neighborhood resembled the shock of an earthquake. The water running under the bank is supposed to have caused the fall on the 24th. The shock when the rock struck the water was distinctly felt three miles from the fall. Several of the trees that stood on the rock are now seen standing in the river as erect as when in their original places on the rock.

CAROLINA.

A grand excursion is advertised from Henderson to Raleigh on the 23d inst. During the month of May six new money order offices were established in this State.

The port of Little River, Woodville, N. C., shipped upwards of 60,000 bushels of corn and 1,000 bales of cotton during the last season.

Robesonian: The District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, meets in this town on Wednesday the 4th day of July, next. A very large concourse of people, both of members of the Conference and visitors, are expected to be present.

Robesonian: The following is the official vote cast at each of the townships on the 7th inst: Shoe Heel, Prohibition, 8; License, 61; majority for Prohibition, 7; Smith's, Prohibition, 95; License, 40; majority for Prohibition, 55.

Raleigh News: Henderson Dunston, colored, an assistant chief of police of this city under Radical regime, was yesterday before the Mayor charged with deserting his wife and children. The case was postponed until this morning, when a hearing will be had.

Concord Sun: Last Thursday evening, a son of Mr. Jim Scott, (we could not learn the lad's name) and a negro boy, were "playing" with a pistol, at Mill Bridge, Rowan Co., when by some means the pistol was accidentally fired, and its contents entered the negro's abdomen, killing him almost instantly.

Concord Sun: Daniel Cline, a crazy young man, committed suicide at his home in this county, Friday evening at about 6 o'clock. He loaded a musket, and placing the muzzle in his mouth fired the gun, blowing his head to atoms. The coroner held an inquest over the body and rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Edenton Times: There is a cypress tree on the farm known as Sandy Point, near this place, that measures 28 feet in circumference; and on the farm of John Roberts, Esq., there is a large hollow poplar in which that gentleman housed between two and three hundred bushels of sweet potatoes, and on the Somerset farm there is an Oak that shades one fourth of an acre.

Charlotte Observer: Information was received here yesterday evening of the caving in of the Kings Mountain mine, which occurred on Friday evening, which mine all being out at the time, no one was injured. The full extent of the injury to property has not been ascertained. The occurrence will delay operations for six or eight months. It is stated, however, that the falling of the earth has developed a vein of unusual richness.

Hillsboro Recorder: On Monday night week, the thunder storm which prevailed here and in the vicinity was accompanied with unusual electrical violence. A negro house on the western edge of the town was struck and the inmates all more or less shocked, and a small boy bears upon his person the marks of the fiery fluid; but there was no life lost. On the Oxford road, an old dwelling belonging to Wm. H. Bacon, but unoccupied at the time, was struck and consumed.

Concord Sun: A desperate cutting affair took place in Mount Pleasant, on Wednesday last, in which Duke Vandenberg received twelve ugly gashes. A dispute arose between Vandenberg and one McCall, over a little tanyard bark (a mighty small thing to get hacked up for) which ended in the two closing together with the result above stated. The wounds were inflicted with a common pocket knife, and though many and grievous, are not considered dangerous by the physicians. Mr. McCall has been lodged in jail.

Robesonian: Lumberton is situated on the north side of Lumber River 69 miles from Wilmington, 33 miles from Fayetteville, 25 miles from Elizabethtown; 29 from Whiteville; 98 miles from Raleigh, and 118 miles from Charlotte. Has 25 stores; 3 wagon and blacksmith shops; 2 steam saw mills; 1 wool factory; 1 beer pitch/manufactory; 2 livery and sale stables; 3 hotels and private boarding houses; 8 resident lawyers; 5 resident physicians; 2 dentists; 2 resident ministers; 3 schools; (2 white and one colored) 2 churches; (3 white and one colored) 2 temperance societies, and one masonic lodge.

Supreme Court.

The court met yesterday at 9 o'clock, all the Justices present.

Appeals from this, the 4th Judicial District, were taken up and argued as follows: Angus McFayden vs. J. T. Council, ex'r, from Bladen. R. H. Lyon, C. C. Lyon for plaintiff. T. H. Sutton for defendant.

Samuel Morgau et al., vs. Adrian & Volders et al., from New Hanover. E. G. Haywood for plaintiffs, Wright & Stedman and W. N. H. Smith for defendants.

In consequence of being personally interested in the suit of plaintiffs as an officer of the Bank of New Hanover, Justice Faircloth did not sit in this case.

City Court.

The following cases were disposed of this morning as follows:

Wesley Mitchell, fined $10 on the 7th inst. for disorderly conduct and released upon surety, was this morning delivered to the officers of the Court by his bondsmen. Mitchell then informed His Honor that he had $5, which was all the money he could raise to pay his fine, and that he had "nearly run hisself to death to get that." The Mayor remanded him to his cell.

Victoria Collins, an old offender, was up again for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The Mayor sent her back to the cell to cool off on bread and water.

The Excursion Yesterday.

As announced by us in yesterday's issue the excursion given on the steamer Goa Worth under the auspices of the Young Catholic Friends' Society was largely attended, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather. There were about two hundred persons on board, all of whom speak with delight of the pleasures of the day. The boat stopped at Smithville where many of the party disembarked and afterwards proceeded to Fort Caswell, with the remainder of the party, where a visit was paid to the ruins of the Fort. It was a decidedly pleasant affair and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

At Last.

By the steamship Tanita, which arrived here this morning from New York, Capt. Flanner has received the last of the armament for his battery of four guns.

The requisition was originally made for four guns, and four guns came. It was then found necessary to make a requisition for carriages, caissons, harness, &c., which arrived as stated above this morning. This will enable Capt. Flanner to be ready to fire a national salute on the Gurlorion Fourth of July.

The Company will be ordered out at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning to mount their guns.

Suicide.

Night before last John Brown, a colored boy of about 19 years of age retired for the night at about his usual hour and on yesterday morning his mother being unable to arouse him despatched a messenger for Dr. W. J. H. Bellamy, who upon arriving at the house pronounced the boy dead, stating his death was caused from an overdose of laudanum. It is reported the boy had been chastised for some offence and in resentment took the laudanum. Coroner Hewlett held an inquest over the body of the boy, the verdict being in accordance with the facts.

A Suggestion.

As it seems to be the purpose of the city authorities to turf the avenue between the row of trees on Market street, it has been suggested that a post with strips attached be placed along the line of trees to prevent carriages, carts and other vehicles from crossing from one side to the other through the openings, and thereby keep the grass from being cut up by the wheels.

Mr. Davis' Address.

The lecture promised by Hon. Geo. Davis for the benefit of the Philomathean Literary Society, is to be delivered this evening at the Opera House. It will be something that all should hear and those who do not attend will learn to regret it afterwards.

It is reported that the Paregoric Club is about to lose one of its most prominent members, a gentleman who has risen to a highly honorable position in the Club on the score of past experiences.

There is a growing feeling among American people that the man who can hear a fellow mortal complain of a cold in the head and abstain from telling him what to do for it is the man who should be the next President.

Before Court.

Ellerby, Nixon and Kelly, of the Moonlight Club Society, were brought before the Criminal Court this morning for trial, but up to this writing their cases had not been called. Ellerby, the prime mover in the Club, is a tall, spare built mulatto with a low receding forehead, flat nose, protruding lips and chin, and looks every inch the rascal he has been proven to be.

Kelly, the "right bower," has also a low receding forehead, and is more compactly built than Ellerby, and carries a villainous countenance. Nixon is a much older man than his compere, and has the appearance of a man venerable in sin as well as in years.

Exchange Corner.

The millinery and fancy goods business at Exchange Corner, recently conducted by Mrs. A. D. Brown, has been purchased by Mr. N. H. Sprunt, who will hereafter conduct the business. Mr. Sprunt is a young gentleman known to our citizens as active, energetic and capable, and he will spare no pains to please all who may favor him with their patronage. He will keep constantly on hand a full line of goods in his department and the ladies in especial are invited to call and examine his stock.

A Freshet in the River.

The rains seem to have been pretty heavy in the interior as well as in Wilmington. A telegram from Fayetteville last night stated that the water in the river had risen 12 feet up to that time. There is more yet to come but it is not thought that the freshet will be high enough to overflow the low lands in cultivation along the Cape Fear, provided the rains will hold up now. The water from the freshet has not yet reached this port.

For Smithville.

The schedule of the steamer J. S. Underhill will be found in the advertising columns in this issue. Hereafter she will leave Wilmington every morning at 8:15 and on the return trip will leave her wharf at Smithville at 4 P. M., thus presenting an excellent opportunity for a day's pleasure at Smithville. Family excursion parties are taken down and back the same day at $1 for the round trip and half price for children.

Criminal Court.

The following cases were disposed of in this Court to-day:

Jack Watkins, who was shot by John McKey sometime since, while in the act of stealing hogs, was tried this morning before the Criminal Court and submitted to a verdict of guilty.

Marion Holly, charged with being a confederate of Watkins, was also tried. Jury out.

WILMINGTON, N. C., June 13, 1877.

MR. EDITOR REVIEW:

It is said that six Aldermen (four Democrats and two other Democrats) have declared with an oath that no vote of theirs was cast for George W. Price, Jr., at the late election of Chief of Police. How, therefore, did that individual receive five votes on the sixth ballot? Let us hear from these gentlemen over their own signatures.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WILMINGTON, N. C., June 13th.

At the regular council of Wyoming Tribe No. 4, I. O. R. M., held hot moon, 12th sleep, G. S. D. 386, the following resolutions were adopted and ordered to be published:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Ruler of the Universe, in his wisdom and goodness, to call from our midst our esteemed and beloved brother, JAMES A. TINDLE, true to the custom and spirit of his people, his surviving companions desire to record his valor, acknowledge his goodness and preserve his memory; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of the Great Spirit in removing from our midst our worthy and esteemed Brother, we are thankful that in His goodness the iron hand of death has been stayed from our membership for near four Great Sleeps.

2d, That in the departure of our Brother from the Lodge of his people and the hunting grounds of his Father, we have lost a comrade whom we respected for his kind disposition, his many virtues and his many noble qualities of mind and heart.

3d, That while we humbly and reverently acknowledge the superior wisdom and power of the Great Spirit whose voice is heard in the solitude of the pathless woods, in the thunder of the waterfalls and in the murmur of the running brook, knowing that He doeth all things well; yet we cannot refrain from mourning the loss of a comrade so good, so unflinching in the chase and so valorous in the defense of our principles.

4th, That we tender our warmest sympathy to the friends now lingering lonely and sad in the deserted Lodge of our departed Brother, humbly asking the Great Spirit to watch over them daily until they are called to meet the absent one in the Great Council of the Spiritland.

5th, That a blank page in our Book of Records be left, inscribed thereon the name and death of the deceased Brother, and that a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, and that they be published in the daily papers of the city.

Respectfully submitted,
C. C. REDD,
S. A. CRAIG,
W. M. T. SPURNER,
Committee.
