbed of a great many fancy chickens, and this morning while Bust West, a servant of Mr. Canaday, was in the market, he discovered a woman carrying a covered basket. His suspicions were at once aroused, and he called Officer Strode and pointed the woman out, when she started off in a brisk run, but was soon overtaken and carried before Squire Gardner. Upon examining the basket, several pairs of dressed chickens were found, and the woman stated that Robert Ellerby had brought the chickens to her house. A search warrant was issued and the house searched when the following articles were found: A pitchfork and pea raker, the property of Capt. S. W. Nobles; a large clock and dictionary, belonging to St. James' Home; two hand-saws, belonging to Mr. Taylor at the National Cemetery, and the heads of the chickens stolen from Mr. Canaday. It is thought Ellerby is one of the men who shot Mr. Oscar Grant a short time ago, and also visited the butcher pen of Mr. Thos. H. Johnson and the premises of Capt. Alexander May and Mrs. Walker.

List of Jail Birds.

Up to to-day there were 18 prisoners in jail, awaiting trial at the Criminal Court which convenes next week, and this morning Robert Elleville, charged with larceny, was arrested on a capias by officers T. C. Miller and Tony Ashe, of the Sheriff's force and added to the number. The list now stands as follows:
Chas. M. Epps, charged with larceny, committed by Justice VanAmringe.
Ida Evans, with larceny, committed by Justice Gardner.
Robt. Elleville, larceny, committed on a capias.
James Harvey, assault and battery, committed by Justice Harris.

Ida Mack, harboring a prisoner, committed by Justice Gardner.
Samuel Merrick, larceny, committed by Justice Harris.
Annie J. Speight, larceny, committed on a capias.
Chas. Southerland, larceny, committed on a capias.
Abram Thally, bigamy, committed by Justice Gardner.
Robt. M. Walker, alias Taylor, forgery, committed by Justice Gardner.
Jack Watkins, larceny, committed by Mayor Canaday.
Taylor Woodward, assault and battery and peace warrant, committed by Justice Gardner.
Bazzell Ward, larceny, committed by Mayor Canaday.
Robt. Nixon, larceny, committed by Justice Gardner.
Of the prisoners 2 are white and 17 are colored.
